CARONTAWAN

Published by
THE SENIOR CLASS
State Teachers College
Mansfield, Pa.

FOREWORD

This, the thirteenth edition of the Carontawan, has been created for the same purpose as the twelve other editions. That purpose is and has been but to dip into the school life at Mansfield and to record it in these pages. Your life at Mansfield has been full, so this book will only try to provide the notes from which memory can reconstruct your years at Mansfield.

The Classes

Education, Music and Home Economics

LLOYD AVERY
Group Four.

Webster, Mass.
"JOE" BIZITZ

ORLANDO BAROCCO
Group Four.

Eikland, Pa.
"LUNDY"

Y. M. C. A.

Here's to "Joe"—a gay Beau Brummel,
Who for many a fair damsel fell;
He's smooth and blase,
But, we like his way—
And we listen to all he has to tell.

Y. M. C. A.; Baud; Treasurer of Art Club; Emersonian; Commissaire du Cercle Francaise.

"Lundy" is the type of man you must know to appreciate. However, despite his retiring disposition, he is far from spineless, and those who know him can well attest to his tempestuousness when aroused. He thinks and thinks, for he has a brain and the ability to use it.

LOIS EAMES BALCOM Binghamton, N. Y.
B. S. Primary Ed. "LOIE"

ARLINE BERRY
"BERRY"

Williamsport, Pa.
Group Two.

Art Club; Hiking Club; Art Editor of 1929 Carontawan.

S. S., '25, '26, '27, '28, '29; S. S., '29, Vice-President Y. W. C. A., S. S. '26, Hiking Club; Athletic Club.

We sometimes overlook these quiet people, but Lois' sweet personality has endeared her to her classmates. Her ability in art was proven beyond a doubt by last year's Carontawan. Still her heart remains in Ithaca—we wonder why! But we won't be too inquisitive.

A—Ambitious.
R—Romantic
L—Likeable.
I—Innocent. (?)
E—Enthusiastic.

This is Arline; an all around "Pal".

HARRY BEACH Mansfield, Pa.
Group Four.

Y. M. C. A.; Dramatic Club.

Big brown eyes, black hair and a deep bass voice introduce Harry. His efficiency is measured not only by his school activities, but also by his interests in business and other walks of life. May he ever be true to our Red and Black as he has been true to his annual "flames."

HELEN BEACH Mansfield, Pa.
Group Four.

Y. W. C. A.; Athenaeum; Dramatic Club; Assistant Editor Flashlight (3); Art; Treasurer of Art Club (3).

Beneath a pleasing reserve we find a character sympathetic, frank, and most sincere. Who knows but what she'll be another Sarah Bernhardt, too? Her talent exhibited in the Dramatic Club would warrant it. In Helen we find a loyal supporter of her many interests.

DONALD BENSON Mansfield, Pa.
Group Four. "DON"

President of Class (1); Y. M. C. A.; Band; Glee Club.

Hail to "Don"—who in triumph advances,
Honored and blest is this farmer's son.
Studies, and jokes, and trombones, and dances.

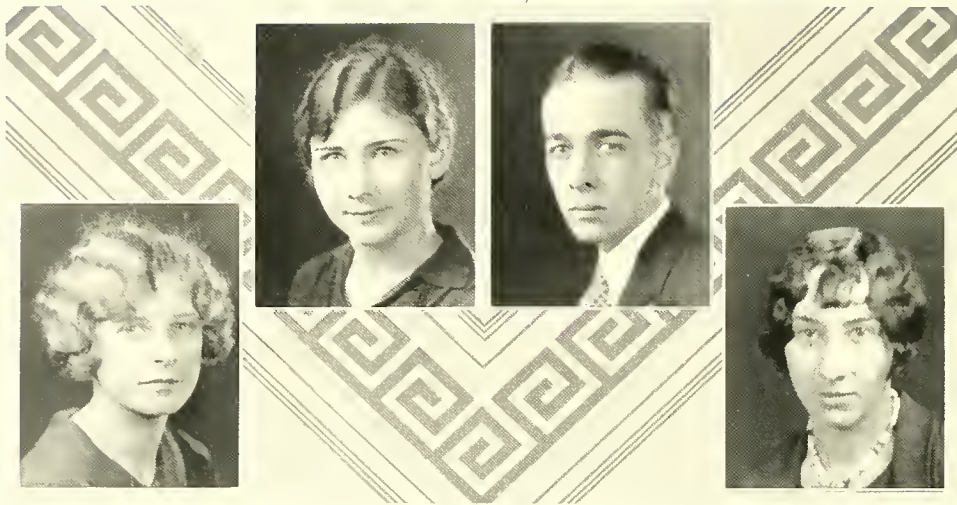

Thus winning him friends in this college home.

KATHRYN BIDDLE Dushore, Pa.
Music Supervisors. "KITTY"

Music Supervisors' Club; Chorus; Y. W. C. A.

Our Kathryn seems to have a habit of staring into space. We wonder if that space could possibly represent Penn State?

Surely that smile which we all know so well, has been a big help with Frosh down at the Home Ec. Cottage, and the same holds true for the rest of her friends.

ZIDA BIESECKER Clark's Summit, Pa.
Group Four. "ZIP"

Y. H. C. A.; Cabinet (2) (3); Vice President (4); Athletic Club; Rural Club; Secretary (4); Cercle Francaise; Carontawan (4).

Brim full o' pep; eyes blue as skies,
She can be funny, serious, or wise;
Sympathetic, sunny; or all, a true friend,
Things to be done? She's true to the end.

Sweet personailty, full of rascality,
That's our "Zip."

ROSANNA BLOOMSTER Smethport, Pa.
Home Economics. "NAN"

Domicilian Club; President (3); Y. H. C. A.; Cabinet (4); Class Treasurer (4); Flashlight (2); Carontawan (4); Hiking Club; Rural Club; Emersonian.

If you would have a friend so true,
One who is kind, cheering, believing,
never deceiving;
One who thinks, true worth is in being,
not seeming;
One who wears and wears, yet is always true blue
Then I'd say, "Choose Nan," she's the girl for you.

LEIGH BOWER Nelson, Pa.
Group Four.

Y. M. C. A.; Orchestra.

Never let outward appearances deceive you. This product of Nelson may appear quiet and unassuming, but upon acquaintance he proves himself a true friend and sport.

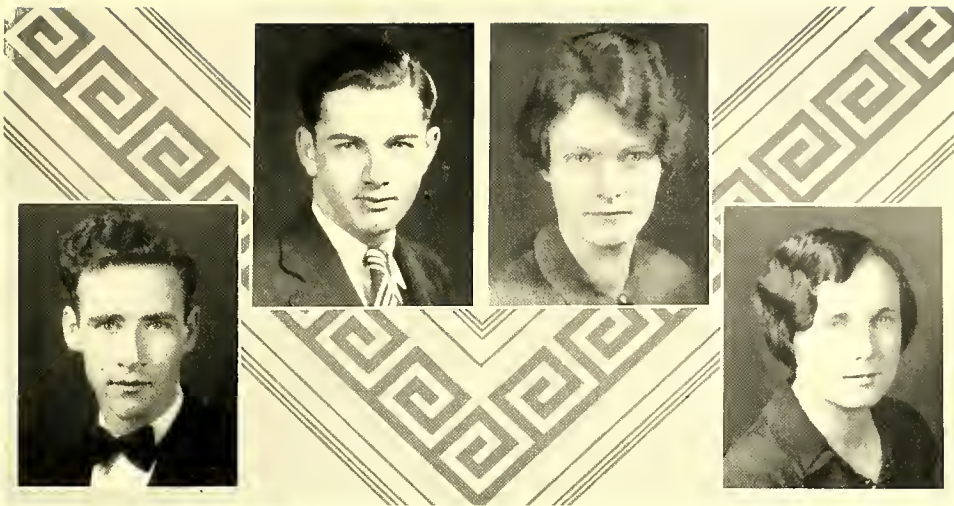

A bright future lies ahead of this young man, and we are hoping for his success in life.

LELIA BRACE Mansfield, Pa.
Home Economics. "BILLY"

Domicilian Club.

"A life like yours reminds us, we can make our lives sublime, and departing; leave behind us, footprints on the sands of time."

We have learned to love those brown eyes and that good-natured disposition. Her motto is, "Be Prepared." A town girl who has spent four years in our midst very inconspicuously.

FRANK BREWER Coudersport, Pa.
Group Four "BREWER"

*Emersonian; Rurban; French Club;
Y. M. C. A.*

A quiet, serious manner wins true friends. He is ever ready to lend a helping hand or to cheer up a classmate. When in doubt of some question just ask Frank. Success is sure to be his goal. But on the way we wish him all sorts of happiness.

MARGARET E. BUCK Starrucca, Pa.
Home Economics "MARG"

Domicilium Club; Y. W. C. A.

Should college friends be forgot and never brought to mind? Well, not if they are like "Marg." We not only admire her red hair, dimples, and turned up nose, but also those qualities which will make her a success. She is studious and will go out a conscientious teacher.

EDWIN D. BRIGHAM, JR. Tioga, Pa.
Group Four. "ED"

Intermural Basketball; Soccer.

Ed may be said to be quiet, but he only appears as such to those who do not know him well. You must remember that all great men are dignified and reserved. Tioga should be proud of having such a man in her Post Office. We hope that this position won't keep him out of the teaching profession.

DORIS BURROWS Vandling, Pa.
Group Four. "DOLLY"

Y. W. C. A.; Rurban; Treasurer (3); Emersonian; Cercle Francaise.

"Dolly" is here, there and everywhere, always where there is the most excitement. Whether it be Waymart or the Coal Regions she always carries her happy-go-lucky giggle.

We wonder why the sudden interest in books? Perhaps the sender is the inspiration.

AGNES ELOISE BURT Coudersport, Pa.
Home Economics. "AG"

Flashlight (4); Domicilian Club; President (4); Dramatic Club; Y. W. C. A.

"Ag" is one of our versatile girls, active in social life as well as in scholastic. She is pappy and gay sympathetic and understanding. We all wish her continued popularity and success throughout life. If she received a dime for every time she danced, she'd have—well, she'd have plenty.

SARAH E. BYLER Morgantown, Pa.
Home Economics. "SALLY"

Domicilian Club; Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club.

Who doesn't know the girl in room 214, famous as postmistress of North Hall? Handing out letters and packages is only one of her activities. Most of us know her better as a sincere friend and pal. She is one of our industrious, good-natured girls.

GERTRUDE CARD Roulette, Pa.
Group Four. "GERT"

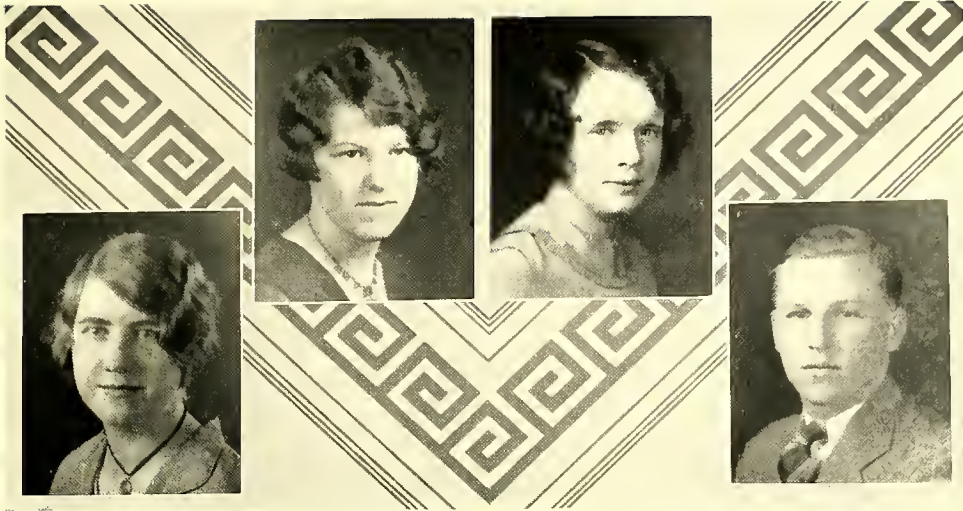

Hiking Club; Athletic Club; Y. W. C. A.; Cercle Francaise.

"Once a friend, always a friend" is "Gert's" motto. Four years she has kept up her end in studies, good times, sharing, etc. "Company likes company," so "Gert" has chosen a room with a foursome in Room 413. May hard luck follow her all her life, but never catch up.

NELLIE CARLSON Smethport, Pa.
Home Economics. "VI"

Domicilian Club; Vice President (3); Y. W. C. A.; Flashlight (3) (4); Student Council (4).

Playful blushes that seemed naught
But luminous escapes of thought.
Underneath her carefree, fun-loving nature, she is serious and is one who desires the best of life and gives her best in return. All the characteristics which go to make a true friend are found in "Vi"—our Swede.

VIOLA CARPENTER
Music Supervisors.

Athens, Pa.
"CARP"

Emersonian; Band; Glee Club; Supervisors' Club.

Will we ever forget her witty remarks or the notes she blew in band and orchestra? "Carp" is one who does things and not one who sits around and asks why it wasn't done differently. Fifth floor will certainly be lonesome after four years of her jolly, fun-loving presence.

LOIS C. CHAPMAN
Music Supervisors.

Genesee, Pa.
"CHAPPIE"

Y. W. C. A.; Music Supervisors' Club; Chorus.

"Fear not anyone," says Lois,
"It isn't worth the price."
Go and come just as you please
And heed neither man nor mice.

MARY CASWELL
Home Economics

Taylor, Pa.
"MAC"

Y. W. C. A.; Rurban; Emersonian; Domicilian.

Mary has enjoyed the pleasant task of living up to the reputation of her brother and sister.

We wonder if she brings that unlimited good nature from Taylor. If so, that is where we will "Emigrate."

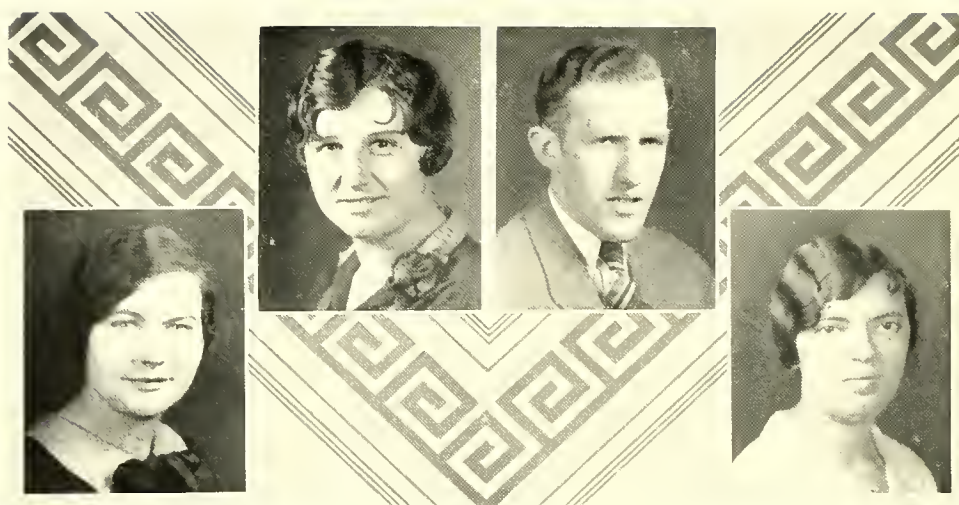

ANTHONY CIMBAL
Group Four.

Glen Lyon, Pa.
"TONY"

Y. M. C. A.; Rurban Club; Latin Club; Opera (2).

Here's to our ever studious Anthony, who more than anything else shows a scientific mind. Love to him was fire against which there was no insurance, so he steered clear.

How the movie fans will miss him next year.

DESTA R. COLE Mansfield, Pa.
Group Four.

Y. W. C. A.; Cercle Francaise; Latin Club.

“Veni, vidi, vici....”

This motto applies very well to this Latin professor, for she has been successfully imparting deep philosophical thoughts to young innocents for two years. Three cheers for a buoyant, jolly, industrious, high-minded, 20th century bit of local color.

GRANTLY J. COOKE Susquehanna, Pa.
Group Four. “COOKIE”

Emersonian; Cercle Francaise; Y. M. C. A.; Intermural Basketball; Soccer.

“Cookie” has a most cheerful and obliging disposition. He is slow, but he usually gets there. “Cookie” has attained glory in having good times, being a great booster of all social activities. He’s a true friend. What more can be asked?

ESTHER K. COLWELL Ulster, Pa.
Group Four.

Athletic Club; Emersonian; Latin Club; German Club; Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club.

At last we have caught up with Esther, who, as a lofty senior, looked down upon “us poor Sophs” two years ago. We hope she will always be as successful as she has been here, both in scholarship and in friends. She is one you can admire in character, studies and generous nature.

FLORA CRAYTON Powell, Pa.
B. S. in Elementary Education.

It takes courage to belong to the smallest group in school. Flora has very thoroughly pursued the work in the four year elementary. Because she is in a class by herself, some of us do not know her as well as we wish we might. She has filled her place among us as a classmate and a friend.

HENRY S. DARROW Rummerfield, Pa.
Group Four.

"M" Club; Manager of Football, 1924-25; Carontawan, '26; Athenaeum, '25-'26; Student Council, '25-'26.

Henry has long been faithful to old Mansfield. Although we have known him for one year while he was studying for his degree, we are able to appreciate the qualities of a true and worthwhile friend and student. On to bigger and better things.

MRS. LOIS PANTALL DEWATERS
Mansfield, Pa.
Music Supervisors "PANTS"

Music Supervisors' Club; Chorus; Opera (1); Y. W. C. A.; Cabinet (3); Orchestra.

Were I a painter I would portray a vivid type of Spanish beauty, a flashing smile, a charming personality, the exquisite tone of a violin, a magic way of putting cheer into a room, and friendship—constant, honest, true. This is the Lois who should live on canvas were I a painter.

ALLAN DOUGHTON Mansfield, Pa.
Group Four. "DOT"

Flashlight (1) (2) (3); Editor (3); Carontawan (2) (3) (4); Editor (4); Y. M. C. A.; German Club; Orchestra.

Herewith, we introduce to our hall of remembrance, one of Mansfield's most clever young men. For four years we have admired him as a friend and envied his unfailing good humor and ready wit. For some reason, he is unusually high in literary ability—his use of it has meant success for more than one school publication.

HELEN OLA DURDGN Wyoming, Pa.
Group Four. "HELEN OLA"

Art Club; Cerele Francaise; Y. W. C. A.; Outdoor Club; Vice President (4).

Some say she's quiet, but, oh my.
If you only knew her you'd wonder why.
In for some mischief? Just rarin' to go.
But is she ambitions? Delightfully so.
Her delight is to blend colors. Goodness me!
There's her correspondence to the interesting two or three.

DAISY DURRANT
Group Four.

Athens, Pa.
"DIP"

Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club; Treasurer (3); Cercle Francaise.

Daisy—another petite mademoiselle is small but right there when it comes to lessons or fun.

Were you ever in her room when she didn't have eats? It must have been a mistake.

May she ever grow on to bigger and better things.

FRANCES DYKINS
Group Four.

Mansfield, Pa.
"DYKE"

Y. W. C. A.; Cercle Francaise, German Club.

Although "Dyke" has had her residence down-town for the past two years, she still spends a lot of her time on fifth floor.

The Junior High will long remember her as a "French Teacher." We can think of nothing but success for her. She deserves it, too. She has been a hard worker while at school and will make a teacher any school would be proud to have.

LINALYS ELLSWORTH Springboro, Pa.
Home Economics. "LIN"

Domicilian Club; Emersonian; Dramatic; Y. W. C. A.

The one's who are good, and the ones who are bad,

Find always a friend in "Lin."

She never sits in the scorner's seat.

She slams not any man.

Yes, "Lin" lives in her room at the end of the hall,

And is ever a friend of the gang.

DOROTHA ESCOTT Wellsboro, Pa.
Group Four. "DOT"

President of Outdoor Club, '25-'26; Flashlight, '25-'26; Y. W. C. A.; Emersonian.

"Why does everyone love Dorotha so?"
the eager students cry.

"Because Dorotha loves each one, you know," anyone can reply.

Her cheerfulness, combined with studious habits makes her a delightful companion and friend.

She hasn't been with our class very long—but long enough to feel she is one of us.

HELEN FELTS
Group Four.

Carbondale, Pa.
"FELTSIE"

Art Club; Secretary (2); President (3); Rurban; Outdoor; Hiking; Cercle Francaise; Y. W. C. A.

"Still water runs deep."

Beneath that dignified bearing lies a heart full of congeniality, sympathy, and understanding. She has a fertile brain always bursting forth with something unexpected, be it a psychological question, a social question, an air castle, or a suggestion of a feed. Feeds are her weakness (Editor's note.)

LENA FOX
Home Economics.

Halifax, Pa.
"FOX"

Y. W. C. A.; Glee Club; Domicilian.

Take two large pinches of wit,
Stir in some irony—just a wee bit—
To this mixture blend sweetness, generosity and pep,
For these are the things that give her rep.
Place these ingredients in a large box.
Mix them up well and you have Lena
Fox.

MARY ANNETTE FRENCH Mansfield, Pa.
Music Supervisors. "RED"

Music Supervisors' Club; Orchestra; Band; Chorus; Rurban Club; Y. W. C. A.

I think that one does rarely see
A girl like Mary—sure to please.
A disposition kind and true.
A touch of red-haired temper, too.
A girl whose merry eyes of brown
Are never known to scold or frown.

WINIFRED H. FURMAN Wellsboro, Pa.
Music Supervisors. "FREDDIE"

Music Supervisors' Club; Chorus; Band; Orchestra; Y. W. C. A.

The tallest of that notoriously noisy quartet from South Fifth Avenue, "Fred-die", seems to be the salvation of many troubles for the three H's. We envy her conscientiousness and we know that someday it will bring her to the top. She is a friend who will be long remembered.

HESTER GEER Coudersport, Pa.
Home Economics.

Domicilian Club; Y. W. C. A.

H—eight of ambitions—
E—ver sincere—
S—ociability has it—
T—actful in those “courses of study”—
E—arnest in all endeavors—
R—eally a perfect friend and pal.

DOROTHY GREENE Mansfield, Pa.
Group Four. “DOT”

Y. W. C. A.; Cercle Francaise; Latin Club; Secretary of Class (3) (4).

“She has a clear wind-sheltered loveliness
Like pale streams winding far and hills withdrawn
From the bright reaches of the noise.
Down
Is her lifting fancy, but her heart
Is orchard boughs and dusk and quietness.”
Doesn't that sound like Dorothy?

MARJORIE GIALDINI Athens, Pa.
Home Economics. “MARGE”

Domicilian Club; Y. W. C. A.; Vice President of Class (4); Hiking Club; Athletic Club.

A friend is one who takes your hand and talks a speech you understand. She's partly kindness, partly mirth—and faith unfaltering in your worth. She's first to cheer you on success, and last to leave you in distress. A friend is constant, honest, true—in short, old pal, she's just like you.

ELIZABETH G. GREEN Harrisburg, Pa.
Home Economics “BETTY”

Domicilian Club; Y. W. C. A.; Student Council (4); Carontawan (4).

What shall we say of “Betty”? Is she not the most modern maiden? Peppy! Interesting! Versatile! Sympathetic! Lovable! She is one who will be a real friend long after college days are over. Will we ever understand her? Never! Will we love her? Always!
Her charm lies in being “Betty.”

ELMO K. HACKETT Wellsboro, Pa.
Group Four.

"M" Club; Y. M. C. A.; Football Squad; Band; Orchestra; Red and Black Serenaders (1); Manager of Arcadians (2) (3); Intramural Basketball.

An athlete and a musician. If you have never danced to the snap and rhythm of the Arcadians you don't know what you have missed. We are sure to remember his dance band as well as his perseverance on the football field.

KENNETH HALSTEAD Factoryville, Pa.
Group Four. "KEN"

Emersonian Literary Society; Intramural Basketball; Y. M. C. A.; Carontawan Board (3); Business Manager (4).

One of the famous trippers of the light fantastic, as well as Business Manager of this Annual. Here we have a combination of pleasure-loving and intelligent-minded individual. As a friend when a friend is in need there is none better. A worker who can't help but be successful.

RUTH HAMBLIN Tunkhannock, Pa.
Music Supervisors. "HAMMY"

Music Supervisors' Club; Band; Orchestra; Chorus; Y. W. C. A.

The smallest member of that quartet. Her brown eyes are ready to snap with merriment or are red hot with anger, as the occasion demands. "Ham" is that French Horn player whom you hear so often at those band concerts. Do you suppose she could syllabize that laugh?

NED B. HAYNES Cartier, Ont.
Group Four.

"M" Club; Y. M. C. A.; Manager of Football (3).

Big of heart, big of body, with a song, a laugh, or a story; that's Ned. The best of friends and companions and of rare ability when he is serious. We hope Ned will be a success wherever he goes and whatever he does. He can tell more about the country around here than can the natives, if you know what we mean.

ETHEL N. HEIDENREICH Hazleton, Pa.
Home Economics.

Domicilian Club; Outdoor Club; Hiking Club.

Ethel has had experience in the field. We hear reports of her successful teaching in Hazleton. She is studious, quiet and well-liked. It makes life more worthwhile to know people like Ethel. Most of us wish we knew her better.

LEWIS HIGLEY Bradford, Pa.

Dramatic Club; Y. M. C. A.; Class Treasurer (3).

Listen to that whistle. It must be a new kind of bird. Oh, it's just "Lew" attracting some one's attention so he can talk to him. He talks continuously, apparently for the love of that exercise. Long may he talk! Of course, it may be a feminine characteristic—but Lew—Why say it? You know him anyway.

EDITH HIBBARD Sayre, Pa.
Group Four "HIB"

Y. W. C. A.; Rural Club; Cercle Francaise.

"Silence is deep as Eternity; Speech as shallow as time."

"Hib" does not say a great deal; perhaps that is why what she says carries so much force.

"To friends, a friend; how kind to all."

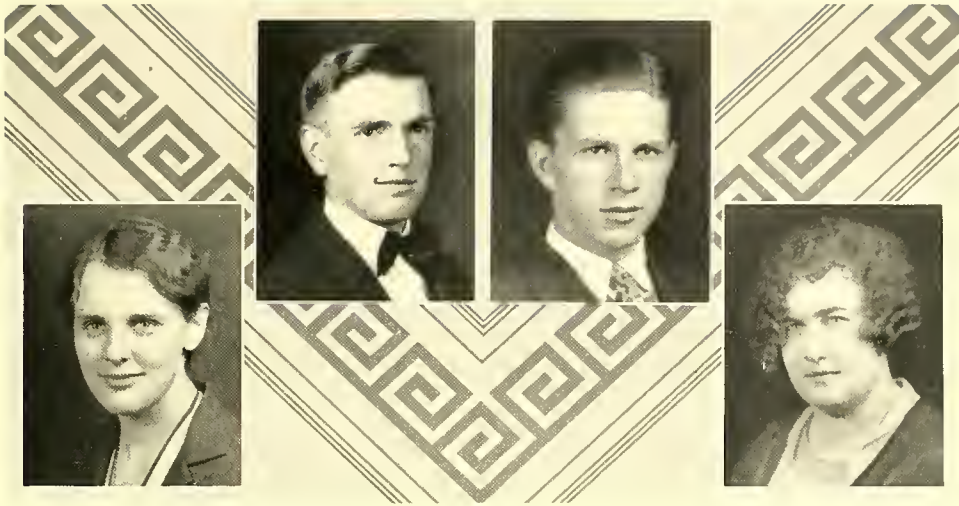

MARY S. HINMAN Cleveland, Ohio
Home Economics.

Domicilian Club; Y. W. C. A.; President of Student Council.

As a W. S. G. A. president——
She has often said to us much that could be taken as a thought of suggestion;

Not alone does she attract us in the sense of being brilliant or wise, I infer

'Tis her thinking of others that makes us think so much of her.

FLORENCE HOLCOMB Coudersport, Pa.
Music Supervisor "HOKEY"

Music Supervisors' Club; Chorus; Y. W. C. A.; Orchestra; Band.

"Hokey" has that ambition, capability, and fund of ideas so necessary to a good teacher. Vivacious, smiling and sweet; she has a personality that you can resist. She makes you want to say "She's a friend of mine." We can't do that, as she is busy most of the time. You know, it's her "Art" work.

C. EMERSON HOMET Wyalusing, Pa.
Group Four. "OMAY"

Emersonian; President (2); Barban Club; Dramatic Club; Y. M. C. A.; Cabinet (4).

On the exterior: good-looking, fine-mannered, fun-loving, collegiate. On the interior: kind, considerate of friends, talented in dramatics, and penmanship. His popularity with student body and faculty is justly deserved because of his traits of reliability, industry and moral character. The future indeed holds rich promises for him.

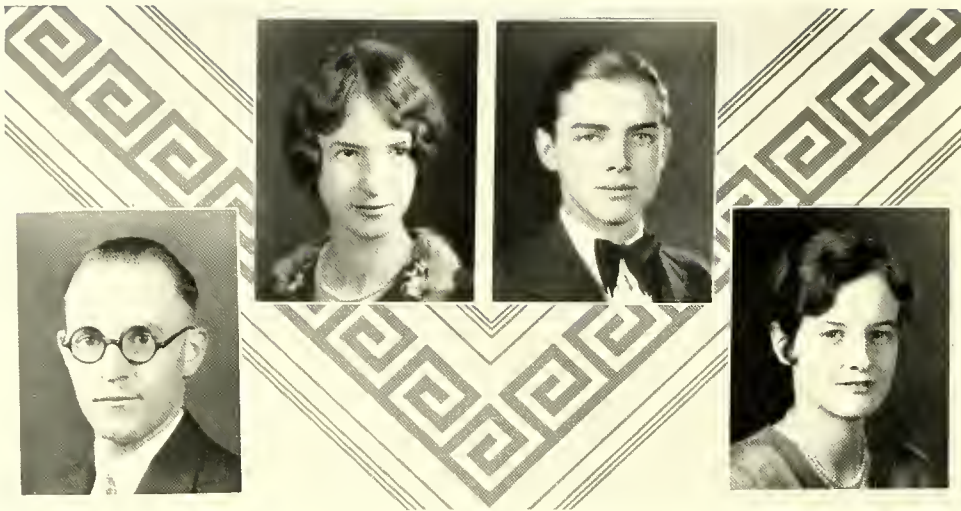

ALTA HORTON Towanda, Pa.
Music Supervisors "AL"

Music Supervisors' Club; Band; Orchestra; Chorus; Y. W. C. A.; Opera Cast, (2); Girls' Quartet.

Here's to "AP", the Codetta of a certain Four-part Song-form of Human Associations. She is one of the few who is a master of many arts. Her determination and confidence will help her through many a tight place. Her exceptional playing of theater organs has resulted in her enjoying the friendship of a celebrity or two.

NEWTON HOLCOMB Canton, Pa.
Group Four. "NEWT"

"Newt" is of that quiet, scholarly type who think more than they talk. His even disposition belies the universal belief that red hair goes hand in hand with a fiery temper. Don't get us wrong. He is just an example of self-control. More power to him.

FRANCIS HOWARD Harrison Valley, Pa.
Group Four.

Rurban Club; Y. M. C. A.; Cercle Francaise.

From one of the most remote sections of Potter County came this quiet and unassuming young man to further his education. He exists but to economize his talents and acquire knowledge through constant perseverance. Through extensive training here he will be qualified to enter the hash-slinging profession should teaching lose its interests.

LAWRENCE HUBBARD Mansfield, Pa.
Group Four "NUBBIN"

Y. M. C. A.

Lawrence is one of the local lads who made the "collitch" his Alma Mater. Teaching is his chosen vocation. His avocations are too numerous to be mentioned here. For further enlightenment refer to last year's Carontawan. But in the event you do not have such a book—"Nubbin" is a man's man gone in for the ladies. Too bad, but only too true.

INEZ HOWARD Harrison Valley, Pa.
Group Four. "INEX"

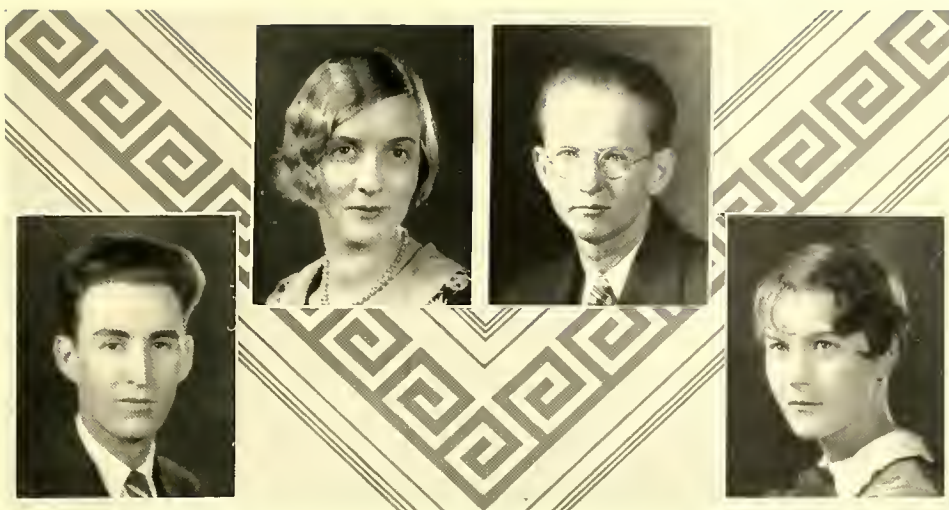

Art Club; Rurban Club; Emersonian; Cercle Francaise; Y. W. C. A.

A clear steady, an honest soul, a kind heart, a willing hand, and a steadfast comradeship makes Inez a real girl and a friend worth having. Many seniors met the real Inez during their teaching semester. She proved to be a good friend and a real teacher.

EVA HULSLANDER Troy, Pa.
Home Economics.

Domicilian Club; Student Council (3); Emersonian; Art Club; Hiking Club.

The spirit of mischief seems to be enmeshed in her black hair and to shine from her sparkling blue eyes. Without her infectious laugh, certain gatherings would scarcely be complete. In all, she is one of the dearest and most lovable of pals.

CLIFFORD HUSTED
Group Four.

Morris Run, Pa.
"CLIFF"

Rurban; Y. M. C. A.

"Cliff", the loyal, "Cliff", the true
"Cliff", the one who never is blue. However, we feel that there is more than one attraction here at Mansfield, but we are glad he returned to us after a year's experience in the teaching field.

CARLTON JACKSON
Group Four.

Mansfield, Pa.

Y. M. C. A.; Vice President (4); Rurban Club; Class Historian (3); Flashlight Board (3); Editor (4); Caronta-wan (3); Student Council (4).

A keen intellect—applied.
An ethical code—lived.
An explosive temper—controlled.
A friendly spirit—exhibited.
A conscientious industry—in action.
A desire to rise—ever in fulfillment.

MARIAN E. HUSTON
Music Supervisors.

Waverly, N. Y.
"GIRL"

Chorus; Y. W. C. A.; Cabinet (4); Music Supervisors' Club; Rurban Club; Orchestra.

Who's always happy, who's never sad,
Who's never sorry, who's always glad.
Who's the one who knows her stuff,
And never needs to risk a bluff?

We can depend on Marian—faithful to the end.

MATILDA JUPENLAZ

Mansfield, Pa.

B. S. in Ed.

Y. W. C. A.; Vice President (3); Art Club; President (3); German Club.

"And all the world in wonder grew That one small head could carry all she knew."

The numbers of her marks are excelled only by the numbers "of her friends."
The measure of her ability will best be determined by the height of her success of which we are assured.

JOSEPH KACHALA Glen Lyon, Pa.
Group Four "JOE"

Y. M. C. A.; Rurban Club; Latin Club.

A Latin scholar who delights in enriching his mind with the copious wealth of that language. "Joe" regards life with that plus attitude and possesses a capacity for hard work and profound scholarship. He is at every time willing to assist in anything tangible and is perseverant to the 'nth degree.

ELWOOD KENDALL Granville Summit, Pa.
Group Four. "TUBA"

Y. M. C. A.; Rurban Club; Student Council (3); Band; Orchestra; Opera; Carontawan Board (4); Holleran's Collegians; Baldwin's Bandoliers.

We have with us in Kendall a fine character, one whom you can count on at any time. His many capacities opened up large opportunities for service here.

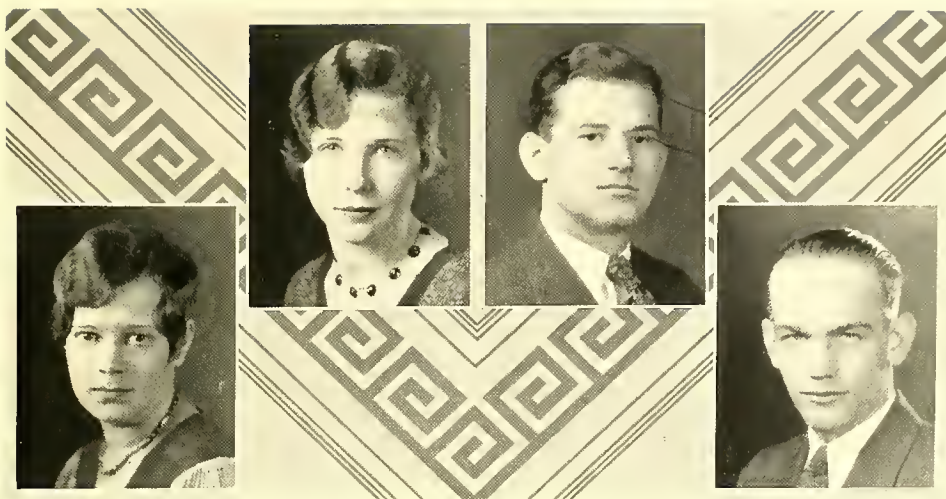

HELEN M. KAZMARK Blossburg, Pa.

Athletic Club; Hiking Club; Y. W. C. A.

Kazmark not only excels in driving good looking cars which have afforded ample means for some of us to leave the town limits, but is a woman of experience along lines of travel, business, romance, etc. She runs around with two girls who have done more to make the dean earn her salary than any other ten. But don't hold that against Helen!

RUTH KIMES Spring City, Pa.
Group Four. "DEUCE"

The call of the wanderlust has stirred this girl, the call of hazy blue mountains and thrushes singing in the tree tops has been to her an omnipotent power forever urging her on to their abiding place. West Chester and Juniata College heard her coming and departing footsteps in their precincts. But now it is Mansfield first, last and forever.

JEAN KOCHER Williamsport, Pa.
Group Four "SHORTY" "HALF PINT"

Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club; Cercle Francaise; Secretary (4); Outdoor Club; Rurban Club.

Group Four is lucky to have one so lovable with that contagious smile and laughing brown eyes. That little hic-cough at the end of her laugh will win her friends wherever she goes. We hope Jean is as successful at teaching as she is at housekeeping.

ALBERT KRUTZECK Westfield, Pa.

Y. M. C. A.; Baseball; "M" Club; Car-ontawan (4).

To hear him argue, one would know that to be a future Daniel Webster is his ambition. Under the surface you find the metal that wants to get the best out of all that school life has to offer in its activities. His work this year as Photo Editor was a big item in the success of this book.

WINIFRED KOFOED Silver Creek, N. Y.
Music Supervisors "WINNIE"

Chorus; Music Supervisors' Club; Y. W. C. A.; Orchestra.

"With feet swift as the wings of time," in perfect accompaniment to the dreamy strains of the waltz or the wild rush of the fox-trot—always perfection—so dances our "Winnie". An ardent lover of music—with the soul and temperament of a musician—she has depths of feeling and understanding realized only by those who know her intimately.

LESLIE M. LENT Mansfield, Pa.
Group Four "P. J."

Band; Orchestra; Y. M. C. A.

"Yet the deepest truths are best read between the lines, and for the most part, refuse to be written."

Surely when one reads between the lines plainly written on this rather humorous exterior, he shall find an expression symbolic of true sincerity.

NORMA LESLIE
Music Supervisors.

Wellsboro, Pa.
"NORM"

Chorus; Y. W. C. A.; Music Supervisors' Club.

"Norm" sure knows how to wield a baton and get results. Maybe it's her dark eyes that seem to flash everywhere at the same time brands her as a successful teacher. Flash, dash, and pep, that's Norma. It won't be long before we'll be hearing big things from this young lady.

GERTRUDE L. LICK
Home Economics

Edinboro, Pa.
"GERT"

Y. W. C. A.; Domicilian Club; Treasurer (4).

Gracious Ever helpful
Ready to do her bit Trustworthy
Little Irresistible
Comely Kindly

GERALDINE M. LEWIS
Home Economics

LeRoy, Pa.
"GERRY"

Y. W. C. A.; Domicilian Club.

In "Gerry" we find quite a rare combination of admirable qualities of personality. She seems to have a calm and staid disposition, but when we remember that still water runs deep, we have profound respect for this bit of distinction.

MARIEL LUTES
Group Four.

Tunkhamock, Pa.

Outdoor Club; Hiking Club; Y.W.C.A.

Mariel's previous experience in the teaching field perhaps accounts for her serious devotions to her college work. It is said that first impressions are lasting, but Mariel is an exception to this rule. At first she reveals her serious nature, but when she lays aside her reserve she is a good sport and a friend to be cherished.

LUISA MANNINO Lawrenceville, Pa.
Group Four. "WEEZ"

Francaise; Latin Club; Flashlight.

Emersonian; Hiking Club; Athletic Club; Glee Club; Y. W. C. A.; Cercle

Voila Speedy—vivid, dashing, sparkling—always laughing, always gay. "Weez" possesses the uncanny quality to intrigue the male specie. She has received from and given to her college. What more can be said of anyone?

WILHELMINA MARBLE Wellsboro, Pa.
Group Four.

Y. W. C. A.; Art Club.

Wilhelmina, with her quiet good-natured attitude toward life, decided after two years at M. S. T. C., that she really should come back and get her degree. We sometimes wonder why a girl who has such a psychology of "Dolls" should waste her talent on Group Four rather than to teach in Kindergarten.

MARGARET MANNIX Towanda, Pa.
Group Four. "PEG"

Athletic Club; Secretary (2); President (3); Hiking Club; Treasurer (2); Vice President (3); Flashlight (3); Y. W. C. A.; Carontawan (4).

"When Irish eyes are smiling"—This doesn't half express it. Her's are black, snappy ones which leave an impress of a happy-go-lucky and care-free type. As for hobby, coaching basketball, discussing sports, dancing or substitute a book and ambition—"On to Hollis."

JOHN MARKOWICZ Wellsboro, Pa.
Group Four.

Quiet and retiring, John is a man we will learn to know. Since he is a commuter, we are unable to say much of his social life. "Profs." and fellow students are willing to recognize him as a man of brains and also one who has the power to use them.

But one of the fairer sex attracts his attention—his wife.

EDMUND J. MCGUIRE
Group Four.

Perry, N. Y.
"MAC"

Emersonian; Y. M. C. A.; Student Council (3); Vice President (4).

Scholar, gentleman, sportsman and pal, we extend to you a hand of good-fellowship. We acclaim you the Prince of Good Fellows, a friend to be admired and trusted. You have stood by us in fight and frolic.

SYLVIA MICHELSON
Group Four.

Luzerne, Pa.

Emersonian; Cercle Francaise; Y. W. C. A.

Overflowing with personality, Sylvia captures all hearts and charms all eyes. At the piano she is supreme, and many a strong heart has been held in the spell she weaves about them with her music. Perhaps the least we can say about her is that she is an emotional gem full of expression.

LOUISE MCKINNEY
Group Four.

Hallstead, Pa.
"LOU-LOU"

Emersonian; Secretary (2); Rural Club; Art Club; Dramatic Club; Chorus; Council (1).

Versatility is probably the word which characterizes Louise best. She has shown her ability in everything from coaching a play to teaching Sunday school. Louise has gained much of her success through her ability to adjust herself to difficult situations. We can only add: "An excellent thing in woman."

PAUL SHOEMAKER
"SHQEY"

Williamsport, Pa.
Group Two

We will take off our hats to the shortest fellow in our class. He can be funny, silly, serious, or "What have you?" but his motto is: "To do some good; to bear my ill without complaining; to strive to be when each day dies some better than the morning found me; to keep my standards always high; to find my task and always do it."

FLOYD E. MITCHELL Springville, Pa.
Group Four. "MITCH"

Y. M. C. A.

Floyd has quietness, of the kind that denotes wisdom; a keen intellect; genial philosophy; humor; real friendliness; all hidden behind a mask usually called a "poker face".

MARGARET MORGAN New Milford, Pa.
Group Four. "PEG"

Art Club; Hiking Club; Y. W. C. A.; German Club; Treasurer (3); Flashlight (4); Emersonian; Secretary (4); Manager of Debating Team (3); Dramatic Club; Cercle Francaise.

A lovely modest violet,
That might have been a rose;
A loyal, loving, faithful friend,
Whom we shall miss, as on we wend,
When college days shall close.

KATHRYN C. MORGAN Mansfield, Pa.
Music Supervisors "KIT"

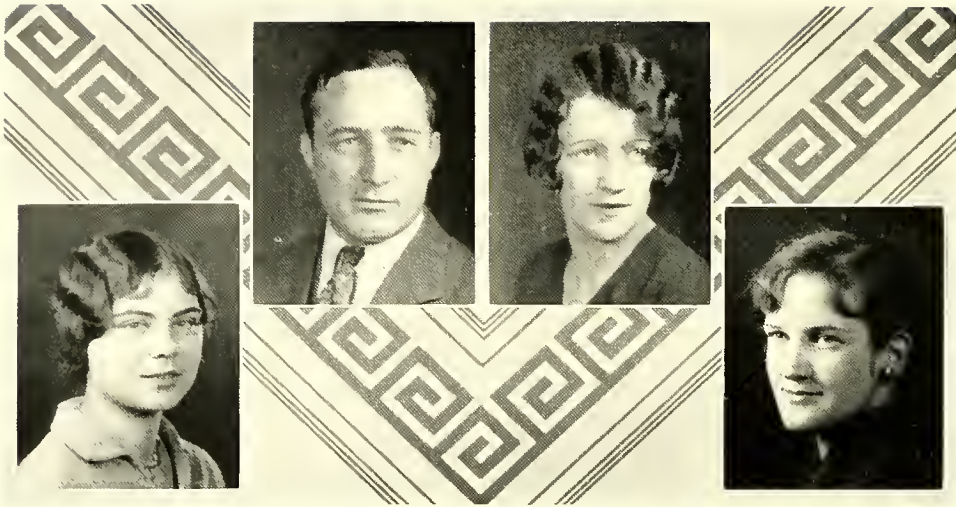

Music Supervisors' Club; Chorus; Orchestra; Band; Opera; Dramatic Club; Y. W. C. A.; Cabinet (3); Flashlight (3); Carontawan (3).

She's eager and joyous and vivid and smart,
She's healthy and wholesome and sweet.
Her regular smile always seems worthwhile,
She's a girl you'd like to meet.

SAM MORSE Troy, Pa.
Group Four. "SAMMIE"

Men's Glee Club; Y. M. C. A.; Emersonian; Intra-Mural Basketball.

It seems as though some day "Sammie" will make a name for himself. He's always the jovial chap who is doing or saying something to make the world laugh at or with him. Versality and good humor are going to help him on toward that inevitable goal "Success".

LOUISE OHLMAN Shavertown, Pa.
Music Supervisors.

Music Supervisors' Club; Chorus; Band; Athletic Club.

She is rather quiet at times, but carries this trait with the modern version of nonchalance. Give her a book and an apple and she is content with her lot.

"It may have had windows in it, but it was a barn."

PHYLLIS OWEN Mansfield, Pa.
Group Four.

Athletic Club; Y. W. C. A.; Tennis Champion (3).

Can she play tennis—and how? On the tennis court she is one flash of activity, and is one of our champions.

Her charming manner and versatile ways,

Have brought forth many a note of praise.

The short mile along the Roosevelt Trail,

Has been enjoyed by many a male.

JAMES O'LEARY Gillett, Pa.
Group Four. "JIM"

Band; Orchestra; Opera; Y. M. C. A.

Big, bold, brusque; but the embodiment of a good-natured, friendly Irishman. These qualities are bolstered by others: honesty, industry, reliability—you have observed how regular he is in attendance at band and orchestra of which he is cornetist.

LOUISE H. PALMER Mansfield, Pa.
Music Supervisors. "PAL"

Orchestra; Chorus; Music Supervisors' Club; Band; Rurban; Y. W. C. A.

I think that one not often sees
A girl as lovely as Louise,
A "pal" you would not often meet;
So quiet, reserved, bright and sweet,
A girl whose joy in music lies;—
To greatest heights she's bound to rise.

LUCILLE PARSON
Music Supervisors.

Williamsport, Pa.
"PAHSONS"

Music Supervisor's Club; Chorus; Orchestra; Opera (1) (2); Y. W. C. A.; President (4); Flashlight (3) (4); Carontawan (4).

Being one of the few girls no one can criticize with justice, she has won a place in the hearts of her school fellows and faculty which will always remain with their memory of one who knew the true meaning of friendship. She taught us to find happiness in "playing the game" with thought for others. Her sense of humor keeps her from being too good to be true.

ELIZABETH PAYNE
Group Four.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"BETTY"

Y. W. C. A.; Outdoor Club; Hiking Club; Latin Club.

"True-hearted, whole-hearted, faithful and loyal," expresses the character of this fair damsel. Her classmates will ever remember her for her studiousness and reserve in the classroom and for the "happy-go-lucky" Betty of Fifth Floor. More power to "Ole Top."

LEON A. PAYNE
Group Four.

Thompson, Pa.

Y. M. C. A.; Opera; (1) (2) (3); Emersonian; Rurban Club; Gospel Team; Orpheus Glee Club; College Quartet; Four Horsemen.

Here is to Mansfield's Caruso, the man known throughout the college and in many other places for the wonderful quality of his voice. The long list of musical organizations listed above, capped by the one of being a member of the Four Horsemen, testifies to his ability in that field.

A striking personality and very mature appearance make him a captivating friend.

MARION PEARSON
Group Four.

Blossburg, Pa.

Cercle Francaise; Latin Club; President (4).

With joy as well as regret we pay this tribute—joy that we have had the value of Marian's friendship; and regret that these four years of happy comradeship must end.

RUTH PFAFF Williamsport, Pa.
Music Supervisors. "RUTHIE"

Music Supervisors' Club; Band; Orchestra; Chorus; Y. W. C. A.

See that neat, attractive, dignified girl surrounded by a group of people. Yes, she's Ruth. She is known by everyone because of her smile and friendly manner. We would have missed Ruth if she hadn't come back from California to graduate with us.

ELOISE POWERS Mansfield, Pa.
Group Four.

Art Club; Cercle Francaise.

Did you ever hear Eloise without her giggle? Well, if you did, it must have been when she was on her way to a seven-forty-five class. Eloise is good-natured and full of fun with just the right amount of seriousness. Kindness dominates all her motives.

FRANCES POLLOCK Ulster, Pa.
Group Four. "POLLY"

Emersonian; Y. W. C. A.; President of Student Council, Summer term, '29.

"She's quiet to those who don't know her well,

But, Oh, her friends, what they could tell."

"Polly" is one of our outstanding students. She desires the best of life and gives her best in return.

LOUISE PRUGH Tioga, Pa.
Music Supervisors. "PRUGH"

Music Supervisors' Club; Chorus.

She is very industrious, and if one ever were to say that she was late, he would be guilty of a great mistake. Very quiet, but good-natured is Louise. Her one aim always is to please.

RUTH REYNOLDS Tunkhannock, Pa.
Group Four.

Orchestra; Emersonian; Cerele Francaise.

Fiddling, teaching, working, and giggling all are Ruth's major attributes. She has made many friends through each of these four activities. She has won for herself an enviable reputation in M. S.
T. C. because of her marked ability in playing the violin.

LYDIA ROGERS Emporium, Pa.
Home Economics. "LYD"

*Domicilian Club; Treasurer (2); Y.
W. C. A.; Student Council (3) (4);
Flashlight (1).*

We love you for what you are, but yet more for what you are going to be. We love you not so much for your realities as for your ideals. We pray for your desires that they may be great rather than your satisfactions, which may be so hazardously little.

DOROTHY ROGERS Athens, Pa.
Music Supervisors. "DOT"

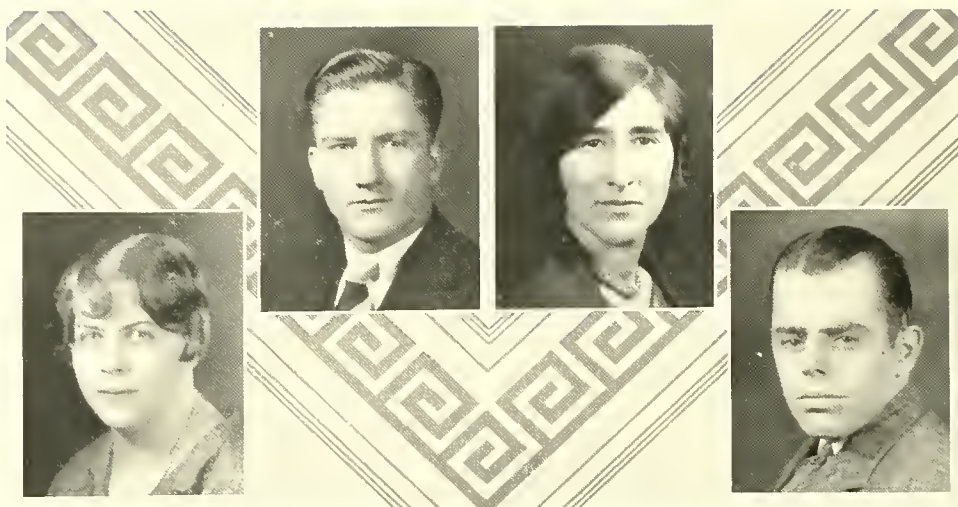

*Emersonian; Music Supervisors' Club;
Glee Club; Band; Orchestra; Student Council (4); Treasurer (4).*

A recent article in a newspaper claims that Bradford County people evidently prefer little girls with blue eyes and light hair. So do we. As a member of the Student Council she manages to keep the gang going in the straight and narrow path.

MINNIE E. SCHILIER Sayre, Pa.
Group Four. "MIM"

Athletic Club; Y. W. C. A.; Emerson-ian; Outdoor Club; Secretary (4); Hiking Club; Hockey Team; Basketball; Tennis; Track; Baseball.

Minnie plays the game of life in the same flashy and spectacular manner that she does tennis. Anyone who knows her (and we all do) can say that she is one of the best pals and cleanest sports in school.

RUTH E. SCHMID Allentown, Pa.
Home Economics. "RUFUS"

Y. W. C. A.; Domicilian Club.

Ruth is capable of getting anything she wants, however great or small. Shall we call it determination or just good luck? Her capability interspersed with humor is a good combination. Her taste for reading is highly developed—sometimes. She seldom takes life seriously and is always ready for a good time.

GLADYS A. SCHWAB Mansfield, Pa.
Group Four. "GLAD"

Rurban Club; Y. W. C. A.; Cercle Francaise; Class Officer (2).

"Voici une jeune fille de beauté de laquelle neanmoins, les charms de sa esprit surpassent de beaucoup ceux de sa beauté."

This is our Gladys, always smiling, always ready for a jolly good time, yet always doing something tremendously worth-while.

HARRY SCHOLL Galeton, Pa.
Group Four.

Carontawm Board (1); Football; Captain (4); Vice President of Student Council (3); President of Class (3) (4); Y. M. C. A.; "M" Club; Secretary (4).

Harry is a man who attained that most popular of college combinations—President of the Senior Class and Captain of the Football Team. Athletic prowess and executive ability, combined with a very pleasing personality, placed him at the top. Always trustworthy and loyal to the confidence placed in him. No Senior will be missed more by all.

ARTHUR P. SMITH Tioga, Pa.
Group Four. "TED"

Orchestra; Band; Y. M. C. A.; Glee Club.

On the surface "Ted" appears quiet, but have you ever asked him about the South? Travel must be a hobby of his. His many friends will tell you he has had experience in the teaching field and thus realizes the value of study.

RENABEL SMITH Mansfield, Pa.
Group Four. "RENA"

Y. W. C. A.; Art Club; President (4); Rurban Club; Athletic Club; Das Vereintein; Treasurer (3); Hockey; Basketball.

Behold! An uncommon girl with a common name, with plenty of pep, something of temper, enough of ambition, a wealth of laughter. Her eloquence knows no bounds when discoursing on "Jerseys", "Auto Repairing", or "The Orphanage". Truly, the question is "which".

LESTER B. SQUIER Nicholson, Pa.
Group Four. "LES"

Football; Baseball; Emersonian; Y. M. Assistant Coach of Wrestling Team.

Few men combine scholarship and athletic ability to such an extent as Lester. Everyone admires his splendid physique and his fine attitude toward life. No one can claim a truer and squarer pal than Lester.

CLARE SPERRY Athens, Pa.
Music Supervisors.

Student Council (4); Social Proctor (4); Music Supervisors' Club; Secretary (2); Band; Athletic Club; Glee Club; Y. W. C. A.; Choir (4).

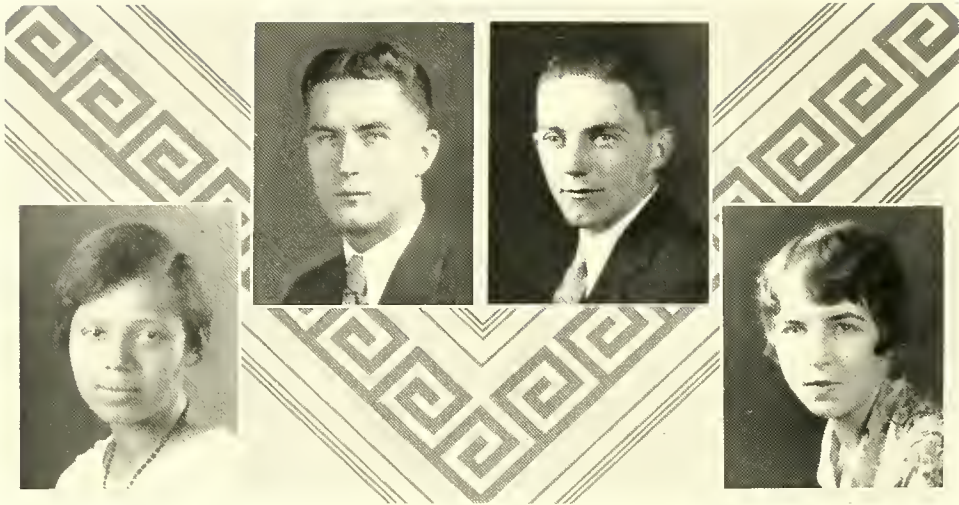

There is not enough space allotted for the numerous nice things we could say about Clare, so we will merely quote what we think suits her—

"Ah, she is music in herself.
A symphony of joyousness."

RALPH W. STONIER New Milford, Pa.
Group Four. "STONY"

Y. M. C. A.; Glee Club; Athenaeum; Rurban Club; Emersonian; Treasurer (4); Flashlight Board (3) (4).

To list his virtues would take too much space, so let us just say that his generosity is unequalled, his abilities as a student are far above the ordinary, and as an all-around good fellow, he is one of the best.

PHILIPPA F. STOWE
Group Four.

Elmira, N. Y.
"PHIL"

Four years ago Philippa quietly joined our group. We hardly knew she was here until—in classes she was grouped in with the "upper fourth." We are proud of you, Philippa, because you have been an honor to our old M. S. T. C. Now that you are leaving, don't forget us.

JOHN F. SUTTON
Group Four.

Blossburg, Pa.
"JOHNNY"

Y. M. C. A.; Soccer.

Four things a man must learn to do,
If he would make his record true,
To think without confusion clearly,
To love his fellowmen sincerely,
To act from honest motives purely,
To trust in God and Heaven securely.

HARRY SUMMERS
Music Supervisors.

Roulette, Pa.
"SARRY"

Band; Orchestra; Chorus; Opera (1) (2); Quartet (3) (4); Music Supervisor's Club; President (4); Editor of The Cadence (4); Y. M. C. A., President (3); Cabinet 4 years; Gospel Team 3 years.

"Men who undertake considerable things even in a regular way, ought to give us ground to presume ability."

The role of being the only member of the sturdy sex among a class of musicians should be quite some undertaking, but if appearances are any indication of conditions this individual has played that part nobly.

MARGARET THOMAS
Group Four.

Warrior Run, Pa.
"PEG"

Hiking Club; Dramatic Club; Secretary (4); Emersonian; Y. W. C. A.; German; Red and Black Debater (3); Cercle Francaise.

"Variety is the Spice of Life."

"Brevity is the Soul of Wit."

"A little learning is a dangerous thing."

These three statements reveal "Peg". Those who don't know her personally will remember her talent which she displayed so skillfully on the stage.

JOHN E. TROWBRIDGE, JR. Westfield, Pa.
Group Four. "JACK"

Y. M. C. A.; Secretary (4); Tennis Team; Atheanean; "M" Club.

"Many men build as cathedrals were built, the part nearest the ground finished; but that part which soars toward heaven, the turrets and spires, forever incomplete."

With a firm physical foundation and an enviable achievement in scholarship, this youth has built for himself a philosophy of unlimited horizons, of new goals just over the hill.

DOROTHY VANDUZEN Mansfield, Pa.
Group Four. "DOT"

"Dot" has a good sense of humor, a sweet smile, a willingness to help others at any time, and among many other things, a considerate amount of patience.

We sincerely hope she will have great success in the profession she is fitting herself for.

BENN WEEKS Westfield, Pa.
Group Four. "BENNIE"

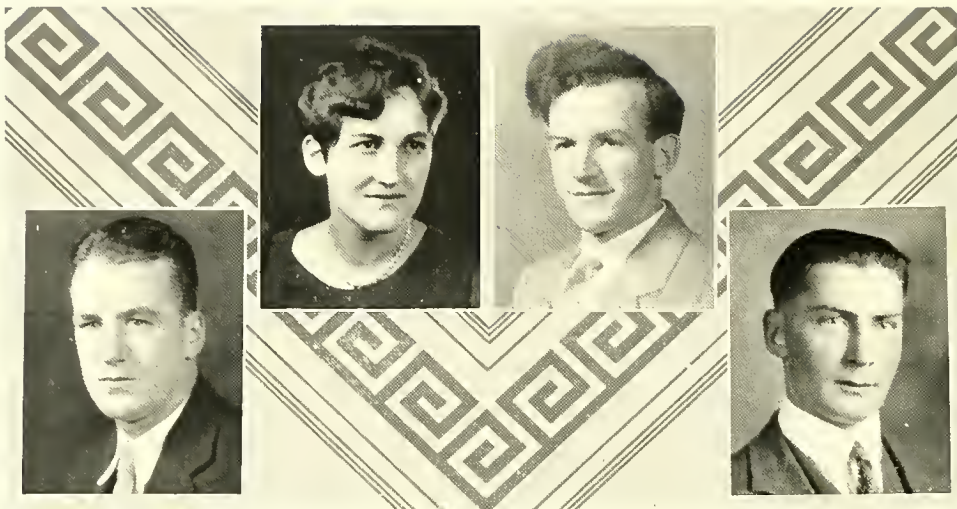

Varsity Basketball; Varsity Tennis; Soccer; Y. M. C. A.; Cabinet (3); "M" Club Treasurer (3) (4); Student Council (3); President of Student Council (4); Carontawan (4); Athenaeon; Business Manager of A. A. (2) (3).

It is difficult to pay tribute to a fellow like Benn because of his many merits. May we say the following, not as a "write-up" but as a statement of facts: "Bennie" is a good dancer, an exceptional athlete, an excellent leader, and most of all a friend worth acquiring.

MARK R. WHITE Galeton, Pa.
Group Four. "WHITIE"

Football Varsity; Intramural Basketball.

"Whitie" came to Mansfield with a family's athletic reputation to uphold. How well he succeeded is shown in the football records of the past four years. Mansfield is going to miss him.

J. FRANKLIN WHITMER Powell, Pa.
Group Four. "LEFTY"

"M" Club; Student Council.

Here's a really versatile man who has been prominent in both social and athletic affairs. After earning his letter in football he graduated to the position of coach. "Lefty's" greatest ambition is to develop a system which will surpass Knute Rockne's.

EDWARD BRADSHAW Lawrenceville, Pa.

Rurban Club, President (3); Y. M. C. A.; German Club.

Ed made a name for himself as President of the Rurban Club. The Rurban Club, one of the most active in the college, surpassed all previous records as far as actual work accomplished under his most able management. His pleasing personality will carry him far on the road to success.

MILDRED WILLIAMS Hop Bottom, Pa.
Group Four. "MILLY"

Y. M. C. A.; Athletic Club; Treasurer (2); Vice President (3); Hiking Club; Reporter (3); Flashlight (3); Assistant Editor (4).

"Milly's" greatest worry is her curly hair—even with a perfect finger wave, it just doesn't suit her. Everyone knows her for her never tiring wit and humor—give yourself a laugh and visit "Milly"—she can chase your blues away or at least find something in common to talk about.

CARL STERLING Millerton, Pa.
Group Two

I thought of Sterling, the marvelous boy
The sleepless soul that perished in his pride

Of him who walked in glory and in joy, Following his plough, along the mountain-side

By our own spirits we are deified
We Poets in our youth begin in gladness,
But thereof come in the end despondency and madness.

—Wordsworth.

Groups I and III

M. ELIZABETH AMEIGH Gillette, Pa.
 "BETTY" Group One.

"Betty" is studious to the 'nth degree and is always there where scholarship is concerned. She is optimism personified. A more cheerful person cannot be found. With her winning smile and charming personality, "Betty" will make an ideal teacher.

GERTRUDE AUMICK Troy, Pa.
 "GERTIE" Group Two.

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club; Emersonian Literary Society.

"A sweet girl is the sweetest thing God ever made."

Since we've come to know Gertrude, we certainly believe the words of the old poet who sang this little couplet (for isn't she the embodiment of all that's sweet and lovely in girlhood?). Kind and ever thoughtful of others, gentle and sincere, she has endeared herself to all our hearts.

EVELYN ANTES Williamsport, Pa.
 "Evie" Group Two.

Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club.

She's neat and she's sweet,
 And she just can't be beat,
 She's not a flower,
 She's not a pearl,
 She's just an all around good girl.

Evelyn is a studious and conscientious girl from fourth floor.

IDA AUSTIN Leolyn, Pa.
 "PECK" Group One.

A lovable disposition has our drawling-voiced classmate from Leolyn. If you need dependable help, Ida will be glad to lend a hand. We are very glad to have had Ida for a friend and classmate. And how she does help our hockey team . . .

VELMA AUSTIN

Williamsport, Pa.
Group One.

Break through Velma's reserve and there you'll find a valuable friend. She is full of fun, really more peppy than merely an ordinary schoolmate would suspect. If you want to find out about the latest shows or music, here is a likely source of information. In fact she's a friend you'll treasure.

IRIS BAER
"IKIE"

Shickshinny, Pa.
Group Two.

Y. W. C. A.; Art Club; Athletic Club.

Did you ever hear the story of the "three bears"? Well, this is one of them.

As she sits back and listens, one can see there is something going on back of those tricky blue eyes. Of course she's quiet. That's because she doesn't believe in spilling her thoughts to everyone. Iris has learned that it is a wise person who knows when to keep silent.

MARY LOUISE BABYOK
"SMILES"

Bentleyville, Pa.
Group Two.

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club; Art Club.

Her smile is to our hearts
What sunshine is to flowers;
And in the bonds of friendship,
We proudly say "She's ours".
Though there'll be miles between us,
Memories of her will stay
Good wishes will part the distance
With a bridge of success and cheer.

RUTH BAER "SHICK"

Shickshinny, Pa.
Group Two.

Social Proctor (1); Art Club; Athletic Club; Y. W. C. A.

One of the "Big Johns" who helped make fifth floor lively. The secret? Simply take one look at her twinkling blue eyes. And her smile . . . One Just can't get the blues—even when it rains—when Ruth is smiling. Conceited? Not a bit. Her motto? "Stick to it, Kid."

MARTHA E. BAILEY Jersey Shore, Pa.
"MATHA" Group One.

Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club; Secretary (2); German Club.

Do you want to know a jolly, fun loving girl, who's a true friend? Just ask for Martha. She says "To be happy is to make some one else happy". Certainly she practices this theory.

Mansfield has been a brighter place with Martha here. A success? Well I guess.

SOPHIA BAKES Simpson, Pa.
"BOBBIE" Group Two.

Y. W. C. A.; Art Club; Athletic Club.

A smile, a song, sure enough it's "Bobbie",
Cheering others is her special hobby.
Like sunshine after showers
"Bobbie" always brightens the long hours.

Witty, charming and ever loyal
She's a friend whom we term "Royal".
Success, joys and pleasures
Will inevitably be her treasures.

EDNA F. BAKER Lawton, Pa.
Group Two.

Y. W. C. A.

"If you can't be a tree on the top of the hill,
Be a bush in the valley below."
There's no use being discouraged or blue,
If you play your part, be it high or low.
Is not that the best anyone can do?

VIRGINIA BEEBE Austin, Pa.
"GIN" Group Two.

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club.

Here we have a dandy girl from a dandy town.
Her name is "Beebe" and her echoes resound.
Another "John" to keep in memory's vaults.
Is she nice . . . ? If you don't know her Better get acquainted . . .
Talkin', laughin', and eatin',
Are the things in which she can't be beaten.
In closing:—"Gin", "may your "Beebe" hit success."

LEONE A. BEIVER Lawrenceville, Pa.
 "BLONDY" Group Two.

Y. W. C. A.

"Much in little"—that's "Blondy". She is modest and quiet, but with mirth and mischief lying under that calm exterior. And have you seen her lovely drawings? To top it all she possesses that perseverance and ambition without which all knowledge is of little worth. (We'll place our confidence in Leone.

DORIS J. BOYD Coudersport, Pa.
 "DODIE" Group Two

Sweet stream, that winds through yonder glade,

Apt emblem of a virtuous maid;
 Silent and chaste she steals along,
 Far from the world's gay busy throng;
 With gentle, yet prevailing force,
 Intent upon her destined course;
 Graceful and useful, all she does,
 Blessing and blest where'er she goes.

—William Couper.

MARY L. BIGLIN Jessup, Pa.
 "LOU" Group One.

Y. W. C. A.; Outdoor Club; Treasurer (1).

She's pretty to walk with,
 And witty to talk with,
 And pleasant, too.

Who can resist her curly red hair, laughing brown eyes, and enchanting smile? Truly she's a girl Mansfield State will be glad to claim as an Alumnus.

MARY BOYLE Nanticoke, Pa.
 "BOYLIE" Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club; Hiking Club.

Dark hair and a wondrous smile—and what a personality . . . "Boylie", you won't easily forget because of her changeable moods and her delightful (?) ability to imitate people. Did you ever hear her talk? If you did and didn't fall for her charm, then you must have some kind of a complex.

VIRGINIA BOWEN
"GINGER"

Geneva, N. Y.
Group Two.

"Ginger", as one of the good old "Annex" crowd, is all her name implies. Her merry laugh proclaims her a good sport. Even a New York Stater can appreciate a good school for she's planning to come back for two more years. More power to you, "Ginger"

GLADYS A. BRION
"GLAD"

Liberty, Pa.
Group One

Somebody said it couldn't be done,
But "Glad," with a smile, replied,
That maybe it couldn't, but she would be one
Who wouldn't say no 'til she tried;
So she knuckled right in, with her face set and grim.
If she worried at all, she hid it; ,
She started to sing as she tackled the thing
That couldn't be done, and she did it.

MARY J. BRIDGE
"MAMIE"

Susquehanna, Pa.
Group One

Y. W. C. A.; Flashlight (2); Athletic Club; Hockey; Basketball; Baseball.

A crash . . . A bang . . . Hearty laughter . . . Enter "Mamie."

"Mamie" is witty, clever, full of pep. She's one of our athletic stars and can best be remembered as a leader in any sport. All in all she's a wonderful (?) girl; always the same happy, true pal, and always ready and willing to "Go".

MARGARET BRION
"MARGE"

Liberty, Pa.
Group Two

Did you say that "Marge" was quiet? If you did you don't know her. She may appear quiet but then—"Still waters run deep." Whenever you meet her, she always says, "Did you ever hear this one?" So we prepare ourselves for a good laugh.

HELEN L. BROOKS

Galeton, Pa.

Y. W. C. A.

So the brave maiden went forth from her home, to battle courageously with many dragons, whose names were very fearsome. But she slew even the worst of them: Unification, Theory and Sociology, and returned home again victorious.

Of course, life wasn't one continuous battle and "bully" week-ends gave her added strength and vigor.

Intent upon her destined course,
Graceful and useful all she does,
Loving and loved where'er she goes."

EVA ARLENE BROWN
"ETHER"

Monroeton, Pa.

Y. W. C. A.

Eva is the kind of girl we all admire. She has a fine sense of humor and this, along with a kind heart, has won for her many friends. She is a loyal supporter of the motto, "Do not put off until tomorrow what you can do today."

ESTHER BURLEY
"CURLY"

Troy, Pa.
Group Two

"School days, school days; dear old golden rule days. Reading and writing and 'rithmetic" all have bowed to Esther's wit. These are the days when she is going, looking for some big work to be done. And she cries with her class, "I'm through at last. Ready to teach a bunch of kids."

ALICE BUSH

Springville, Pa.
Group Two

To those who know thee not, no words can paint . . .

And those who know thee not, know all word are faint . . .

—Hannah More.

Alice Bush, very quiet and calm
Has captured our hearts with her smile;
At schoolwork, as socials, she's always the same.

On Alice we'll always depend.

HELEN PAULINE CARTER W. Auburn, Pa.
"POLLY"
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.

"The virtue of her lively looks
Excells the precious stone;
I wish to have none other books
To read or look upon." (Adapted)
She always has a giggle,
Which it seems she can't suppress.
Besides being good in lessons,
As a friend she's a success.

CLARISSA MARIE CARR

"The only way to have a friend, is to be one."—Emerson.

Another of our Sayre attendants is Clarissa, a lady who at one moment is floating on the ocean's airy foam, and the next in its dismal depth. However Clarissa has the art of cultivating for a friend anyone who becomes associated with her.

NELLIE W. CHAMPNEY Gaines, Pa.
Group Two

Call me a friend or foe, Little I care . . .
I go with all who daring to dare.
I am the force, I am the fire
I am the secret source of desire.
Call me a friend or foe, Little care I . . .
I go with all who go singing to die.
Call me a friend or foe taking to give,
I go with all who go, dying to live.

Her rosy cheeks and merry eyes
Conceal her nature true and wise,
When laughter's cause is given birth
She leads us all in joyous mirth.
Her height and concord equal are
Her smiles are always over par.
To Stroud, thanks we must extend.
For sending us this loyal friend.

GRACE CHILCOTT

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club; Hiking Club.

"Showing that if a good face is a letter of recommendation, a good heart is a letter of credit."—Bulver-Lytton.

Is "Chilly" a good hiker? Well, ask any of the gang who hiked with her to the fire tower. As a friend, she's right there with her ready smiles and willing ways.

HILDA CLEVELAND Mansfield, Pa.
"HILDY" Group Two

"Have you found your life distasteful?
My life did, and does, smack sweet.
Was your youth of pleasure wasteful?
Mine I saved and hold complete.
Do your joys with age diminish?
When mine fail me, I'll complain.
Must in death your daylight finish?
My sun sets to rise again."

ADA COMFORT

ELIZABETH CAROL COOPER Kingston, Pa.
"BETTY" Group One

Outdoor Club; President, '29.

"'Tis not a lip, or eye, we beauty call,
But the joint force and full result of all."
—Pope.

"Betty's" laughing lips and dancing blue eyes aren't entirely responsible for the charm and popularity of this bonnie Scotch lassie: high scholastic rating, keen wit, bright optimism, and an unflinching spirit of friendliness to all, are doing their bit toward developing this merry girl into a sweet and winsome woman.

The sweetest personality, a clever little smile,

A sympathetic nature, a character worthwhile.

A friend who's always willing

To go the way you go

To do the things you want to do

To learn the best you know.

A literary trend of mind, a laugh that's always gay,

A fondness for good-looking clothes.

Know who it is? That's "Kaye"

HARRIET CRANE Pine Valley, N. Y.
Group Two

"Be silent and safe—silence never betrays you."—O'Reilly.

A more quiet unassuming girl is hard to find at Ole Beach Annex. But Harriet is only serious on the surface. To those that know her, she's a jolly and desirable companion.

LETHIA CRISPELL

Noxen, Pa.
Group One

Outdoor Club.

Here is my opinion,
I hope that you'll agree,
A girl always good natured,
And helpful as can be.
A quiet cheerful girlie,
With a sweet, sensible mind,
In this age of rush and worry,
It is a relief to find.

MARY HELEN CURTIS
"CURT"

Carbondale, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.: Art Club; Vice President (2).

Don't you know "Curt"? Well, whar yo' been all yo' life? It was in a description of "Curt" that the words Good Sportsmanship were used. And say—have you ever met a person who made you feel that maybe this old world isn't so bad after all? You have? Well—that's "Curt".

BEATRICE CRONK
"BEE"

Towanda, Pa.
Group One

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club; Basketball; Hockey; Athletic Club Minstrels (1) (2).

You have heard people say, "There is something attractive about her, she has charm." We say that she is one of those modern vivacious girls, always planning, always gay, who get so much fun out of life. At any rate "Bee" has never been pursued by the Demon Unpopularity.

EDITH B. DARROW
"E. D."

Montrose, Pa.

Vice President of Class (1); Hiking Club; Treasurer (1); Y. W. C. A.

Mix one cup of unselfishness with two cups of cheerfulness. Add one cup of warmed kind-heartedness. Fold in one and one-half cups of beaten good nature. Season with a dash of temper. That's Arline.

MARY DEISEROTH

Galeton, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Outdoor Club.

"Here's to the girl with a heart and a smile,
That makes the bubble of life worth while."

Although Mary has only been with us this winter, we have learned to know and love her. She is always full of fun wherever she is. With her experience to back her we can predict a successful future.

MARJORIE DAVIS Middlebury Center Pa.
"MARGE" Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (1) (2); Athletic Club; Art Club.

If you've a special interest in blondes of the happy go lucky type you should know "Marge". She's chucked full of pep and witty sayings, and as for studying—she'd rather play tennis or dance any day. After all "Marge" is a real pal, and one we'll always remember.

MARY E. DITCHBURN Blossburg, Pa.
"DITCHE" Group One

Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club; Athletic Club.

Variety is the spice of Life.

In again, out again, gone again—that's Mary when she's hurrying to catch the bus. Full of fun and business, Mary has made many friends in her two years here at college, and we all wish her much success in the future.

ELEANOR DOBBIE
"DOBBIE"

Pittston, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club.

What a lucky break for Mansfield to have "Dobbie" as a student. We also hear that we aren't the only person getting a break. Nevertheless, "Dobbie" is a good sport, a good student, and a true friend to everyone, especially to her "side kick", "Shirey".

EDITH P. DULL

Sugar Run, Pa.

During her teaching semester Edith decided to change her vocation. Her new title is Mrs. Herbert Soper and she is working for a degree in "Home Economics."

MARGARET DOUGHERTY Middletown, N. Y.
"PEG"

Group Two

Art Club; Athletic Club; Hockey Team (1) (2).

"Peg", an old stand-by, is always full of pep and fun. And oh . . . her "Irish wit" . . . When it comes to sports and good sportsmanship she takes her place. It would be ridiculous to think of her shirking a duty however small. "Peg" is a self-starter and her success is assured.

MARIAN DUBERT
"PEGGY"

Milan, Pa.
Group One

Hiking Club; Y. W. C. A.

"Of all felicities, the most charming is that of a firm and gentle friendship. It sweetens our cares, dispels our sorrows, and counsels us in all our extremities."

"This is our "Peggy". What higher tribute can be paid to anyone as she leaves school for a wider field in which to work?"

MARION DUNN Montgomery, Pa.
Group One

Y. W. C. A.; Outdoor Club.

Serious, kind, humorous, true, interesting. These all merely begin to describe the character of this quiet maid with pretty blue eyes, who is always taking her work so seriously. She has given her best in her studies and to her friends who will always remember her and her loyalty to them.

MIMA RUTH EVANS Taylor, Pa.
"MYM" Group Two

Dramatic Club; Athletic Club; Y. W. C. A.

An apple a day keeps the doctor away;
A letter a day keeps Mima gay.

There isn't only one reason "Mym's" friends love her. If we didn't know that Cupid had spotted her, we would predict for her a brilliant stage career.

Here's to you, "Mym"—good luck, success, and happiness.

AVA ELLIS Towanda, Pa.
"AVIE" Group One

Y. W. C. A.; Rainbow Club; Dramatic Club.

Ava's appearance is not deceiving. Her sparkling brown eyes and contagious smile are the outcomes of her good-natured disposition and keen sense of humor. Her wittiness and vivaciousness combined with common sense make her an invaluable friend. She makes a success of everything she undertakes.

MARIE FARR Tunkhannock, Pa.
"GHINGHER" Group Two

Art Club; Y. W. C. A.

She's just our idea of a girl, cheerful, sincere, and ambitious. Her artistic ability has been shown not only in her faithful work in the Art Club but also through many posters displayed on the arcade. And is she athletic? Well you should watch her wield that hockey stick . . .

BERTHA S. FISH "BERT"

Powell, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Outdoor Club.

"Veni, vidi, vici." She is a brown eyed quiet little Miss who looks rather solemn, but her eyes belie her solemn air for they sparkle with fun. She knows her own mind and is not afraid to express it, and we cannot help admiring her stick-to-it-iveness.

HAZEL L. FLEMING

Mansfield, Pa.

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club; Rurban Club.

"A little nonsense now and then Is relished by the wisest men."

Hazel's snappy brown eyes and hearty laugh prove that though not a man she relishes a little nonsense now and then. If you don't believe how attractive she is just stand around the post office and see the letters roll in.

FRANCES M. FLETCHER, Herrick Ctr., Pa.
"FRAN"

Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club; Art Club.

Dolly Dimple? No. It could be, but it isn't. Is it any wonder the children in the Training School liked to see her smile? Everyone does in fact. The smile indicated the sunshiny disposition this young lady has. This combined with a determination to succeed will carry you to great heights of success, "Fran".

JANE I. FLOOD

Sayre, Pa.

Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Rurban Club.

"She's full of life, she's full of fun.

'Twould be hard to find a better one.

Jane is faithful to her friends and on the spot when they need her most. She's faithful to her school work with her work in on time. In fact Jane is a most versatile person, fitting herself into any situation, with never a misfit either.

MARY ALICE FOX Wyalusing, Pa.
"BUNNY"

Y. W. C. A.

Alice is one of our budding Art geniuses. We can't help admiring your tireless efforts in this direction. We wish you success in it. Your two years here have been mutually happy to all your friends, but living down town has made it impossible for some of us to see you often.

BERNICE FRENCH Elmira, N. Y.
"SQUEEK" Group One

Athletic Club; Y. W. C. A.

"F" stands for French—she's fashionable, fascinating, and full of fun. A peal of laughter—and we know that Bernice is telling about the latest thrill she's had.

Her greatest ambition is to get her room mate to class on time and to look down the fire escape from fifth without a shudder.

HAROLD FRANKE Blossburg, Pa.

"If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings—nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds worth of distance run, Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son."

—Kipling.

ELIZABETH FREY. Plains, Pa.
"BETTY" Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club; Outdoor Club.

Listen dear students, and you shall hear
Of a wonderful girl, who was educated here.

She came to college from Plains, Pa.
And as a general rule she is quite gay.
Her personality can't be compared.
You know the girl with the lovely blond hair.

IRENE M. FRIENDS Lawrenceville, Pa.
 "RENE" "RENIE DORY" Group Two

"The thing that goes the farthest in making life worth while That costs the least and does the most is just a pleasant smile."

Irene is one of our down town students, who is quiet and studious. She has made great success in teaching in the Training School. Irene has made friends by making "life worth while" for many by her "friendly smile".

GLADYS E. GAY Towanda, Pa.
 "GLADY" Group One

Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club; Rurban Club.

"A grace that won who saw to wish her stay."—Milton.

Gladys' reserve and graciousness remind us of the age "When Knighthood Was in Flower", and her charm, wit, and sunny disposition enrich her fascinating personality. She is constant and loyal, a sincere friend, and a teacher the kiddies adore.

VERNA FULLER Mansfield, Pa.
 Group Two

Who said that they didn't know Verna? Well she is one of those young ladies who keeps the Day Room alive by her lively chatter. Is she busy? Yes, and always ready to lend a helping hand. By what we hear from the Model School children we predict a successful future.

LILLIAN L. GEIST Chinchilla, Pa.
 "LYNNE" Group Two

Hiking Club; Y. W. C. A.

"Lynne's" motto:

"To make a sunrise in a place
 Where darkness reigned alone;
 To light new gladness in a face
 That joy has never known;
 To plant a little happiness
 In plots where weeds run riot
 Takes very little time, and, oh,
 It isn't hard—just try it . . ."

HELEN GILBRIDE
"GILLY"

Moosic, Pa.
Group Two

Athletic Club; Y. W. C. A.

Helen with the curly hair,
A dimple here and a dimple there.
She's working very hard just now,
For the sweat of teaching is on her brow,
But give her an hour with nothing to do,
Her thoughts fly swiftly to "Old Temple U".

THELMA I. GREELEY
"TE GE"

Westfield, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club.

Her dimples enhance her smile. Her curly brown hair increases her attractiveness. Can she dance? You would think so if you attended Saturday night dances. Thelma is an ideal Modern American girl. We all hope Thelma continues being as popular in the teaching profession as she has been here at school.

VERNA M. GILES
"HEPSI"

Jermyn, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club; Emersonian Literary Society; French Club; Second Orchestra.

Here abideth abilities, brains, and a sense of sportsmanship. An attractive girl with such a cheery disposition, with so much pep and enthusiasm is rare. One look at her unmistakably guarantees that she will succeed with the same alertness and capability that have characterized her thus far.

FRANCES HANEY
"FRANC"

Lawton, Pa.

Outdoor Club; Y. W. C. A.

Just take a look at her eyes, everybody, and that irresistible smile. Snappy—she's the last word . . . Teachers laud her classroom work, Supervisors say she's a whiz, girls are crazy about her and the men swarm around her like bees to meet that darn good looking girl.

REGINA M. HANNS "JEANIE"

Moosic, Pa.
Group Two

Athletic Club; Outdoor Club.

A glance at "Jeanie" makes us feel the strength of her charming personality, especially when we see that big smile of hers. It is true that still water runs deep. Regina is quiet and dignified, but her friends often overlook that, because her charming smile hides a spirit of innocent mischief.

MARTHA HART
"MART"

Morris, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.

Here is another of the few blondes, which help make life more interesting in Mansfield. "Mart" has proved her right as being one of Mansfield's sweetest girls by reason of her sunny disposition and by her winning smiles and ways. We do not know what her ambition is, yet we are assured that her quiet nature will find its niche in the world.

FRANCES L. HARDIC Birchardville, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.

"The blessings of her quiet life
Fell on us like the dew;
And good thoughts where her footsteps pressed
Like fairy blossoms grew."

'Here's success to you in the future
Frances. Even though her blessings fell on a privileged few, her good thoughts will go on long after she has left us.

HAZEL ROSELLA HAVERLY Sayre, Pa.
Group Two

Art Club; Athletic Club.

Hazel is often solemnly angelic in appearance but she has a never failing supply of jokes. She likes good times and is always around when refreshments are served. Though happy-go-lucky and apparently never taking any thing too seriously, she always gets her share of "A's" and "B's".

HELEN RUTH HENNING Kane, Pa.
"HENNING" Group One

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club; Hiking Club.

A friend is dependable, sympathetic, good natured, conscientious, confident, kind, thoughtful, and loyal. Ruth is all this and more.

Descriptions are musical in this case: Five feet two; eyes of blue; Oh, but what those eyes can do. More power to you, Old Top . . .

R. ELIZABETH HITE Wyalusing, Pa.

"There are so many different girls
We meet them all the while,
The quiet ones, the noisy ones,
The staid and those who smile,
But sure we must confess to you
We never have met any Who seem so quite true blue
As this—good friend 'Betty'."

Beginning, mean and end to all things—
God.

IRENE D. HIZNAY Jessup, Pa.
"ERKO" Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Outdoor Club.

Did you say "Quiet and dignified?"
We beg to differ. She possesses a great abundance of humor and has often caused a good laugh after ten o'clock when "Quiet should reign supreme."

These qualities combined with ambition, brains, and pluck make her the best pal we could wish for.

ERMA HOFFMAN Montgomery, Pa.

Do you know Esther? If you don't, you have missed a rare acquaintance. A true blue friend is she, always ready with a smile for everyone. Her personality assures her unbounded success as a teacher.

LOUISE HUGHES Tioga, Pa.
"WEEZIE" Group One

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."

When you feel blue, go to "Weezie" and she will smooth the wrinkles from your furrowed brow.

Witty, pretty and fun-loving (except when she has the blues but what of that—we all have them.) These words attempt to describe the garrulous "miss" from Tioga.

MARY F. HOPPE Nicholson, Pa.
"HOPPE" Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club; Baseball; Basketball.

"Hoppe" is a carefree individual who is so full of life, herself, that she scatters sunshine wherever she goes. She has many friends who all love her. When it come to Athletics she takes her place as one of the leading participants. We wonder why she watches the mail box so closely.

HELEN E. HURD Lawrenceville, Pa.
"HUD" Group One

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club; Baseball.

We often wondered at Helen's in ability to spend a week-end at Mansfield, until one night she talked in her sleep. Then the reason was a mystery no longer. She's happy and full of fun, but has her serious moments, too. We are sure that she will be a successful teacher.

IRENE JACOBS
"JAKE"

Elkland, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.

Here is a girl who is different. Very calm and unruffled, the life of any party and full of that indefinable word "it". Dance? There's no question about it. "Jake" certainly can pull down the A's. It's a lucky girl who is all this combined.

DOROTHEA M. JAMES "DOT"

Genesee, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.

Dorothea is a little brown-eyed girl from the wilds of Potter County. Although she is very unobtrusive around the campus, from what we have seen, we should like to know more of her. Incidentally, she is a good student and we wish her success in her chosen profession. Dorothea denies any interest in boys, but we wonder when she's over in Genesee?

Argue with her just for once,
You'll find out she's no dunce.
Judgments sound, to a high degree,
Not to be downed by you or me.
Mean what you say,
Say what you mean.
Is the motto of this girl Lereine.

MARGUERITE JAMES "PEGGY"

Genesee, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Rurban Club.

A generous determined, good-natured co-ed is "Peggy". What's more, she is endowed with red hair. Of course, she has all the other good qualities that go with it. Her temper's not too even to be boresome and not too fiery to be tiresome. In fact, she's a most unusual person. She's just right.

JULIA C. JANKIEWICZ, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
"JULE" Group Two

Council Member; Athletic Club; Y. W. C. A.; Emersonian Society; Baseball; Basketball; Hockey; Athletic Club Minstrels.

Picture a tall, dignified, black-haired girl with blue eyes and a pleasing personality and you will see "Jule".

"A regular girl and the best of pals." Her hobby is athletics. She excells in basketball. It makes life more blessed to know people like "Jule".

LOUISE JERALD Mansfield, Pa.
"WEEZIE"

"Weezie" is a lovely girl. No matter where one meets her, she greets him with a lovely smile. She has a sweet, sunny disposition, which spreads good cheer among her many classmates and acquaintances. Here is a girl who developed squarely, leaving none of the four corners out.

ELIZABETH D. JOHNSON, Laceyville, Pa.
"BETTY" Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Art Club; First Orchestra.

Although seemingly very quiet and demure, "Betty" is blessed with a well-developed sense of humor and is always ready for a good time. She always finds plenty of time to study and to play her violin. If you don't believe it, tune in on Station WCPL, Laceyville, next Sunday morning.

MARY D. JUDGE Pittston, Pa.
"TILLIE" Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club; Outdoor Club.

Mary is tall, has blue eyes and black wavy hair. What an enviable combination. Always friendly, she greets everyone with a smile. She is carefree and happy from day to day, and never shirks in work or in play. She is a friend to have and to hold.

HELEN I. KANE Susquehanna, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club; Hockey.

When you are sore and weary,
And you have an ache or pain;
What is more supporting
Than a good, dependable Kane?
There are few words to describe this one,
"Who is," I say, "Unique."
You can't find another like her
No matter where you seek.

MARGARET M. KELLY Susquehanna, Pa.
"PEG" Group Two

Athletic Club; Flashlight (U); Emersonian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.

"Peg" is her name,
Determined is her nature;
Winning are her ways,
Queenly is her stature.
Lovable, kissable, honorable "Peg".
Who could help but love you?
Glaceable, danceable, almost entrance-able,
But always the same, kind and true blue.

ANNE KELLY Archibald, Pa.
"KELLY" Group Two

Athletic Club; Emersonian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.

The polished dance floor beckons.
Not a dance would this Anne miss
"I am satisfied," she reckons,
"For it's my greatest bliss."
This is our Anne. In addition to this, she is a true blue friend, always ready to lend a helping hand. She is full of pep and vivacity, which often leads to deviltry, but then, why worry.

HARRIETT E. KELTS Knoxville, Pa.
"HARRY" Group Two.

Harriet is another of those women from the West. After two years here at school, she has made a large circle of friends. But that is the way she is. She is so quiet and reserved to those who don't know her, yet is an all-round good sport with her friends. We wish her all sorts of success as a teacher and feel certain that she will have it.

LINA E. KEMP Shinglehouse, Pa.
 Group Two
 Y. W. C. A.

Lina enters into her work with a sincere earnestness and she certainly does get the most out of it. However, with all whole-heartedness in her work, she finds time for her friends and is always willing to spend a few moments with them, making things slightly better while she is there.

F. VIVIAN KIBBE Genesee, Pa.
 "BIM" Group Two
 Y. W. C. A.

Just look at this picture of Vivian. It reveals happiness, friendliness and kindness. No matter when one meets her, she has always a smile of happiness. When anyone wants help she is always ready to give it. She is a small girl, but good things are done up in small packages.

FRANCES L. KENNEDY Olyphant, Pa.
 "KENNEDY" Group One
 Y. W. C. A.

"I would be a friend of all—the foe, the friendless;
 I would be giving and forget the gift;
 I would be humble, for I know my weakness;
 I would look up—and laugh—and love—and lift.
 —H. A. Walters.

DORIS KNOWLTON Syracuse, N. Y.
 "DORIE" Group One

Emersonian Literary Society; Vice-President (1); President (2); Y.W.C.A.

"Fortunate are they who have the gift of making friends for it is one of life's best gifts. It involves many things, but above all, the power of going out of one's self and appreciating whatever is noble and loving in another."

MILDRED M. KOHLER Honesdale, Pa.
"MIL" Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club; Art Club; Flashlight (2).

"Bury me not on the lone prairie,
Where the coyotes howl and the wind blows free."

But that is just where "Mil" wants to be.

We're sorry to lose a friend like "Mil" to the West. Her personality is fine, her manner attractive, her character beyond reproach. Those who have found themselves within her circle of friends consider themselves lucky.

HAZEL I. LEE Carbondale, Pa.
 Group Two

Rurban Club; Vice-President (1); Dramatic Club; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club; Student Council (2); Orchestra; Band.

H—Happy—Well, I guess.
A—Athletic—Rather.
Z—Zealous—Very.
E—Earnest—Surely.
L—Learned—Yes.
L—Loyal—Truly.
E—Energetic—Extremely,
E—Enthusiastic—Very.

CELESTE LEVITT Centre Morland, Pa.
"HOTSHOT"

Here's to one of the best sports and athletes in the class. Talk about pep. Celeste surely has "it". She's ready for anything and everything at any time. Just mention "feed" and watch her act. Ask her why. All in all she's a great kid and is bound to make a success of herself.

MARIAN LILLEY New Albany, Pa.
 Group One

Y. W. C. A.; Rurban Club.

"Joy lights the candles in one's heart—
When Marian is around, until it seems—
The racing flames must fill the room—
With Marathon of gleams."

No one can be "blue" or downhearted when Marian is near. Everyone that has heard her merry laugh comes back for more. Any school-room where she presides will be a joyful workshop.

CATHERINE LINBERGER
Elmira Heights, N. Y.
"CATHIE" Group One

Athletic Club.

Quiet at times and sad at times,
Whatever way she feels;
But no matter the kind of mood she's in
She has the same appeals.
She's charming and sweet and a real true pal,
Now, who wants more from any "gal"?
Hard to look at? Not a bit,
And persevering—won't say "Quit".

LILLIAN LOUISE GERNERT Col. X Rds., Pa.
"LILLIE ANN" Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club.

A twinkling eye, a laugh, a shout
Is proof that "Lillie Ann's" about.
A merry pal, a helpful friend,
She's one upon whom you can depend.
She is a friend whom we will not forget soon.
Here's wishing her the best of luck as a teacher.

HAZEL B. LODGE Blossbug, Pa.
"DEWEY" Group One

Hazel has the power of making and keeping friends. Have you ever heard her merry laugh as it echoes down the hall? No doubt it draws friends to her—for the world loves a "laugher". There is also a serious side to Hazel's nature; and we are sure that such a model student cannot help but succeed in her work.

ELEANOR MALONEY Coalport, Pa.
"RED" Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Emersonian Literary Society; Music Supervisors' Club; Glee Club.

Eleanor is a born musician. Some thought that she would be a Music Supervisor but she decided she would rather teach the "A, B, C's" than the "Do, Re, Mi's". Eleanor seems to be a very quiet maiden, but appearances are often deceiving. With her fine qualities and musical ability, Eleanor is sure to succeed.

MARIANT A. MANG "PETITE"

Honesdale, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club; Athletic Club.

"Out where the handclasp's a little stronger
Out where the smile lasts a little longer,
That's where the West begins."

Give "Petite" the West and she'll be perfectly happy. A truer friend, a greater lover of athletics, and a more contagious laugh can't be found. We like her because she is an all-around good sport.

IRENE MASTERS
"SUNSHINE"

Old Forge, Pa.

Outdoor Club.

She's like a book that's dear and new
One that we cherish to the end.
Like such a book, she's good and true
And worthy to be called a friend.

HARRIET MAPES
"HARRY"

Wyalusing, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club; Art Club.

"Harry is one of those quiet little girls, (on fourth floor) who really tries to get an education. But just get her started and watch the fun—lots of pep and lots of song. A fun-loving, helpful, and sympathetic friend. If you don't know her—see what you've missed. Get acquainted!

MURIEL MAYNARD

Nanticoke, Pa.
Group Two

Athletic Club; Outdoor Club; Y. W. C. A.

Muriel takes her work and her friends both seriously. She's the best of pals and because of her jolly spirit makes us feel gay. We call her our "Good Samaritan". As a student and a thinker, she can't be surpassed. Get acquainted with Muriel!

MARY McCauliff

Towanda, Pa.
Group Two

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And departing, leave behind us
Footsteps in the sands of time.
Footsteps in the sands of time.
With a heart ache for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labour or to wait.

EUNICE MCINROY Middlebury Ctr., Pa.
"EUNIE" Group One

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club.

"Eunie" is a happy-go-lucky girl, loved by all of us. She is always smiling because she looks on the bright side of life. She is always ready for a good time. Many of us have taken advantage of her willingness to lend a sympathetic hand. There can be no doubt as to her success.

ELIZABETH G. McCord Harrisburg, Pa.
"BETTY"

Student Council, (2); Dramatic Club; Emersonian Literary Society; Y.W.C.A.

"If words came as readily as ideas and ideas as feelings, I could say ten hundred kindly things. You know not my supreme happiness at having one on earth whom I can call a friend."

—Charles Lamb.

What more is necessary to say of one person? On to bigger and better things—"Betty".

BEATRICE McDONALD Goshen, N. Y.
"BEA" Group Two

Art Club; Athletic Club; Hockey Team; Baseball; Basketball.

"Bea," a good sport . . . I'll say she is. She keeps things moving. If you don't believe this, you should see her on the hockey field or on a tennis court. She is straight forward, conscientious, and has good initiative. She is a friend one can trust and her hearty laugh is quite contagious.

LUCILLE MITCHELL
"LUKE"

Tioga, Pa.
Group One

Art Club; Athletic Club; Hockey Team.

"Luke", a first class giggler and an all around sport. If you don't believe this just sit next to her in class. She will never become a bore to anyone and her trials and tribulations will be subdued by her charming personality. Folks, if you don't know her, now's your opportunity. Better hurry!

MILDRED MONLEY
"MIL"

Jessup, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club; Hiking Club.

M—Men preferred.

I—Intelligence—endowed.

L—Lovely—without doubt.

D—Dear—beyond compare.

R—Real—never failing.

E—Eyes—Black and how . . .

D—Dreadfully frank.

That's Mildred, and with a personality that has put her over.

GRACE MOLYNEUX

Forksville, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Outdoor Club.

Grace has been a true and loyal friend who can be depended upon at any-time. When Grace once starts a thing she is sure to see it through to the end. She has learned the lesson of finishing things, or perhaps it is instinctive.

PAULINE M. TITUS Tunkhannock, Pa.
Group Two

Art Club; Y. W. C. A.; Dramatic Club.

Little, but oh, my . . . This is the best way to describe Pauline. She is always peppy. Her characteristic smile is known to fifth floorers as a gloom chaser.

To look at Pauline one would never think of her dramatic ability, and least of all her keen appreciation of scenery—"But isn't the scenery Beautiful?"

ALICE LOUISE MOORE Jersey Mills, Pa.
"AL" Group Two

Outdoor Club; Athletic Club.

"To know her is to love her."

"Al" is one of those rare individuals who simply hates gossip. If you are wise you won't whisper to her about anyone. Her friends never worry about what she will say behind their backs. A better friend than "Al" no one ever had. What higher tribute could be paid anyone?

MARION E. MORROW Towanda, Pa.
Group One

Class Treasurer (1); Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club; Rural Club; President (2).

Her smile is fascinating, her personality, captivating, and Marion, altogether lovable. She has ability, ambition and those special qualities of leadership that will take her far in her profession. "Serious," you say. Yes, but not always. She's whimsical, witty, happy and sweet, and one of the best of friends.

GRACE MORRIS Blossburg, Pa.
"GRACIOUS" Group Two

"Happy am I, from care am free.
Why aren't they all contented like me?"

G—Good sport

R—Really romantic

A—Always happy.

C—Carefree and clever

E—Ever the same.

That's Grace.

LORENA L. MUDGE Mansfield, Pa.
"RENA" Group One

"Rena" is quiet, so are others; studious, she's here for a purpose; always full of fun, thus saving many a situation; pleasant, chasing away many a frown; and capable—of cracking a smile, regardless of how she feels or how blue you look. Now, don't you wish you knew her?

CATHERINE NEWHARD Montgomery, Pa.
"KATE" Group One

Y. W. C. A.; Outdoor Club.

Few people can meet all circumstances and come out grinning . . . "Kate" is one of the few. She has a winning personality (winning love and friends).

Optimism, perseverance, ability and personality are four winning cards in this game of life. Guard them well, "Kate."

MARIE NUNN Muncy, Pa.
 Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Outdoor Club; Athletic Club.

"To know Marie is to love her."

Her unfailing optimism, and the light and humorous way in which she takes all things, have made her a favorite of our class and a pal never to be forgotten. Her every word and action expresses sincerity.

WALTER L. NORTON Hillsgrove, Pa.
"MUGSY" Group Two

Gospel Team; Dramatic Club; "M" Club; Football Team Reserves; Varsity.

That one can smile, and smile and be a player still, Walter has proved. He was just as well liked and just as much admired on, as off the gridiron. In fact, we are mighty glad Picture Rocks sent us this well-rounded, many-sided, likable chap.

ERNESTINE OEHRLI Williamsport, Pa.
"TEEN"

Y. W. C. A.

Identification:

Hair—brown.

Eyes—brown.

Height—not so tall.

Abilities—diversified, especially giving reports, such as:

"My Ideal Minister."

Pastime—piano playing or any sport.

Favorite Song—"Maryland, My Maryland."

HELEN O'HERON
Y. W. C. A.

Blossburg, Pa.
Group Two

Gentlemen prefer blondes . . . or at least some of them do. When speaking of wit and humor you need look no further. Helen possesses the qualities which will make for a successful teacher. Can any good thing come out of Blossburg? Just look and judge for yourself.

DOROTHA PARKS
"DOT"

Elmira, N. Y.
Group One

Athletic Club; Hockey.

This "Dot" has a lot of "dash"—she comes and goes with a smile, taking life easily, forgetting the unpleasant things and treasuring the bright moments. She is generous, earnest and sympathetic, a good pal and student. Her disposition has won many warm friends for her at M. S. T. C.

ANOR PARKER

Elmira, N.Y.
Group One

Dramatic Club; Y. W. C. A.; Freshman Frolic Committee; Freshman Tea Committee; Athletic Club; Baseball; Hockey; Carotawan Board (1); Art Editor (2); Tribunal.

P stands for Parker, pep, painter, and perpetual good humor; and don't we wish we had her varied talents and endless vitality . . . with a hop and a skip along the arcade she comes, brimful of ideas for every or any occasion. Look through the pages for ANOR. Here she is folks.

IRENE PEARCE "TILLIE"

Kylertown, Pa.

Art Club.

A light haired girl from Kylertown, Cheerful and full of fun. Artistic, industrious, capable "Tillie"—May success be yours, in the years to come.

There is no question of such a combination's not bringing success.

VIRGINIA L. PETTES
"GINGER"

Orwell, Pa.

"The secret of her success is constancy of purpose."

"Ginger's" disposition isn't much like her nick name suggests. In fact, she is a jolly companion, a sincere student, and a true pal who is always happy when she is helping others. Those who know "Ginger" best, love her best.

KATHRYN L. PIZER
"KAY"

Jermyn, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.

Always hurried, never flurried, always good-natured and ready for anything, anywhere, anytime. That's "Kay." Underneath her carefree, fun-loving nature, she is serious, requires the best in life. "Kay" is an ambitious student. Which is why she finds plenty of time for dancing and other social studies.

MARTIN E. PISH
"MIDGET"

Olyphant, Pa.
Group Two

Football; Baseball; Captain (2); Basketball Reserves; "M" Club; Y. M. C. A.

"Marty" came to our college from Keystone Academy. We were indeed proud and fortunate in having him enter our college. He has proved himself a fine fellow, a stellar performer in baseball and football, and other sports. "A friend to all," is "Marty's" motto.

STELLA PRECIT
"DOLLY"

Mansfield, Pa.
Group One

One of the Mansfield gang and a great favorite in the Day Room. This is Stella. If you want to know a good sport look her up. She has just one weakness. Do you know what it is? But then weaknesses change to softens, why tell you.

LYNDELL RANDELL Attleboro, Mass.
"RANDY" Group Two

Last year there walked into the door of the Annex a little girl, called "Randy", no one realized the little "pack of fun" that Attleboro displayed. As we became acquainted with her, we found that her interests lie in a certain Express man. On to victory, "Randy."

HELEN B. RENVILLE Susquehanna, Pa.
Group One

Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club; Emersonian Literary Society.

When Helen leaves the first floor "gang" there will be a vacant place that cannot be filled. Although she is small she has a big heart in which there is always room for another friend. Best of luck in your profession—whatever it may be.

ELIZABETH REES Costello, Pa.
"BETTY" Group Two

Athletic Club; Art Club; Y. W. C. A.

"Betty" is one of those reserved girls (?). When you get acquainted with her she's jolly and full of fun. She is very artistic and her one ambition is to become an artist. She is another of the "Johns" and her kindness and willingness to help others will be hard to forget. Our parting word is—"Betty", beware of Cornell.

RUTH R. REYNOLDS Whitesville, N.Y.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.

It is quoted, "Good things come in small packages" and this certainly fits Ruth to a "T". She has the qualifications of an excellent teacher, but will she choose to follow the profession? We sometimes wonder when we hear about the letters she gets.

ELOISE RUGGLES
"E"

Mainesburg, Pa.
Group Two

Some one dependable,
But quiet and demure,
Someone commendable,
That's Eloise, I'm sure.

Someone who's always frank
With opinions, by no means poor,
Someone on whom to bank,
That's Eloise, I'm sure.

CATHERINE RYAN
"KAY"

Susquehanna, Pa.
Group One

Athletic Club; Y. W. C. A.

Catherine is both fair and dear,
And too, she is a friend, near,
She has wide-awake eyes of blue,
And a wonderful personality, too;
She makes a new friend in each college day,
And we wish her good luck in every way.

MARIAN RUMSEY

Gillett, Pa.
Group Two

Hiking Club.

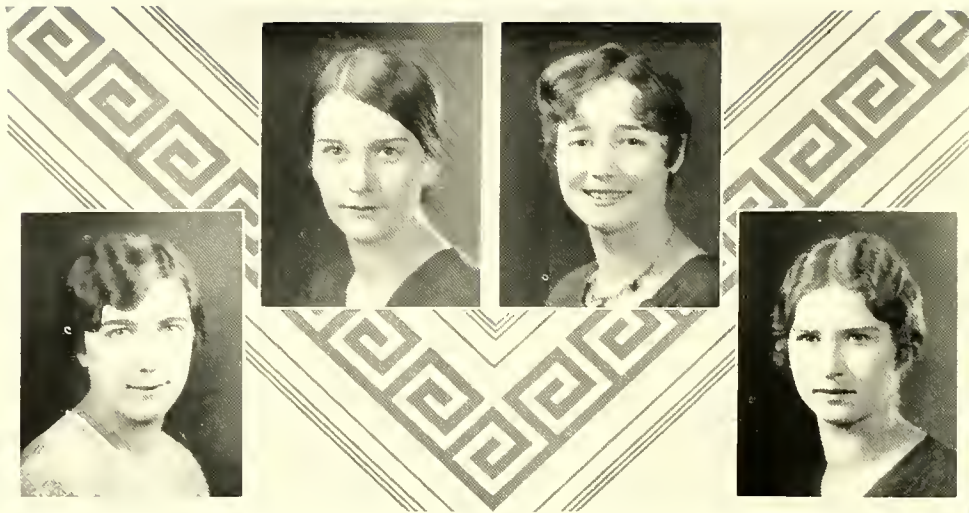

The statement, "The better you know people the better you like them," can very well be applied to Marian. Her agreeable disposition and good sportsmanship make her a ready companion.

Marian's hobby is dancing, and say, how she can dance. Perhaps this is one of the reasons why Marian spends so many week-ends at home.

GRACE CHAAPEL

Le Roy, Pa.

Grace is one of our experienced teachers who came to us in January to finish her course. She is an industrious, good-natured girl who has won a warm place in our hearts. By her business-like attitude and intellectual qualities Grace proves that "Knowledge is Power". She never does anything by halves but always by "Sharer's".

MARIE SANGIULIANO Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
Group One

Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club; Art Club; Athletic Club.

To Marie, whose memory can never die a refined character—an alert mind—a lady in the truest sense.

“When oft upon my couch I lie
In vacant or in pensive mood,
You flash upon that inward eye
Which is the bliss of solitude.

MARY J. SEDOR Simpson, Pa.
“MARY JO” Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club; Hiking Club.

Bubbling fountain, filled with glee,
Rival of Eiydrosyne—
Or care and worry not a trace;
This bit of feminine grace
Is none the less of earnest mind—
The will to learn, the will to do,
Have found true maintenance in you.

DORIS SEALY Taylor, Pa.
“DODDY” Group One

Dramatic Club; Athletic Club; Y. W. C. A.

Doris is one of those girls you read about, but seldom see. She has beauty—you can see that yourself; she has sparkling wit—you’ll agree with that; she—oh, but why go on? If you know her, you love her; if you don’t know her, well, that’s just too bad for you. Good wishes mean anything? M. S. T. C. will see that Doris gets them.

ISABELLE L. SIEMENSKI Swoyerville, Pa.
“ISSY” Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Outdoor Club;

Here we have a young lady of rare ability in many lines. She is well liked by both faculty and students. Studious? Yes—yet not too much and not too little. We often wish she would explain her secret of this happy medium. We are assured that she will go out a conscientious teacher—more power to you, “Issy.”

GRACE HILDRETH SKUSE Rochester, N.Y.
"HILLY"
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.

Happy and always full of fun,
A true friend and a right good chum;
But not forgetting the duties that must come
With each day, before it is done.
That is Hildreth.

We feel sure that she is on the right road to become a successful school teacher—Texas is calling.

MYRA SMITH Millerton, Pa.
Group One

Y. W. C. A.

O that best portion of a good man's life,
His little, nameless, unremembered acts
Of kindness and of love.

By her kindness and sympathy Myra has won for herself a high place in the esteem of her classmates at Mansfield.
She's loyal and trustworthy, intelligent and interesting, jolly and clever, all at once. Her character and personality make a charming combination that make her a person worthwhile knowing.

ANNA SLIVKA Jessup, Pa.
"SALLY"
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Outdoor Club.

Anna is a sure cure for blues. Her hearty laugh is never lacking where there is fun, for she's always there when there's a good time (and eats).

Her motto is, "When you feel the meanest, smile," and we all know she lives up to it for no matter when or where you see her she is always smiling and happy.

MYRTLE A. SPEAR Corning, N. Y.
"MYRT"
Group Two

Athletic Club.

"Myrt" is an honest, industrious, friendly, athletic, fun-loving girl. "Myrt"
is a good scout in all senses of the word.
She has an interesting, dignified manner in the classroom. May she put that executive ability of hers to work and attain a high position and the success that she deserves in the world.

MARCELLA MARIE STICKLER
"SALLY" Roaring Branch, Pa.

"Once in awhile we're merry,
Once in awhile we're sad;
But twice in awhile
The sight of her smile
Makes the whole world glad."

That's Sally. She has gained many friends here at Mansfield, and we all wish her heaps of luck.

MINNA G. SULKIN Easton, Pa.
"DOC" Group One

Orchestra; Band.

"Doc" needs no introduction, she is the person who has held the first flute chair in both orchestra and band for the past two years, and we know both organizations will miss her. She ranks high in her studies, but nevertheless she makes one of the best pals, and we wish there were more like her.

MARION STORY Tunkhannock, Pa.
"MAIDIE" Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club.

Out of those eyes so big and blue
Marian is looking straight at you,
And all the while she's thinking, too,
Of lessons hard that she has to do,
Or maybe not
For when her lessons are off her mind
She straightway thinks it's time to dine.

THEDA SWATSLER Smethport, Pa.
"TEED" Group One

Y. W. C. A.

"To look up and not down,
To look forward and not back,
To look out and not in, and
To lend a hand."

Theda is always ready to be of some service, and to help those that are in need. Her motto seems to be:
"The thing that goes the farthest toward Making life worth while.
That costs the least, and does the most,
Is just a pleasant smile."

LOIS C. SPOOR

Susquehanna, Pa.
Group One

Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club; Art Club; Athletic Club.

Lois is one of the "first floor gang." People who do not know her think her motto is—"Silence is Golden," but her friends think "Laughter makes the day grow short" is more appropriate. Not only is Lois a good sport, but also a good friend. We all wish you the best of luck in the future.

HELEN E. TATE
"TATER BUG"

Galeton, Pa.
Group Two

Helen is another one of the girls that has attended summer school sessions, then taught and now has come back to finish her work in this group. She is a down-town girl, but in the short time we have known her she has gained many friends.

M. ELIZABETH STEVENS
"BETH"

Wellsboro, Pa.

Y. W. C. A.

'Tis well worthwhile to cultivate the friendship of "Beth," who stands through "thick and thin." She's studious, bright in fact, and Mansfield knew her as one of its best teachers. If you are in trouble go to "Beth." She'll send you away with a smile. Her pretty eyes and winning ways, are qualities which her friends can praise.

ALBERTA TIFFANY "BERTIE" "YIP"

Kingsley, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Rurban Club.

Alberta comes from our adjoining county, Susquehanna, where she has taught. She is not satisfied with apprehending her subjects, but sticks until she comprehends them.

She is frank, dependable, and studious and she has that ability of keeping her friends on the right track.

Her hobbies are music and photography. "Bertie" will do her best in whatever she undertakes.

ERMA M. TREMAINE

Tioga, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.

Always busy, always hurried, always good-natured—that's Emma.

Can she tell a joke?

Is she studious?

Can she pitch a baseball game?

Is she energetic and lovable?

These are only a few of the many admirable characteristics of this dependable girl.

PAULINE VANSCHAACK
"VANIE"

Athens, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Outdoor Club.

Our living example of that old adage, "Precious things come in small packages." Although she is small,

She's laughing, smiling, whistling, talking,

That's Pauline though it may seem shocking.

She always has a smile and a good word for everyone,

And never thinks of play until her work is done.

SOPHIE A. VOINSKI
"POPE"

Simpson, Pa.
Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Art Club; Athletic Club.

Sophie is a quiet looking girl but oh, how she can talk . . . We are sure Sophie will go through the world with good cheer but her love for fun is mixed with seriousness, sincerity and all the qualities of a perfect friend.

CATHERINE WALSH
"KAY"

Pittston, Pa.
Group Two

Hiking Club; Y. W. C. A.; Athletic Club.

What about the "ideal man", "Kay?" "Kay" is preëminently the best of friends loyal and sincere. For those who do not know her as well as we, and so are not as fortunate, her blue Irish eyes give easy discernment into her character. By the way, has anyone ever seen "Kay" at a loss for something to say? Best of everything for you, "Kay", always.

DOROTHY WEST Middlebury Center, Pa.
"DOT" Group Two

Athletic Club; Outdoor Club.

"Be on time" must be "Dot's" motto for she is always in a hurry; but no matter how big a hurry she is in she always has time to stop and chat. Dorothy is one of our studious girls who believes that the quiet worker is the one who succeeds. May success always be hers.

BEATRICE WOOD Mansfield, Pa.
"BEA" Group One

If you're looking for a good friend, here is one. "Bea" is always willing to help the other fellow and isn't afraid of doing her share of the work. Did someone say "student teacher?" Well, we all step aside when she comes into the room. Success to you "Bea" in all you attempt.

STELLA E. WITHKA Simpson, Pa.
"TRIX" Group Two

Art Club; Athletic Club; Y. W. C. A.
Blue eyes, light hair
That's "Trix" right there.

Where ever we find "Trix" we find neatness and methods personified. Stella is not only a whiz in school work but she is also a shining light as a true friend.

ALTHEA MAE WRIGHT
Columbia Cross Roads, Pa.
"THUMP" Group Two

Hiking Club.

Althea is one of our fair maidens upon whom Fate has bestowed red hair. She is a conscientious and faithful student who excels us all in Social Studies. She is not too busy, however, to be jolly and take an active part in Girl Scout work. May life always hold the biggest things for you, Althea.

MANDERVILLE BARTLE Mansfield, Pa.
Music Supervisors. "MANDY"

Band; Orchestra; Emersonian; Glee Club; Music Supervisors' Club.

To the others in this year book the name Manderville Bartle is synonymous with:

Sweet violin music; graciousness; reticence; courtesy; neatness; pleasing personal appearance; wonderful wavy hair; genuine love for his fellowmen.

Also, a nifty car; surreptitious twinkle in his eye; a girl a long way from here; as many week-ends off as Dr. Straughn, "Jupie" and "Eddie" will allow.

HELEN EDWARDS Wellsboro, Pa.
"BEN" Music Supervisor

Music Supervisors' Club; Chorus; Band; Orchestra.

Helen Edwards? Oh, yes—"Ben", one of our dayroom gang of "Farmerettes, . . . She came to us for her third year from Tacoma Park College, Washington, D. C. Never was there a dull minute after Helen hit the bunch with her ready wit and willingness to entertain and advise us on any subject—whether polemical, pedagogical or political. Her favorite color?—Orange (for reasons best known to her confidantes).

LOUELLA M. MARKOWICZ Wellsboro, Pa.
Music Supervisors.

"This is my creed; to do some good, to bear my ills without complaining, to press on as a brave man should for honors that are worth gaining; to seek no profits where I may by winning them, bring grief to others; to do some service day by day in helping on my toiling brothers."

DOROTHY E. LIPPERT Honesdale, Pa.
"DOT" Group Two

Y. W. C. A.; Hiking Club.

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."
We are all "in need"

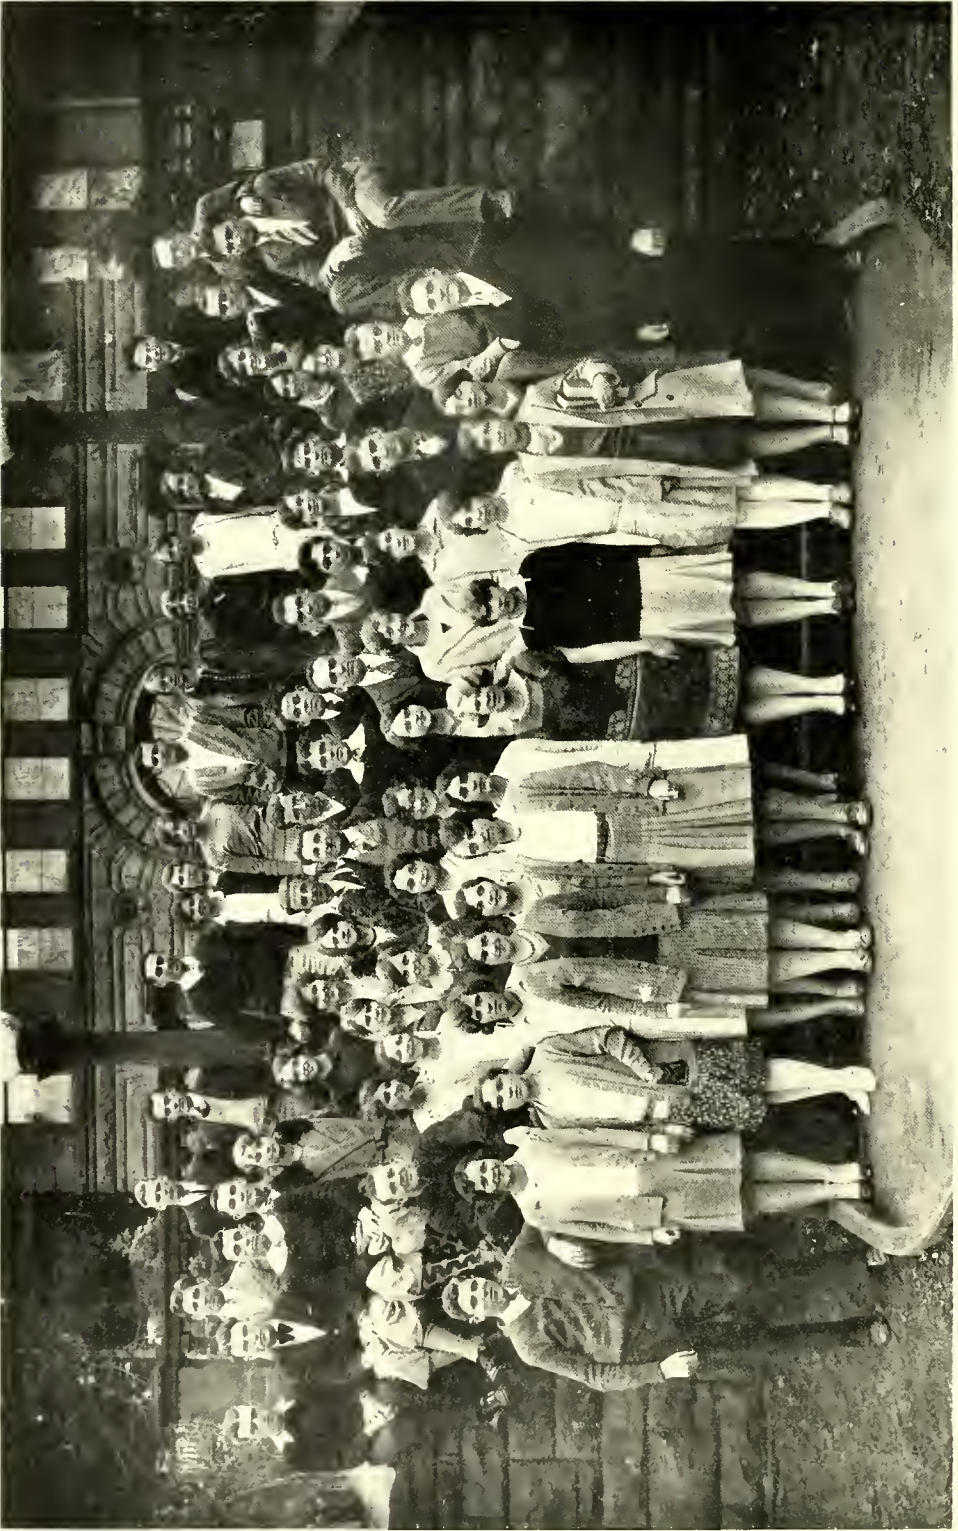

When "Dot" is not present
She's a great success in the matter of scale,

This refers not to weight,
That isn't her fate;

But simply do re mi fa so.

JUNIORS

The Junior Class

BACK—BACK—BACK in the days of '27—'28, the class of "'31", the present Junior Class, entered into college life at Mansfield. Surely we were an extraordinary bunch of Frosh for there was much extraordinary initiation. We soon found our little niche in Mansfield, only coming out of it to surprise everyone occasionally with some unusual or unexpected sign of promising ability in our studies, athletics and social activities. When it came to our Sophomore year then things started to happen. What a good time we showed the Frosh the first few weeks—even carried it so far as to show them how badly we could defeat them on the gridiron. This was merely a beginning of a big year. Beside our class team we gave four men to the varsity football squad.

Our contribution to basketball was Manager Frear and Augustine who played on Mansfield's undefeated team of '28-'29. The girls, too, did their share in getting the Soph class off on a glorious start, by defeating the Frosh in a series of games which aroused much controversy and interest around school. We also represented Mansfield on the debating team, helping to prove to our dear professors we were intellectually inclined as well as athletically. Even socially we came out ahead—just remember the Soph Hop and you'll admit with the Red and Blacks playing, novel ideas of Valentine decoration, favors and refreshments—what could be sweeter?

Back again in Athletics we flared when in the Spring the baseball team blossomed forth showing six Sophomore stars.

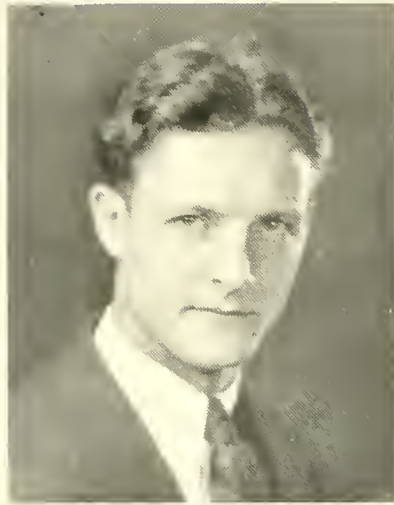

In the Fall of '29 many of this worthy class returned to hold up the record they had created together their first two years at Mansfield.

We still rated on the gridiron by giving six men to the team, and still continued giving much consideration to our studies.

The Junior Prom, our last and greatest success—"the best ever"—everyone agreed.

Through three years now we have risen. We have accomplished lots but still have much, much more ahead of us. That we may keep up the reputation we have built together and continue to achieve to the best of our ability all things we, as a class attempt is our aim for our fourth and final year at Mansfield.

Junior Class Roll

- Abernathy, Marguerite C. Mansfield, Pa.
 Jolly and joyous this slip of a girl with a gurgle of laughter;
 sunshine to our world.
- Ayers, Lois E. "Lovey" Old Forge, Pa.
 Did you ever hear Lois laugh? She can find the funny side of any situation. She is one of the original Beach Annex gang.
 Take your troubles to her—she'll laugh them away.
- Bailey, Harry "Hank" Canton, Pa.
 Hail to the president of the Junior class. He is not only a good leader but also a good actor.
- Baker, Howard Joseph "Bake" Port Allegany, Pa.
 Handsome and athletic "Bake" is equally as square and commanding of everyone's respect. His friendliness gives him many friends.
- Baldwin, Laura Hiltbold "Bobby" Mansfield, Pa.
 A toss of the head; a happy laugh,
 A what do I care what's in my path?
 A curl of lips; a sweet smile that's always wistful after awhile,
 Flashing eyes; maybe some tears,
 A bunch of moods—but isn't she dear?
- Bartoo, Leonard Leland "Bartoo" Mansfield, Pa.
 A jolly good Frenchman, a member of the debating team of 1928; and a good reference for the answer to most any question you have.
- Basher, Clara Frances "Fran" Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
 If you want a friend that's true come to Frances, if you want a friend that's full of fun, come to Frances; you want the best and kindest sort of pal-ish sort of girl, come to Frances.
- Bennett, Fred "Freddie" Mansfield, Pa.
 Freddie is an all around fellow. When it comes to help, Freddie is always on the job.
- Brock, Norman "Norm" Coudersport, Pa.
 "Norm" came back in full speed this year. He never is still a minute, always moving and always up to some mischief. He ranks among the first as a kidder.
- Blanchard, William "Bill" Covington, Pa.
 Another fraternity man. If there has been "monkey business" we think first of Bill for he's a self-starter in that line.
- Bradshaw, Charles Tioga, Pa.
 One of the commuting Juniors from Tioga, whose never-failing sense of humor has won for him many friends.
- Brennan, Alice Mary "Shortie" Elkland, Pa.
 Short but fair, with pretty brown hair. As good a student as you'll find anywhere.

- Brodrick, Merrill S. "Brod" Mansfield, Pa.
Merrill's complaisant, easy-going ways seem always to carry him over in fine shape; but behind his lackadaisical manner lies a sterner determination. His interests range beyond the classroom, ask Renabel.
- Carpenter, Lowell S. "Carp" Ulysses, Pa.
Dark, curly hair and twinkling eyes make "Carp" the cause of many a feminine heart flutter. He is a Potter County lad and proud of it.
- Davis, Wendell Oliver Holmes "Dave" Taylor, Pa.
No one in the class shows as much energy and dynamic personality as "Dave". A commanding personality catches instantly upon an audience and many times have we seen "Dave" do this.
- Darrow, Mrs. Henry Rummerfield, Pa.
Mary says she would rather embroider than do anything else, so it's lucky Henry knows how to cook. She must like to study too, because she sure gets wonderful marks.
- Dayton, Kenneth E. "Ken" Montrose, Pa.
Due to his studiousness and intellectual ability "Ken" fills his place with a will. His positions are varied and many at M. S. T. C.
- Deuel, Neva Mansfield, Pa.
After five years of successful teaching Neva comes back for more pedagogy. She is still jolly and happy and determined not to be an old maid school teacher.
- Dingler, Leona Jane "Ding" Jersey Shore, Pa.
"Ding" is little but oh my! We wonder how she reaches to the top of the door of 316 to put up those "ads". And by the way, when does she get them? We wonder if someone downtown doesn't collect them for her.
- Doll, Elwood "Doll" Tunkhannock, Pa.
He is one of that quiet sort of fellows. And from all reports he is surely interested in "Marbles". We hope you have the best of luck.
- Doughton, Margaret Ruth "Peg" Mansfield, Pa.
Vivacious, clever and good looking. When "Peg" is around you always know you're sure to have a good time. Scholarly—Oh Yea!
- Dunbar, Alonzo B. "Al" Columbia Cross Roads, Pa.
He's good at tennis, better at basketball, and just about the best as a social athlete.
- Eighmey, Carol J. "Eighmey" Millerton, Pa.
Bright eyes, fair complexion, and curly hair. Combine these with a pleasing personality and you have Carol. She can be serious though once in awhile even if it is in Advanced Comp. Class, or when she meets a certain person.
- Fisk, Cortez Edward "Cort" Wyalusing, Pa.
"Cort" is a healthy member of the "Frat" who helps make intramural basketball interesting to watch.

Flaherty, Anne Grace "Anne" Pittston, Pa.

Big blue eyes—and, oh, how she uses them! If you happen to be in one of her classes you'll know that she is scholarly also. If you don't believe it go to 312 and watch her study sometime.

Frear, Edgar Paul "Edjer" Montrose, Pa.

"Edjer" is in every way a good friend and a fine classmate. His weakness centers in tripping the light fantastic at every gym dance.

French, Amy Jeanne "Frenchie" Millerton, Pa.

"Frenchie" is peppy, gay, and giggly. Her studious ways have gained her distinction in the classroom, but her frequent weekends at home have caused us to wonder.

Gilchrist, Margaret J. "Peg" Lake Como, Pa.

Her air has a meaning, her movements a grace; you turned from the fairest to gaze on her face.

Guiles, Mary Frances "Mollie" Lawrenceville, Pa.

Mary appears very shy, but she knows things. For example, she knows her "Guidance". Be sure to notice that she blows in from that famous town, Lawrenceville.

Gullo, Yatsai "Muzzy" Silver Creek, N. Y.

This is his first year at Mansfield. He certainly has shown his ability in athletics, especially in wrestling.

Hartman, Charles Evans "Chuck" Mansfield, Pa.

A fair example that a man can be happy tho' married. "Chuck" is one of the finest athletes contributed by the Juniors to their Alma Mater.

Hertz, John J. Elkland, Pa.

Hertz is one of the members of the Junior class who came here for an education, and what's more he's getting it. You will always find him ready to help in any way possible.

Holly, Hugh "Holly" Lawrenceville, Pa.

A smiling representative from Lawrenceville. The girls do not seem to interest Holly, but the "girl" does.

Hrycenko, Michael Peter "Mike" Breslau, Pa.

A sailor has them in all ports. Mike only in two. One at Mansfield, the other at E. Stroudsburg. Yet these are only minor things. To Mike the most important things at college are football, baseball, and an education.

Jarvis, Mary Elizabeth "Jarvis" Sayre, Pa.

How've you been no doubt? Yes! Versatile? Very. Besides being able to sing, dance, and play; the least she can do intellectually is to pull down a wavering "A".

Jenkins, Clifford D. "Cliff" Covington, Pa.

"Cliff" is a gentleman farmer. He is also an orator, a careful student, and a firm friend. Pool and wrestling are his major sports, while ladies are his minor ones.

- Jupenz, Fred August "Freddie" Mansfield, Pa.
 Freddie is one of the reasons why M. S. T. C. has been putting out such fine football teams. His work with the medical kit has relieved many a pain.
- Justin, Raymond "Justin" Mansfield, Pa.
 Justin is noted at Mansfield for his singing. If you have never heard him sing you have missed something.
- Kelley, Erma "Kell" Covington, Pa.
 Erma is a studious student but not too much so. She certainly knows her "Guidance".
- Knapp, Eloise "Snap" Snedekerville, Pa.
 Eloise's disposition certainly is out of keeping with her red hair for a sweeter girl could not be. Is she full of fun? Just ask any of the Troy gang.
- Lefler, Berneta "Lefty" Westport, Conn.
 Her true worth is in being, not seeming; in doing each day that goes by—some little good—not in dreaming of great things to do by and by.
- Miller, Michael John "Mike" Duryea, Pa.
 A charter member of the Bachelor's Club of M. S. T. C. Mike is an example of an old adage: "Still water runs deep". Once you have gained his confidence and friendship they are yours forever.
- Neefe, Gertrude A. "Gert" Coudersport, Pa.
 A very studious person, and yet she likes to have a good time. Often we wonder though why she spends so many week-ends at home. Must be some attraction, Gert.
- Novak, Leah Mary Elkland, Pa.
 Big brown eyes attract everyone to Leah. These, combined with sincerity, good nature and wit make up one of the most clever and interesting personalities of North Hall.
- Powers, Gordon "Gord" Mansfield, Pa.
 "Gord" certainly is studious but still he always has time to help others.
- Price, David R. "Dave" Nanticoke, Pa.
 This is Dave's first year at Mansfield and it has been most successful. His athletic ability has been unsurpassed.
- Prugh, Frank Clyde "Pru" Tioga, Pa.
 Prugh is a valued friend and an esteemed classmate. He takes especial delight in forging his way through a difficult math problem.
- Reese, Amy Frances Covington, Pa.
 Amy is to the Day Room students as sunlight is to life. Pleasingly plump, she radiates optimism and reigns supreme over the Day Room realm. We like our Queen.
- Reinwald, LaVerne "Reiny" Wellsboro, Pa.
 "Reiny" is well liked among the M. S. T. C. students. Although interested in all sports, tennis seems to be his specialty. Being a day student, he is also a taxi driver.

- Reippel, Anna May Mansfield, Pa.
A winning girl with a winning way, who can in most any game play.
- Rivenburg, Russell "Russ" Clifford, Pa.
"Russ" is one of the "frat house gang". Sleeping is his greatest accomplishment. He is last in bed and last to get up, which is any time after eleven a. m.
- Scarcello, Angelo Mark "Ange" Galeton, Pa.
"Ange" plays baseball and pool well. He takes his studies seriously. It is our guess that he will never be "roped", for he believes: "Frailty thy name is woman".
- Schultz, Vernon "Suds" Mansfield, Pa.
Did you ever hear "Suds" go tweet' tweet' tweet' on his piccolo? And how!!! As a waiter he's a veteran—no seconds on butter!
- Seagers, Genevieve E. "Gen" Westfield, Pa.
Here's to a Westfield "Gal," who is always a friend,
And a very good Pal.
She is bound to win, for she is full of vim,
And a very good scout, if she is pretty slim.
- Seeley, Margaret E. "Peg" Emporium, Pa.
Oh! really? Here's to our pal Peg. An unusual girl; she knows Math and football. "Peg" hails from Emporium where the world's famous people stop and eat.
- Shaw, Daryl Winston Mansfield, Pa.
Happy? "Yes". Go lucky? "No". Daryl is one of our downtown boys. He is known in all his classes as a real worker.
- Sherman, Harland "Shermie" Mansfield, Pa.
Harland matriculated at Mansfield after he had decided that knowledge is power. Everyone knows that he has a good sense of humor and rhythm, and intimate knowledge of feminine sex.
- Spaulding, Lavere J. Tioga, Pa.
Another distinguished gentleman from Tioga. Another of the "Y's" big shots. And can he shoot pool? But pool isn't his only strong point—ask his instructors.
- Spencer, Gaylord C. "Doc" Ulysses, Pa.
"Doc" is a fair example of what Potter County sends to M. S. T. C. His latest adventure is the devising of a system whereby women will let him alone.
- Stabler, Eleanor L. "Nell" Williamsport, Pa.
The Phi Gamma whistle, a rush pell mell,
A burst in the door,—and there is Nell.
So filled with laughter, eyes brimming over;
A fascinating study from cover to cover.
- Stevens, Arthur H. "Steve" Tioga, Pa.
A person that we are not all well acquainted with. He seems reserved. Once you know "Steve" he is a good friend.
- Suhocke, Anthony E. "Tony" Kingston, Pa.
A cheer leader of no mean ability. Tony is certainly full of vim and vigor. He also studies chemistry as a sideline. "Let's see you go next year, Tony."

- Sullivan, Alecia F. "Lecia" Waverly, Pa.
 "Lecia" is friendliness personified and her brown curls are the envy of all North Hall. She is athletically inclined and her speciality is hiking.
- Thomas, Anthony C. "Tony" Wanamie, Pa.
 Bowling and yodeling are the chief of his diet. For this simple reason, he never can be quiet.
- Tozer, Ruth D. "Johnnie" Sayre, Pa.
 Ruth certainly is conscientious and perservering as she is still bent on completing that major in Chemistry. But even that doesn't keep her from being as fun loving as anyone. Her other majors are photographs and choir rehearsals.
- Van Dusen, Hugh "Van" Elkland, Pa.
 Hugh hails from Elkland, a town well represented at M. S. T. C. We are wondering much about our future Ralph Greenleaf.
- Wilkinson, Ralph G. "Wilkie" Wellsboro, Pa.
 Wanted—To be a friend to everyone. Here's your chance, folks, for a sincere friend.
- Wingate, Gladys "Polly" Wellsboro, Pa.
 Polly is one of those popular Wellsboro girls. Her sweet way wins her many friends. But we all wonder why she is so interested in Westfield.
- Winner, Edith C. "Blondie" Calvert, Pa.
 Found—the perfect blonde, non-peroxide, non-curling iron. "Blondie" is cheerful, ambitious and a true friend. On the side, she likes men, at least two of them.
- Woodworth, Weldon "Woody" Coudersport, Pa.
 He is one of our athletic stars. Everyone was glad to see Woody back in full swing this year. Woody also is unsurpassed in social affairs.
- Wolfanger, Glenn C. Galetton, Pa.
 Another man from Potter County. Glenn is a good student, especially in his "scial" and "nature" studies.
- Young, Ernest S. "Ernie" Wanamie, Pa.
 No, he's not the janitor at the annex. He claims that an education is one half books and one half women.

Music Supervisors

- Capwell, Elwood C. "Cappy" Wyalusing, Pa.
 For some special reason Cappy has taken several week-end trips this year and they are not always home either. Cappy and his Trombone will draw any member of the fair sex.
- Dibble, Merla Meshoppen, Pa.
 In the Music Sup. course, Merla, you have had the breeze with full sails, and according to the Almanac, you will have the same fair weather in the future but your ship will have changed its course.

- Gilbert, Mary Louise "Chic" Millersburg, Pa.
 Looks like a painting; disposition so sweet;
 Hair brown and curly, and she's always neat.
 Her eyes are deep blue, her cheeks rouged with rose;
 And when she laughs she has a pointed nose.
- Girton, Martha Julian "Judy" Berwick, Pa.
 "Just a sweet kid" is sufficient to describe this fair one possessing blue eyes which can sparkle so mischievously, a love for the beautiful, and talents varying.
- Gleokler, Dolly Irene "Dolly" Canton, Pa.
 Her face is fair and smooth and fine,
 Childlike, with secret laughter lit;
 Drooping in pity, bright with wit,
 A flower, a flame—God fashioned it,
 Who sees her tastes the sacred wine.
- Grant, Robert C. "Bobbie" Mansfield, Pa.
 A promising music student; but please don't promise too many,
 Bobbie. We want no breach of promise.
- Hetrick, Martha Louise "Lou" Altoona, Pa.
 You may have your lawyer
 You may have your grocer
 You may have your ice man
 But I'll take the doctor
 Signed—Louise.
- Horne, Pauline H. "Hornie" Johnstown, Pa.
 Pauline is always ready for a good time even though she is of a studious type. She "struts her stuff" as a music student. She is sure to be a success.
- Kiethline, Mildred B. "Midge" Shickshinny, Pa.
 You just can't begin to describe Midge in a few words. We'll just say she is a real pal and full of fun. Chorus answers "Yes", from North and South Halls.
- Kunkle, Helen, "Kunk" Williamsport, Pa.
 One of these folks just brim full of pep, fond of dancing and other essentials, with a personality to win many friends and talents of which not everyone knows.
- Lenker, Lucille F. "Priscilla" Millersburg, Pa.
 You with the brown eyes, and browner hair
 Within your heart lies
 Sweet music, mystic rare, on your lips a laugh,
 In your voice a song, a friend to all in the passing throng.
- Long, Raymond "Jack" Mansfield, Pa.
 Jack is noted for his violin playing. He is a real musician, if you don't believe it get him to play.
- Miller, Frank L. "Duke" Monroeton, Pa.
 As a trumpet player Frank can't be beat, and when it comes to arranging trumpet trios, he is par excellence.

- Marandi, Marguerite Tioga, Pa.
 Wouldn't the world be nice to live in,
 Cheery through and through,
 If everyone were just as kind as Folks like you.
- Palmer, Ruth Carolyn Trucksville, Pa.
 "A friend in need is a friend indeed"—that's Ruth. She is always cheerful and has a smile for everyone. Yes, she is studious, but can always take time off for her friends.
- Parke, Gilbert "Parkie" Waynesburg, Pa.
 Is he that way? What way? Lovable and sweet. Just ask anybody what he thinks of "Parkie". "Parkie" is another important member of the smoking room quartette.
- Parry, Cora Mae "Sam" Forest City, Pa.
 A modern, old-fashioned girl—thus we explain Cora. Her character is as true and unequivocal as this statement. She can laugh or cry with you; advise, listen, or just play the "needed" friend.
- Roderick, Donald M. "Rod" Dimock, Pa.
 A member of the Student Council and yet not too authoratative.
 "Rod" has been prominent in all affairs of our school.
- Seamons, Waldo "Seam" Lawrenceville, Pa.
 "Seam" is said to be the best tenor in school. He is one of the mainstays of the smoking room quartette. "Seam" is one of our most popular boys.
- Singer, Letha Mae Williamsport, Pa.
 A wonderful smile, an infectious laugh
 She's the kind of sport that stands the gaff.
 A voice you'll remember where'er you go;
 She's neither too fast nor yet too slow.
- Swatsworth, Ellen E. "Swat" Johnstown, Pa.
 Ellen is a very capable Music Sup. We are not positive whether Ellen will ever teach in a public school because often times circumstances alter cases and she has a very fair chance of doing other things.
- Watson, Fredrick "Freddie" Athens, Pa.
 When we hear Freddie play the piano, we say, "He sure is a Paul Whiteman"; and did you ever hear him play the old Southern melodies on the Pipe Organ?
- Welliver, Carolyn R. "Lynn" Muncy, Pa.
 Want a clever, original idea? Just ask Lynn. Always present when there's something doing—or vice versa. Dancing is numbered among her many accomplishments.
- Wendle, Mary R. "Becky" Williamsport, Pa.
 Who is the quiet, sweet girl with the snappy brown eyes and long brown hair? Why that's Becky! Sweet? Yes! Quiet? Well, ask her gang!. She's a real musician, too.
- Wheeler, Gladys E. "Gladdie" Clarks Summit, Pa.
 One of the best known day dreamers in M. S. T. C. But maybe her mind doesn't always wander as far as we think. Who knows how often her thoughts are of that beloved (?) violin lesson?

Home Economics

Barry, Margaret E. "Peg" White Haven, Pa.

Here's to our brown-eyed Peggy, always ready with a flashing smile. How we do appreciate your friendship and we are truly proud that you are a Home Ecker.

Baumunk, Roberta A. "Berta" Fredonia, N. Y.

A girl with curly hair, bright blue eyes and quick decisive actions. That's Berta. She's a person worth knowing. Berta says she never used to eat before this year. We wonder why?

Beaver, Julia "Judy" Waynesboro, Pa.

"Judy" has won her way to the hearts of everyone by her charming personality. She is always right there in any athletic contest or gym dance to help put it over.

Brace, Marian Louise Wyoming, Pa.

Modesty	Busy
Ability	Rich in common sense.
Refinement	A kind word.
Idealism	Courteous
Ambition	Energetic.
Naturalness.

This spells Marian Brace, honest and true.

Carey, Bethia "Beth" Millville, Pa.

One who did not know Beth might say she was very quiet but her friends know how witty she can be. She is studious, but when it is time for play Beth can always be counted on.

Driscoll, Helen Plymouth, Pa.

Laughing eyes and always singing—that's Helen. She comes to us from the southern part of the state and she seems to have a special interest in that locality—just watch at mail time.

Edgecomb, Esther M. "Pat" Knoxville, Pa.

"Pat" seems to be one of our quiet students, but when you know her, Oh! how she can talk. She also wears a fraternity pin from U. of P., now we wonder what it means.

Gardner, Alice Edith "Al" Meshoppen, Pa.

Alice always has time to help others, especially when it comes to studies. We wonder why Alice gets so thrilled when the mail comes. We wonder who he is?

Gehron, Florence M. "Flossie" Williamsport, Pa.

This curly haired, bright eyed Miss is a true light, so far, in the field of Home Economics. She's a friend worth having and one not to be forgotten.

Hager, Genevieve "Gen" Mansfield, Pa.

"Gen" is one of our Home Eckers who is lucky to be driving a car about town. Is it for business only, Gen? Oh yes, she lives in Mansfield.

Hoover, Frances "Sally" Williamsport, Pa.

Sally is one of these girls who leaves us in the lurch every week-end, but then—there's a reason so we can't blame her. Most everyone knows Sally by her friendly smile.

Jones, Helen G. "Shorty" Mansfield, Pa.

Did you ever see this young lady looking as if she had lost her last friend? She has too many of them.

Kichline, Ruth M. "Kick" White Haven, Pa.

A jolly good student who has impressed us as being industrious and ambitious. When "Kick" says "Oh! for pity sakes!", don't get excited. Her career will be a successful one.

Ormsby, Clara M. "Caddy" Bradford, Pa.

Short and fair, with black wavy hair. As good a pal as you'd find anywhere.

Rice, Catherine M. "Kay" Trucksville, Pa.

Mansfield would have had a much more loyal supporter if there had never been a Syracuse, and if there had never been a But there is a Syracuse, and what week-ends!!

Rose, Dorothea A. "Dot" Mansfield, Pa.

Dot has entered the field of Holy Matrimony. We are sure Dick picked a charming young lady.

Shollenberger, Martha "Mart" Williamsport, Pa.

As an athlete "Mart" has always been in the front ranks and her high scholastic standing places her among the intelligentsia of her class. She is jolly, full of pep and a good sport.

Swartz, Helen B. "Swartzie" Waynesboro, Pa.

This charming girl hails from the southern part of the state. She's always happy and gay yet serious when duty calls. Heaps of luck to you "Swartzie" and keep on smiling that winning way of yours.

Wood, Myrtilla "Tillie" Knoxville, Pa.

"Tillie" is always ready with an answer or a witty remark. Her lessons are always prepared, but she has plenty of time for fun. We all know Tillie chose Home Economics for a reason.

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomore Class

IT IS WELL FOR THE FROSH that the Sophs were not allowed to carry out all their desires. There are other ways of bringing glory to one's class, however and we were out for all of them. One way was through the Frosh-Soph football game which ended 0-0; an overwhelming victory for the Sophs. Thanks to that game a few Frosh rules were lifted. As beggars cannot be choosers the Frosh should have been thankful for all favors. They, referring to the Frosh, aren't such a bad lot and by next year they ought to make fairly good Sophomores.

One of the Soph's greatest gifts to their Alma Mater this year is seven men of the football squad, namely: Allis, Baynes, Moyer, Simms, Snyder, and Terry.

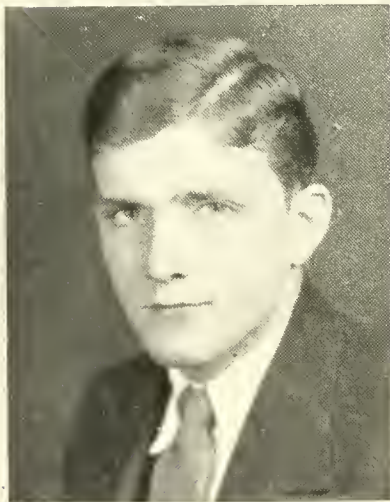

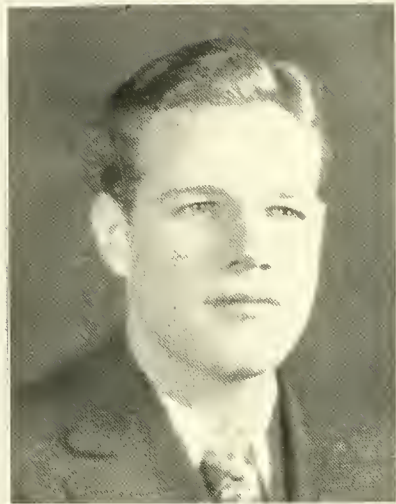

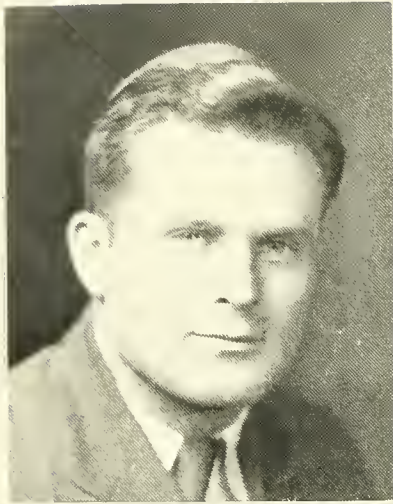

When basket-ball season began, excitement ran high again. Were the Sophs proud? Didn't we have cause to be? Look at the honors we brought M. S. T. C., aided by such fellows as Allis, Baynes, Lutes, Simms, Terry, and Wydman. The saying is "You can't keep a good man down," and they were good. There is always chance for improvement, so they tell us, but, for some reason, we can't help feeling smugly satisfied with our boys.

Spring began to creep in. You hear the sock of ball against glove and upon looking out over the arcade at the fellows "warming up", we just know Spring is here. Last year we discovered two new stars in the baseball horizon and they are still shining. "Wydie" swings a wicked ball and Lutes is always at his post of duty.

Mention should be made of those conscientious people who keep up the standard of our class by studying. We have decided, however, as there are so many we will refer any one interested to the Dean of Instruction. He or his secretary will gladly give information along this line.

The class of '32 now wishes to extend its best wishes and congratulations to the class of '30. It deserves much commendation for scaling four years of study successfully. But has it been all work, Seniors? No. If it had been you would have succeeded, we are sure. We hope that the fun you have had with us at M. S. T. C. will make these years the most pleasant of your lives.

FRESHMEN

The Freshman Class

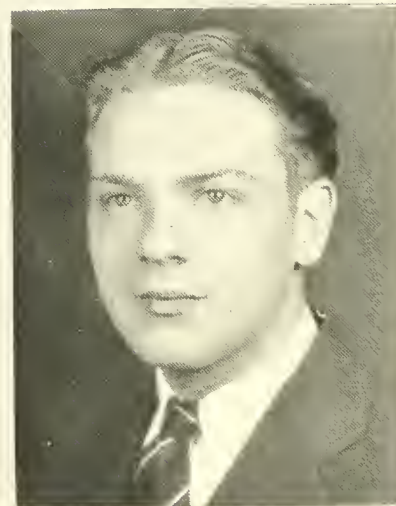

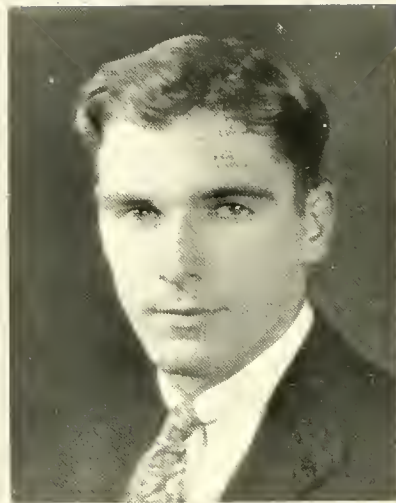

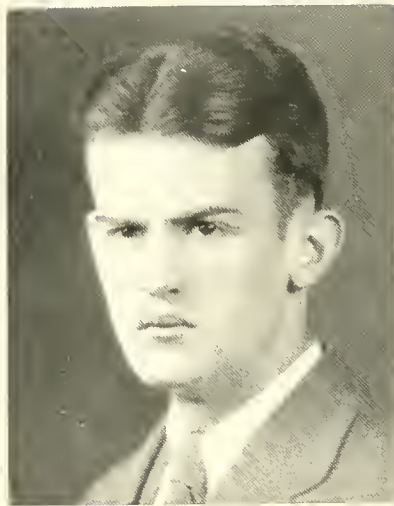

WE CAME, WE SAW, WE CONQUERED,—at least we tried to conquer. On September 10, 1929, through all open doors streamed FRESHMEN—big freshmen, little freshmen, middle-sized freshmen—all kinds, in fact. We came eagerly yet half frightened. What kind of a welcome would M. S. T. C. give to us? Would she receive us as loyal sons and daughters? Would she give us a chance to try to measure up to her standards? Would we make good? We could, we knew, had we but the chance. What would it be like, this new adventure of ours?

We had heard gruesome tales of the abuse, contempt, hatred, etc., of the upper-classmen. They would without doubt, rise up in a body, attack us, and “laff” at our broken remains. Well, if that was a part of college life, we would go through with it, and like it Great was our surprise to find that after several hours under the roof of our new home, not once had we been molested in any way.

They gave us a tea, and the faculty received us officially in the gym. It was that same week that the churches welcomed us. We were gaining courage, and just beginning to feel at home when our world crashed about us. The word spread quickly—Frosh initiation starts Monday morning It had come Trembling, most of us went home for protection and shelter over the week end. But, reluctantly, we returned to M. S. T. C. and then began a week of skipping, bowing, singing, and whatnot? But we all survived and struggling, regained strength.

We elected our class officers and now are recognized as a body of full-fledged members of M. S. T. C. We thank the Faculty and upper-classmen for all the assistance which they so kindly gave to us.

Football

IN A BRIEF RESUME of the fall classic which is truly the great American sport, we find that the past season has been very successful at our school. Joy for the record of the past season mixed with regrets at losing several mainstays linger in the minds of our most ardent rooters. Any team that can go out on the grid-iron and return with five conquests as compared with two defeats must be justly lauded. Supreme happiness and intense satisfaction entailed more than repays all the preparation and strain of a season's work when you glance at the string of victories credited to the Mountaineers during the past season. The victories were impressive, the defeats were not to be scoffed at. Both defeats were encountered in the last quarter, which seems to have been a jinx to the local team for the past two years. Determination, perseverance, coordination, brains and strength were noticeable in every game during the past season. The psychology of the game has instilled confidence, loyalty, self-development, and leadership which will long linger in the minds of those who have played for their Alma Mater. Generalship, that requires strategy and tactics, which is the salient feature that lifts the game of football out of the ruck of sports to its present high standing was present in every encounter. The line functioned with clock-like precision and never faltered during a single contest. It is with regret that we look at the names of those who have donned their mole-skins for the last time of their college career. Scholl and Squires will no longer be seen in the forward wall, while Pish and White of the backfield bid adieu.

Mansfield, 51 Susquehanna, 6

In our first game of the season the strength of the local team at once asserted itself. No less than twenty-five men were used in the fray. Baker scored a touchdown from the kick-off to register the most exciting play of the day. Considering the fact that the Teachers had only two weeks of practice the lop-sided score was all the more impressive. The Mountaineers crossed the final chalk line no less than eight times; some of these touchdowns were made by spectacular runs but more often by consistent plunging.

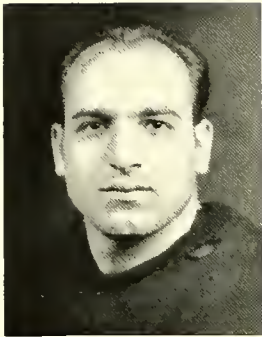

In the first quarter White tallied the first touchdown of the season on a line plunge. From that point on the outcome of the game was never in doubt. Halftime score found the locals enjoying a 24 to 0 lead. The reserves, who played half the game, showed plenty of fighting spirit and also revealed prospects for strong reserve power which is essential to every winning team. Susquehanna added their lone touchdown by gaining a 15 yard penalty just after the varsity had replaced the reserves in the third quarter. White and Baker easily starred in the initial encounter.

Captain Harry Scholl Guard

Mansfield has known many hard-working, line-smashing captains, but none have been in the game for more than Captain Scholl.

Harry has been a varsity man for four years and was one big reason why the Mansfield line has held all comers to small scores. Our captain has never tried to be spectacular, for that doesn't fit in with getting a team to fight. However, he did two men's work on the line and led the mighty Mountaineers to a successful season.

Mansfield, 12 Lock Haven, 10

In a hard played game, Mansfield took her second victory of the season at the expense of Lock Haven Teachers College. It was one of the best played games of the season as the visitors came here with a good line and a well-developed passing attack. Throughout the four periods, the large Parents' Day crowd was kept on its toes by the sensational playing of both teams. Mansfield registered a touchdown in the first quarter when Baker tallied a six pointer aided by Woodworth, who carried the brunt of the attack. The third frame was when the Mountaineers raised the count to twelve on a hidden ball play with Hartman sprinting 20 yards for Mansfield's final score. The last period found Lock Haven tallying their lone score after a series of forward passes and a few plunges through the line. Scholl, Hrycenko, and Hartman stood out in the second victory of the season.

Mansfield, 13 Clarion, 0

Mansfield added another victory to her list when the Mountaineers defeated the Clarion State Teachers College to the tune of 13-0. In the first out of town game of the season the local aggregation was considerably handicapped by the unusual composition of the turf. The field was composed of a bed of shell rock; hence the Mountaineers did not extend themselves for fear of sustaining injuries that would keep them out of the game for the season.

Schlappi, a rookie to the local, ranks scored both touchdowns. The first came in the initial chukker as a result of a drive through the line. Hrycenko came back from his post at end to register the extra marker by a beautiful placement kick. In the third quarter, Schlappo received a pass from "Woodie" and sprinted 30 yards for the second touchdown unmolested. It was Mike's trusty toe that was responsible for the extra battle.

Mansfield, 26 Oswego, 0

The grid warriors of M. S. T. C. kept their 1929 slate clean by applying the whitewash brush to Oswego by a score of 26 to 0. The line functioned like a clock and the backfield performed a la Notre Dame to register the fourth consecutive win. In the first quarter after Price had recovered a fumble, Hartman skirted left end for 30 yards and a few moments later Schlappi crashed through center into the promised land. From that point on the Oswego team never realized what it was all about. The feature play of the engagement occurred in the last quarter when Pish heaved a long forward into the eager arms of Hrycenko from mid-field. Hrycenko raced across the line for the final touchdown unmolested. It was Mike's trusty toe that was responsible for the extra point. Pish and Hartman of the backfield with Snyder and Price from the forward wall were the stars of the encounter.

Mansfield, 33 Dickinson, 26

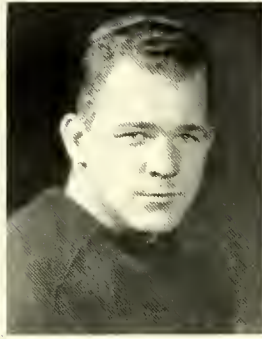

Following the Oswego game the Mountaineers came through and tripped Dickinson Seminary 32 to 26 in their own back yard. The game, although played in a sea of mud, was full of thrills until the final whistle ended the encounter. The Red and Blacks were outweighed by far, but made up for it by being faster and brainier. It was that never say die spirit, which changes defeats into victories, that was conspicuous all through the struggle which made the locals fight until the very end.

After Seminary had earned a touchdown in six plays, the Mountaineers put on their scoring outfits and showed that they meant business by promptly tying the count. Halftime score found Dickinson to be enjoying a one point advantage 20 to 19. The lead see-sawed back and forth until the final whistle showed Mansfield sporting a 32 to 26 advantage. To name any particular star is impossible but a major portion of the credit goes to Woodworth, who began to show his old time form again.

Bloomsburg, 6

In the hardest battle of the current season the Red and Blacks lost a heart-breaker to our traditional rivals, Bloomsburg Teachers. The Mountaineers after their sixth conquest of the season fell short by six points in which the visitors took advantage when Lady Luck smiled on them. The fray was like a draw, Mansfield making nine first downs to Bloomsburg's ten. For three periods the ball kept going from one end of the field to the other with neither team being able to penetrate the last chalk mark.

In the final frame, the visitors scored the only touchdown of the fray by obtaining the ball through a blocked kick on the thirty yard line. They registered the six points through line plunges as Mansfield seemed to be tiring from the strain. The Mansfield play was not spectacular, but was more on the order of team work down to a science. They were all fighting from the opening whistle until the bitter end and should have deserved a better break. The work of Brock, Allis, Simms and Squires was outstanding.

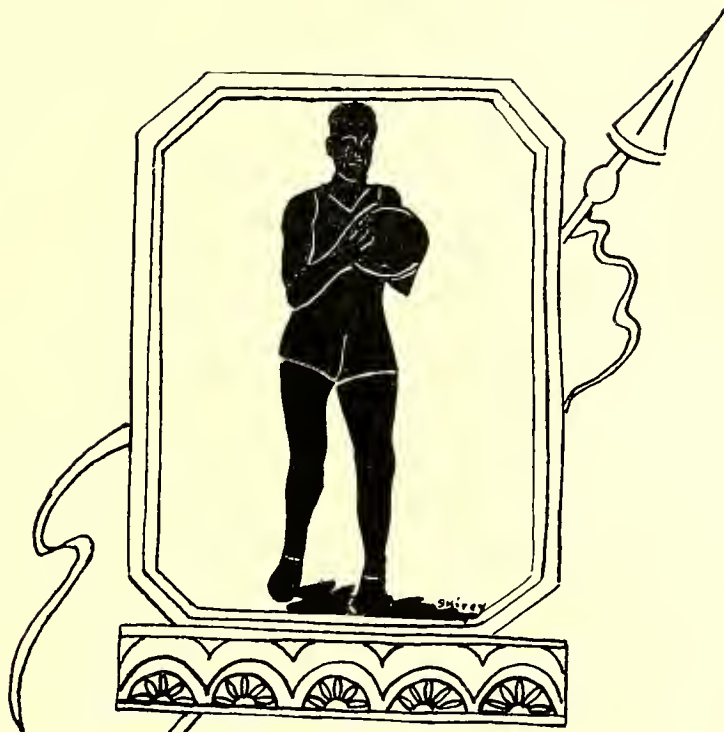

Mansfield, 12 Cortland, 13

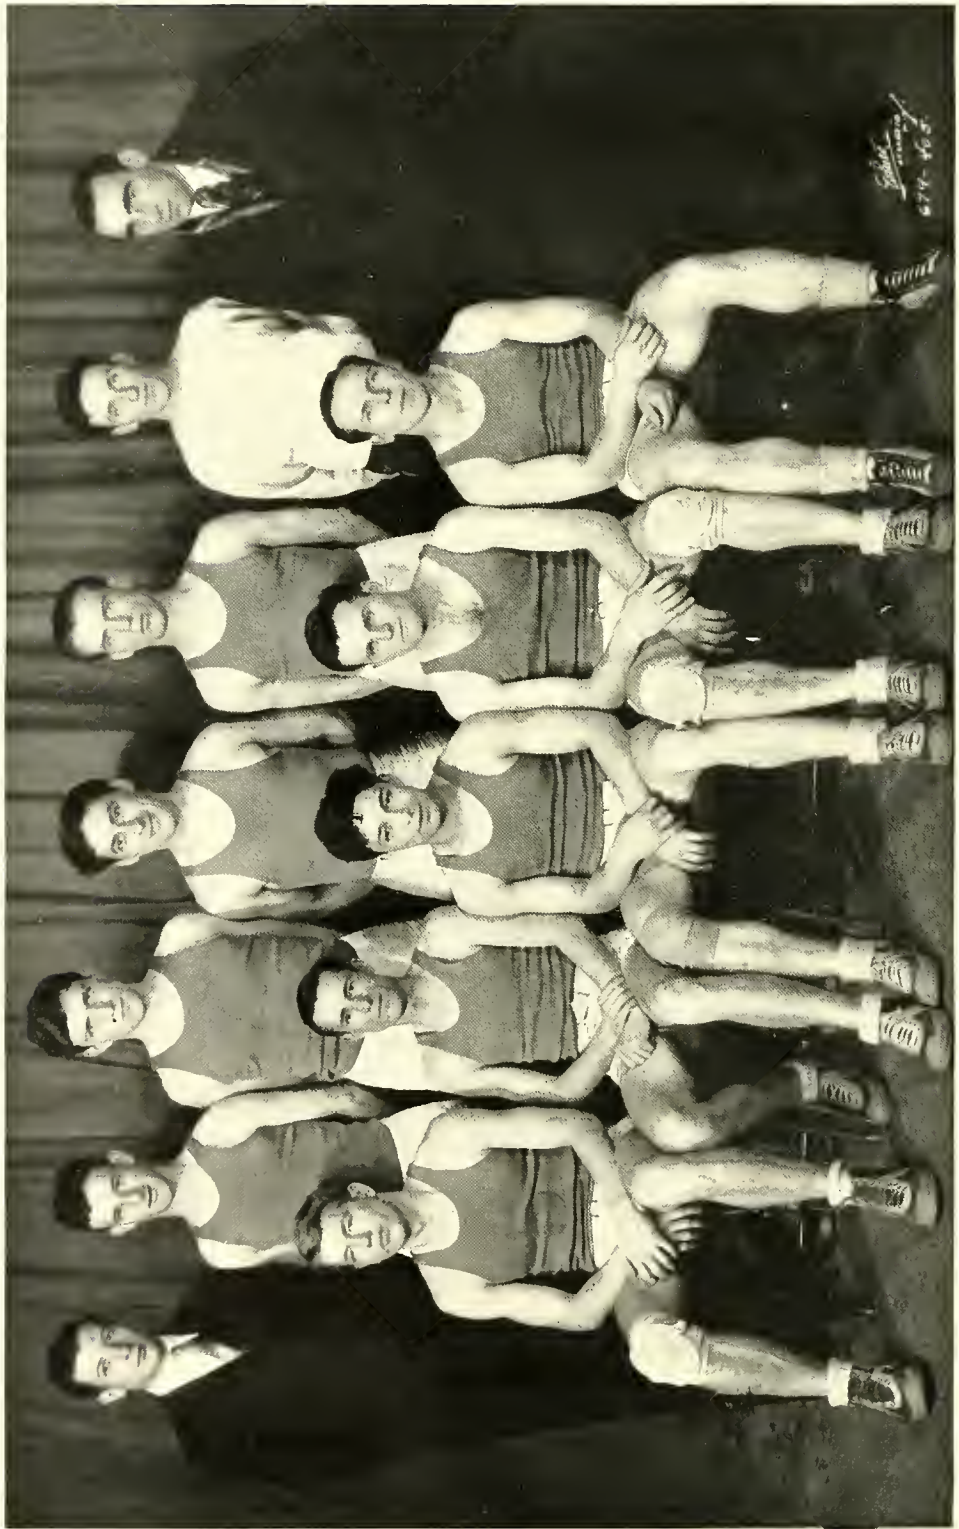

Mansfield dropped her second game of the season when it bowed to Cortland in their final appearance of the year by a score of 13 to 12. The game was hotly contested from start to finish and the result was in doubt until the final whistle. The Red and Blacks scored first on a pass from Pish to Schlappi. In the nicest exhibition of broken field running displayed on the local gridiron, Schlappi wormed his way through the entire Cortland team and raced forty yards to tally after receiving the pass from Pish. Cortland then scored a touchdown and immediately added the extra point to place them at a 7 to 6 advantage. This was short lived as the Mountaineers came back strong at the opening of the second half to score another touchdown with Schlappi indenting the final chalk mark. During the last two minutes the visitors completed a wild heave to put them into the lead never again to be headed. Scholl, making his final appearance of the season, played a remarkable game. He was also aided by Price, Pish, and White.

BASKETBALL

Basketball

ALTHOUGH THE MOUNTAINEERS didn't repeat the wonderful record of last year's team, and win another State Championship, they deserve just as much credit and praise for their efforts in doing their best. With the absence of the five first string men of last year's great team, Coach Marvin was faced with a proposition that is bound to confront a coach sooner or later, namely that of molding together an entirely new team. To produce a consistently winning aggregation, when a problem like this arises, requires exceptional material to pick from and the small amount of material available, limits the chances of success.

Mansfield completed her season with four wins and six defeats. Some teams had better records but many had less successful seasons than our own. We offer no alibi for our own losses, for in all cases, we will admit, we were defeated by better and more experienced teams.

Basketball is a game that requires plenty of cooperation, experience, and team work for many a time a few poor passes, or a few good ones, spell victory or defeat, and the main difficulty with the team this year seemed to be their inability to work together at opportune times. But an off season is bound to come once in a while, even to the best of teams that have made exceptional records in the past, but in our case let's bury the past and look forward to bright prospects for a winning team next season. The fine development of the Junior Varsity will assure some good material to represent the college's best on the court next season.

Price, Simms, Lutes, Weeks, Woodworth, Wydman, Allis, Brock, Baynes, and Hartman composed the varsity squad, and all these men, with the exception of Weeks, will be available for next year's team.

Mansfield, 29

Lock Haven, 17

The opener was a matinee contest against Lock Haven on the latter's court. The superiority of the Mountaineers was readily shown, even in a loosely played game. Price, Weeks, Wydnan, Brock and Allis made the starting line-up, but other combinations were tried and all the men saw action. Price was high scorer with sixteen points.

The Mountaineer's first defeat of the season came at the hands of Stroudsburg. Mansfield put up her best brand of basketball in the first part of the game and succeeded in gaining a four point lead at half time. Stroudsburg, however, came back strong the second half, but the game was closely contested until the last few minutes of play when the P. E. boys dropped through several baskets to gain an eleven point lead.

Mansfield, 25

Dickinson, 19

Dickinson came to Mansfield for blood, to retaliate for a football defeat earlier in the season, and with the score eleven to two, in their favor, after the first few minutes of play, it looked as if they were to succeed. During the second half, however, the Mountaineers began to show signs of basketball ability and forged ahead to gain a six point lead as the final whistle was blown. Woodworth and Price were the scoring guns for Mansfield.

Mansfield, 26

Bloomsburg, 41

In the fourth contest Mansfield met her formidable rival, Bloomsburg, and went down to a forty-one to twenty-six defeat, after a hard fought game. A combination of veterans represented Bloomsburg but the Mountaineers gave them a chance to know they were in a basketball game, and at half time Bloom was leading by only six points. In the second half, however, the maroon and gold uncorked some steves that should win any ball game. Simms was high scorer with eight points and Allis gave a fine exhibition of guarding by holding a dangerous man scoreless.

Mansfield, 32

Lock Haven, 26

The return game with Lock Haven, played on the home floor, proved to be a very exciting contest as a result of Lock Haven's improvement and Mansfield's slight over-confidence. Mansfield, at half time, had a three point lead. In the second half, the team got together and played better basketball. In this half "Woody" came through with eight points, Price six points, Simms four points and as the game ended Mansfield was again victorious.

Mansfield, 27

Dickinson, 32

Mansfield journeyed to Dickinson, determined to keep clean her record with that team but the opponents got off to a fast start and scored several baskets before the Red and Blacks seemed to get organized. Entering a second half eleven points behind is a tough proposition for any team but the Mountaineers came within two points of tying the score in the fourth quarter only have Dickinson drop through several two pointers to put the game on ice.

Mansfield, 20

Keystone, 21

The score indicates a very interesting contest but on the other hand the game was dull and lifeless. The Red and Blacks, really the superior team, played far below par. Neither team seemed to penetrate the other's defense but depended mostly on "pop" shots. Keystone's court was small, and the result, as usually happens on a small court, the game became too rough for good basketball to be displayed. The game ended with Mansfield trailing by one point.

Mansfield, 24

Bloomsburg, 34

In what was no doubt the best played game of the season, Mansfield was defeated on her own court by Bloomsburg. The Red and Blacks put up a gallant fight and allowed Bloom only a four point lead at half time. In the final half Mansfield continued to play good ball but Bloom, with better passwork, a fast breaking offense, and accurate shooting ability was superior to the Mountaineers and continued to pile up a comfortable lead. Price and Simms each scored seven points.

Mansfield, 17

West Chester, 29

From advance dope on West Chester's record for the season, the Mountaineers felt fairly confident of victory. The boys from downstate, however, displayed such shooting ability as has not been seen on the home court this season. The varsity could not seem to get going and in the third quarter the second string five replaced them. But for West Chester's exceptional shooting the game was poorly played.

Mansfield, 20

Keystone, 17

After losing a close game at Keystone earlier in the season, the Red and Blacks were determined to avenge themselves thoroughly. Coach Marvin started a second string combination and they accounted for themselves very well. Maynard, until now a Junior Varsity man, got into the fray and came through with flying colors, scoring three baskets for the evening's high scorer.

Baseball

NINETEEN TWENTY-NINE regulars who were sure to see action at the beginning of the 1930 season were Kreutzcek, Hrycenko, Roderick, Wydman, Pish, and Hartman. This nucleus contains three veterans of several campaigns who have measured their worth against many a good team and not been found wanting. The remainder are veterans of one season and the truth cannot be stretched too much in saying that they will hold their own again this year. 1930 can be called a crucial season since it is the first in five years that we have not had a complete team of veterans to answer the annual spring call. Scarcello, Carpenter and Gilvary did not return to college although they were eligible for several more years of varsity competition. This loss shifts the burden of doubt to the shoulders of the rookies who compete for the empty posts. No team is a winner until its rookies have proven their capabilities to fill the shoes of former greats. In reference to the green material, we might predict that more promising ball players have appeared than we have had for several years. Our hopes are placed on these.

The 1930 schedule is practically the same as in former years, and a knowledge of these teams of former years reveals as usual a tough assignment. 1929 saw one defeat administered to the varsity. Bloomsburg turned that trick 12-11 at Bloomsburg. Giving the order of this year's schedule in relation to last years we might dwell shortly on the games played and probable results. Bloomsburg took advantage of a soft spot and hit Roderick's sore arm for twelve runs which was good enough to shade the Red and Blacks eleven trips. In the return game at Mansfield the Maroon and Gold ate the dust of Roderick's wheezes 4-1. This year Bloom has a veteran line-up against unknown quality. The second opponent, namely Dickinson, is back after a year's absence, the last decisions being one up for both parties. Dickinson is new so it should be an even break. Cortland will try to do better than she did last season and win two instead of dropping two. Cortland has fallen seven times in eight games before Mansfield Shoots. The 9-2, 9-3 victories give us equal hope for repeats against the New York School. Stroudsburg left Mansfield in 1929 holding the loose end of an 8-2 count, bewildered with the fast batting attack and wiry Roderick arm. Mansfield has the edge over Stroudsburg with five wins against three in the past four years. The schedule calls for home and home series with every team but Stroudsburg and if later games are not picked up the season will end with Cortland on May 24th.

Reflected glory is a dubious thing but the 1930 will have faced as stern opposition as any Mansfield team ever faced and to come up with credit on their side they will have to display rip-roaring ball, the kind the Red and Black has always given. A Mansfield ball-team never says die.

The season will be over when this is perused and we hope that nothing need be retracted. Still whatever the outcome, all we ask is that they have fought the season that will make us proud to be their backers. All we ask for is a fighting team.

Tennis

 OPES AND EXPECTATIONS of seeing Mansfield State represented on the courts by a varsity tennis team have finally materialized. Due to the excellent showing of the previous year's team and the whole-hearted support of both faculty and students, tennis has at last been granted a place in the first rank along with the other major sports of the college. The 1929 season was opened at Bloomsburg, who went down to defeat against the onslaught of Mansfield's superior overhead attack by a score of six matches to none. A week later the Bloom boys were again decisively beaten by the same score when they journeyed up to Mansfield. This encounter clearly showed the superiority of the well-directed placement game over that of the more or less erratic driving style of play.

The team was well-groomed for a stiff fight when it encountered the hard-hitting Alfred University varsity at Mansfield in the next match. All advance reports on the visitor's strength were apparent soon after the match started. Lobs and short cross-court shots were a feature of the local boys' attack in subduing their rivals by a wide margin of six to nothing.

The closing match of the season at Alfred was by far the hardest fought contest of the year. Each team resorted to all the tricks known to the game in order to outwit its opponent. The New York State team could not quite make the grade in order to tie the score, and had to be satisfied with the short end of a four to two score.

The unbeaten record of the last two years is due in a large part to the able coaching of Professor Edward Cornish, who has devoted much of his time and energy to develop a strong aggregation.

The mountaineer squad was composed of Benn Weeks, Jack Trowbridge, Lloyd Straughn, Maurice Cruttenden, Frank Simms and LaVerne Reinwald. A bright prospect is in view for 1930 as all of these men are available except Straughn and Cruttenden, and a good schedule has been arranged including matches with Alfred University, Bloomsburg State Teachers College, Stroudsburg State Teachers College, and Cortland Normal School.

Wrestling

EARLY LAST FALL there came from Alfred a stranger who was destined to leave his mark in the history of athletics at Mansfield. At this time nothing much was known of his athletic ability. But soon on the gridiron he showed to be a fighter. It was he who with the backing of Dr. Straughn, banded together a few young who were interested in the gentle sport and after a month's training set out to do battle with formidable opponents. The young man is Yatsi Gullo and Mansfield owes him a vote of thanks for introducing a sport which was so quickly received.

The team completed a very hard schedule, losing five meets and winning two. This is a creditable showing for the boys who met matmen of far greater experience. Though the team was outclassed in skill it was never outclassed in fighting spirit. And next year that same spirit coupled with more experience will lead them on to a successful season.

The schedule of games this season:

Mechanic's Institute—19	Mansfield—11.
Mechanic's Institute—36	Mansfield—0.
Alfred U.—20½	Mansfield—11½.
Wyoming Seminary—27	Mansfield—5.
Bloomsburg—10	Mansfield—26.
Alfred U.—22	Mansfield—6.
Bloomsburg—13	Mansfield—25.

The schedule for next season will include meets with Alfred U., Wyoming Seminary, Bloomsburg, Cornell Frosh, Ithaca Physical Education School, Perkiomen and Cortland.

MINOR SPORTS

Girls' Hockey

HOCKEY IS GRADUALLY receiving more recognition as an important sport with the girls and we are in hopes that we may soon form an intercollegiate team. However, the Intra-mural games each year are the talk of the school—especially this year when the Sophs took the championship. The Frosh gave them a good run for their money, though, with such players as Mildred Reinwald, captain; Mary Wynne, Myrtle Landon, Victoria Hysenki, Louise Hoag, Marjorie Young, and Ruth McAllister. The Juniors rather resting on their laurels of years before, now did not “star” with their team—the old gang of last year and the year before made up the team—Anna Reippel, Renabel Smith, Ruth Basher, Leah Novak, Alice Brennan, Julia Beaver, Roberta Baumunck, Berneta Lefler and Nellie Carlson.

In saving the best till the last, we have the Soph team composed of the famous Bea MacDonald, Margaret Dougherty, Margaret Cummings, Margaret Miller, Jane Thompson, Mary Reinwald, Louise Greisinger, Harriett Stevens, Eleanor Shirey, Helen Gill, Helen Kane and Mary Bridge.

Inter-Class Basketball

THE BASKETBALL SEASON of 1929-30, saw a change in the extra-curricular activities of the college, namely Intramural basketball becoming Inter-class basketball. This change brought to us, without any doubt, more interest, more spirit, more class loyalty, and cooperation of the student body, than the history of Intramural basketball can cite. The season as a whole, was successful in every respect. Our only drawback was the fact that the season was unfinished. Before we go on with the official coronation of the winners, the shouting, band playing, etc., let us run over the season roughly. Inter-Class basketball came into being at one of the official gatherings of the male populace of the school, namely Men's Meeting. Intramural basketball did not seem to be grasping its usual hold on the boys so it became necessary to suggest something new and put it to a test. We owe our thanks to Weldon Woodworth who helped to get this movement underway. His work in scheduling games, securing a playing court and officials was the prime factor in the inauguration of Inter-Class basketball.

The season opened with a flourish, showing the spotlight with girls Inter-Class games. It held its sway over the athletic-minded youths of the school until the first signs of Spring came into view, then the usual call of the out-of-doors had its response, and promenading within the boro limits had its share of attention.

After the first round of games were played it seemed that the Seniors were "up there", with the Frosh a good second. Then began a rearrangement of line-ups and coaches. The Junior team was the only one to select a coach, and the duty of "mentor" was placed upon their classmate, "Mike" Hrycenko. A change followed, the Junior team with one leader, and not five individuals, started with their second game to take five "straight" and the championship. The splendid cooperation of the members of the team with their coach was the paramount factor in bringing to the Junior Class, the Championship. The Senior team started with a rush but slowed up in the end, to finish a strong second. Coach Biace tried to pull the team out of a slump but it was in vain, however they were not disgraced by any means. The "green" Frosh put a great team on the floor, and Coach Price was able to bring them into third place. The Sophomores, or traditional nemesis of the Frosh succeeded in holding the last position with great success. They were hampered by indifferent attitudes on the part of some of the Soph men because of the lack of a coach or leader, as the record of their achievement shows.

The part of selecting an All-American team as customary, is a proposition to be handled by a "Walter Camp" but as there are no Walter Camps here, the team is picked upon the basis of playing ability, teamwork, scoring, and leadership.

First Team

Moyer—Jr.—Forward.
Miller—Jr.—Forward.
Schlappi—Frosh—Center.
Bennett—Jr.—Guard.
Cymbal—Sr.—Guard.

Second Team

Worthington—Frosh—Forward.
Bower—Sr.—Forward.
Dunbar—Jr.—Center.
Maloney—Frosh—Guard.
Snyder—Soph—Guard.

There was a wealth of material for alternates for both teams namely: Rivenberg and Blanchard for the Juniors, Summers and Brigham for the Seniors, Marsh and Norbert for the Sophs, Estes and Sunday for the Frosh. With this array of reserve material and with the first and second teams as nucleuses a coach would have no trouble in developing a winning team.

The leading scorer of the league was Wilton Moyer with the following trailing in order named: Bower, Worthington, Dunbar, Snyder. These same persons may be also classed as the most valuable to their respective teams.

The personnel of the winning team, the Junior team, is as follows:

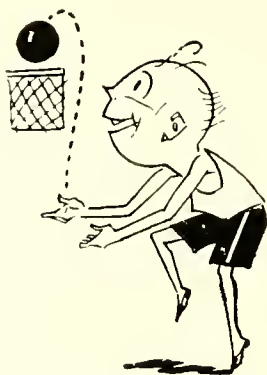

Forwards—Moyer, Miller, Frear, Suhocke.

Centers—Dunbar, Rivenberg, Parke.

Guards—Blanchard, Bennett, Fisk, Wilkinson.

The winners were coached by "Mike" Hryenko.

In order that this season's schedule could be carried out we had to have the co-operation of the administrative body of the college. This we received and so we express our appreciation to those who were directly responsible for these favors. Miss Fischer, Mrs. McKinney and Mr. Storch, we believe, are the one we should thank for helping to make this years inter-class tournament a success.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Row 2.—Snyder, McCord, Carlson, Jackson, Jankiewicz, Lee, Cummings, Roderick.

Student Government

 ONE OF THE LEADING organizations on the campus is the student government association. In former years this body concerned itself chiefly with discipline problems and the enforcement of regulations. This function of council, though important, is gradually being overshadowed by larger and more positive objectives. Class consciousness emphasizing the precedence and responsibility of upper classmen has been built up. As an example of this, a beautiful ceremony has been established which symbolizes the handing on of the traditions, hopes, and responsibilities of the seniors to the underclassmen.

Council members are realizing their duties as not only interpreters of student opinion, but definite leaders in the shaping and guiding of general attitude.

Among many successful student projects of the year we find courtesy week, the etiquette booklet, big sister-little sister activities, council tea, more interesting and worthwhile house-meetings and pep song contes.

In an effort to obtain a broader outlook on the opportunities and responsibilities of student government, several worthwhile contacts have been made with other institutions. Mansfield representatives attended the Student Forum at Bloomsburg State Teachers College and the Student Conference in New York City in connection with the Eastern States Conference of Normal Schools and Teachers Colleges.

As the standards of the college have progressed, the student government association has endeavored to be a leading force in this movement.

HERE IS AN INDEFINABLE atmosphere and an unlimited amount of good derived from our Y. W. C. A. at Mansfield—only those who have been a part of this organization can realize the full truth of this statement. We all have enjoyed helping to create four-fold living; namely, spiritual, mental, social, and physical. In our so doing, we have welcomed local and foreign speakers as well as “Y” secretaries who have helped to make our weekly devotionals very valuable and inspiring. Then, too, our delegates to the Eagles Mere Conference have been very influential in increasing the Christian spirit, the willingness to do, the desire to serve, the love for others. All this was done for the girls of the school and they, in turn, have helped others by doing social service work in this community, contributing to both the National Student Council and the World’s Student Christian Federation, and keeping in touch with foreign work through the World Fellowship Committee. To make this possible we sold candy bars, ice cream sandwiches, Christmas cards, and a variety of things at our bazaar—and did we have good times there? We’ll always remember the “Y. W.” dance and the “P. J.” parties with their refreshments. In addition to all this, two of the most outstanding “Y” activities were the White Dinner and the Candle-light Service. Girls, let’s always remember the atmosphere and spirit which were so strongly felt at these meetings, and this will help you to “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in Heaven.”

Motto: "Seeing the invisible, doing the impossible."

ALTHOUGH GREATLY HANDICAPPED because of the state-wide mix up in the college finances, the Y. M. C. A. has planned and carried out its full schedule of activities for the year. This has included the joint Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Reception for new students, the annual "Minstrel", the annual pool tournament, and the organization of the Gospel Team. In addition to these historic activities it has added for the first time certain new features to the school calendar—as an example, the delightful party and dance held in the fall.

Outside of these more or less special activities, in accordance with its high objective of making Mansfield a better place in which to go to school, the "Y" has at all times endeavored to furnish the young men of the college wholesome recreation and relaxation in a homelike atmosphere. To this end, pool tables have been kept in condition, recreational and serious literature have been placed before the "Y" members for their use, a new phonograph has been purchased and installed, the walls of the hut have been decorated in a fashion pleasing and appropriate for a college Christian organization, and in general every effort has been made to increase the comfort and enjoyment of the occupants of the hut.

May Mansfield's Y. M. C. A. ever continue to so serve.

Row 1.—Norton, Miller, Isele, Smith, Snyder.

Gospel Team

The Y. M. C. A. is known throughout this district through the work of the Gospel Team. Its purposes are: to be of service to needful churches and communities, to help spread Christianity; to stimulate a genuine Christian spirit and character; and to broaden the influence of the Y. M. C. A. The one chief aim of the Gospel Team is service. The Gospel Team is like any other team in the school. At the beginning of the school year candidates are called and the teams selected. Then comes the training period, during which the schedule is prepared for the year. In not one of its encounters has the team ever met defeat thus making it unique among the teams of the school.

When the team goes to a church it takes complete charge of the service. It has its own musicians and speakers and every part of the service but that of taking the collection is in the hands of the young men.

The form of service is simple and there is no attempt at giving an evangelistic touch to the service. The topics for the sermons are within the knowledge and experience of the young men.

The team this year was very successful. Every service they held was such that they proved the value of the team and they lived up to the ideals and purposes set for it. Perhaps this organization is one of the least known in the school as far as actual contact is concerned. The student body heard them but three or four times in the various churches in town, the rest of the season was spent in filling "away" dates.

The speakers on the team were Austin Snyder, Wendell Davis, and Donald Roderick. The musicians were William Williams, piano; Frank Miller, John Isele, Leonard Emith, trumpets; Edward Hart, violin; Waldo Seamans, vocal.

Activities in the "Y.W." Rooms

THE MOST POPULAR rooms in North Hall are the "Y" Rooms. The reason for this is quite obvious because here we have the center of the social and religious functions of the girls—and for Club meetings and special occasions for the boys, too. Girls enjoy playing cards, listening to the radio, using the kitchen and its full equipment, and occasional "P. J." parties—all for which these rooms are especially suitable. At the same time we feel that the "Y" Rooms give us a very pleasant environment for the Y. W. C. A. weekly devotionals. Then, too, Clubs are welcome to share the conveniences of our "Kcsy Korner" where everyone is welcome.

The Y. M. Hut serves a similar purpose as the Y. W. Rooms. Here the young men are welcome to pass their leisure hours. A large porch and smoking room have been set aside for smoking on the campus. Games of various kinds are to be found which are the property of the "Y". In the large central room of the hut are to be found the facilities for dances, meetings and even pool tournaments. Though the hut is under the management of the Y. M. Cabinet many other organizations use the hut frequently for various social functions.

THE DOMICILIAN CLUB IS composed solely of Home Economics students, who have a common purpose in attaining various ideals. The aims of the Club are to develop leadership and personality of the individuals, as well as to promote social life among the girls of the Home Economics department. Every girl has an opportunity to take a part in the Club activities, through the social or literary phase of the program. On the Domicilian Club pin is inscribed the Greek letters Omicron Gamma Pi, which interpreted means, Home making—To Know and To Teach. The Club is a member of the American Home Economics Association, which affiliation promotes keen appreciation of research and investigation being carried on in the field.

Home Economics

 HOME ECONOMICS HAS inspiring possibilities. The goals set forth for ultimate achievement in home economics should contribute generously to the enrichment of life in many respects. The first of these is an attempt to raise the standard of the home. By training women in the arts of home-making, child-training, family relationship and correlated subjects it is hoped that this will be accomplished. This influence would be felt upon the entire community, because by improving the homes and family life we improve the whole community. Other goals toward which home economics education is striving are the elevation of the standards of recreation and aesthetic appreciation and individual and community health.

It has taken the world a long time to recognize the value of home economics education. Woman's status in the home has but recently attained the dignity it deserves and it is climbing to heights heretofore unknown.

The very earliest instruction in this field was chiefly in cooking and sewing courses under the old name of domestic science. The larger, broader term of home economics includes all the important subjects closely related to home life.

A new development at Mansfield is the organization of a class of Junior High School boys in Foods and Clothing under the name of "The Boys' Camp Club". It is hoped that this will be continued and broadened in the future.

We are still pioneers in the field of home economics. Many phases are as yet undeveloped, but rapid progress is being made and the great importance of our work is being recognized at last.

Dramatic Club

THE DRAMATIC CLUB IS ONE of the College's potential agencies for development. It endeavors to awaken and encourage among its members an appreciation for the art of refined speech and dramatic expression. The scope of its activities includes actual participation in the field of Dramatics, Expression, a study of stage-management, costuming and make-up. This inclusive program we believe tends to create not professionals, but well-informed teachers capable of appreciation and applying the principles of this art in their respective classrooms.

Drama is generally regarded as one of the most wholesome and powerful agents in the social lives of the people. Since the application and functioning of such in mass life comes principally through our educational system; it must likewise come ultimately through the well-trained teacher.

As a means of stimulating and acknowledging outstanding ability, the club this year adopted the point system as the basis for the awarding of the club pin. An outstanding feature of the system is a provision which acknowledges similar work done by its members in other extra-curricular activities.

This step in the development of the Dramatic Club Activities was actuated by certain of its members bringing to the attention and consideration of this group the foursquare objective of education: Moral, physical, intellectual and social fitness. These are the accepted and strived for purposes of this year.

Moral understanding is promoted by a study of the thoughts and feelings which move the characters in life.

Physical fitness is encouraged by insisting upon good stage carriage (acceptable posture) and careful habits of living for the reflection of a healthy personality.

Intellectual aptness is promoted by a thorough analysis of matter to be presented.

Social worth is emphasized by encouraging various members to use their dramatic powers for the success of any worthy activity with which they may become associated and for the sake of social enjoyment and enlightenment within the community.

The motivating spirit of the Dramatic Club is well expressed in— "To lose oneself in reflecting the everlasting ideal, this is the highest duty of man."

MUSIC—A UNIVERSAL LANGUAGE. That is the chosen motto of the Music Department; and so our graduates with a degree of Bachelor of Science in Public School Music are prepared to go out and teach this universal language to the children of the land as well as to the many people with which they come in contact. This year the Senior class numbers twenty-two (22) which is the largest class to have been graduated from the degree course. The department under the very efficient administration of Mrs. Grace E. Steadman, Dean of Music, presents a well organized course which ranks second to none in the state. This year there are several additions to our faculty: Mrs. Lola Morgan, Mus. B., is instructor in Harmony, Form and Analysis, Composition, Dictation; Miss Marie Scott, A. B., Assistant Music Critic (Junior and Senior High School); Mr. Gerald E. Greeley, Mus. B., instructs in Piano and Pipe Organ.

The Music Supervisors' course includes instruction in Theory, Harmony, Sight Reading, Dictation, Methods, History of Music, Eurhythmics, Pageantry, Folk Dancing and Games, Conducting, Composition, instrumental work, as well as required pedagogical subjects and electives. Practice teaching under the supervision of Mrs. Myrtle Meyers and Miss Marie Scott is carried on in every grade from the Kindergarten up to and including the Senior High School. Practical experience in conducting bands, choruses, and orchestras is also given to student teachers. The work in composition is covered very completely and thoroughly. This year's class wrote some excellent and interesting originals in the forms of songs and piano numbers.

Landon once said, "Music is God's best gift to man, the only art of Heaven given to earth and the only art of earth we take to Heaven." More than ever before has the Music Supervisors Club this year instilled and fostered in the heart of the school a desire, love and appreciation of good music. This has been accomplished through the various musical organizations of the college. The Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Dr. Will George Butler, the College Band, directed by Mr. John F. Myers, and the College Chorus of 125 voices, under the baton of Mrs. Grace Steadman, besides presenting frequent and excellent programs at the college, have given out-of-town performances. The Second Band and Orchestra, conducted by Mr. Don Baldwin, have proved an entertaining workshop for inexperienced players of instruments. The Club programs presented every two weeks have been of the highest type of entertainment given by the classes, members of the faculty, and talented musicians from neighboring cities. The principal study of the Club this year was Southern Folk Songs and Melodies, and consequently the majority of the programs were centered on this theme. Recall the very unique programs presented by the classes—the Senior program of Southern Music, the Minstrel given by the Juniors and repeated at the Christmas party, the Broadcasting of Station SOPH, and the living picture of the Freshmen. The fine calibre of the Club is shown in the fact that we are now a chartered member of the State and National Federations of Music Clubs.

Then too, we are justly proud of our quarterly publication, "The Cadence," (The last thing in Music). This paper published articles by prominent educators—faculty members, students and alumni. The Cadence was a decided success and marked one of the biggest accomplishments of the year for the Music Supervisors Club.

Looking back on the past year we realize that it has been a very full and richly inspiring year for all.

"And the night shall be filled with music
And the cares that infest the day
Shall fold their tents like the Arabs
And as silently steal away."

The Pedagogues

OW-A-DAYS A COLLEGE is hardly complete without its brightly uniformed band and well outfitted and peppy dance orchestra. The former cultivates school spirit on the football field while the latter furnishes the musical incentive for the social functions of the school. In the matter of a dance orchestra Mansfield has long been well represented by the Red and Black Serenaders. She has employed their presence at home functions and has reaped the fruits of their many out-of-town engagements. They have done much to put Mansfield on the college map and have been instrumental in attracting many good musicians to the school.

This year the personnel of the organization has undergone several changes. One in particular, George Palmer, veteran drummer, is missing. He had played with the orchestra since its organization, and his graduation last June caused a loss hard to recompense.

At the beginning of the second semester it was thought advisable to change the name of the organization. It is to be known as the "Pedagogues".

The personnel is as follows:

George Wilson—First Sax, Clarinet.

Robert Grant—Second Sax, Clarinet.

Leonard Smith—First Trumpet.

Frank Miller—Second Trumpet.

Arthur Dawe—Trombone, Violin, Vocal.

Willet McCord—Bass, Violin, Trumpet, Vocal.

Kenneth Ayers—Drums and Traps.

Willis P. Oldfield—Manager, Piano, Trumpet, Vocal Trio.

The Training School

THE TRAINING SCHOOL is the yellow brick building north of the new auditorium. It is equipped with twelve attractive and well lighted classrooms, a moderately large auditorium, two playrooms for rainy days, a library, a first aid room, a principal's office and four smaller offices where supervisors and students confer. In this building the seniors receive the most practical part of their training. Under the efficient administration of its principal, Mr. George A. Retan and his excellent staff of supervisors, this Training School affords opportunity for the student teachers to have contact with the pupils and familiarize themselves with the actual schoolroom situation.

Students in later years will look back upon the invaluable instruction received here, and appreciate the sympathetic guidance and inspiring examples set by those who have endeavored to train and fit them for the teaching profession.

The Junior High School

THE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL is housed in one of the finest buildings of its type in this part of the State. It is of the most modern type of school architecture, and is very well equipped for the kind of work to be carried on in it. Here seniors in the College courses in Academic, Domestic Science and Music departments, receive training for their professional work.

Under the efficient administration of Prof. Myron E. Webster and his corps of assistants, real help and guidance is given the student-teachers, during the training period. Here for a period of eighteen weeks the student-teachers receive thorough training in the technique of teaching and classroom management as well as in many outside activities of the school.

The program of the school follows closely that of the latest and most modern of the Junior High schools and carries out in practice as well as in theory the purposes of the Junior High School movement. Thus the teachers trained in the school are fairly well-informed in the latest and most approved methods in the Junior High School field.

It is safe to say that every college senior who has completed his or her course of training in the Junior High and has accepted his or her share of the responsibilities connected with it, comes away feeling that he is vitally interested in the program and welfare of the school.

THE OUTDOOR CLUB IS COMPOSED of those having a keen interest in one thing—the out-of-doors. The club aims to stimulate and satisfy the desire to know more about the surroundings in which we live. This satisfaction comes through learning of the flowers, native birds and trees. Each member completes some one project of value dealing with nature, an award being made for the best one completed. This is not all the club does. We hike, we eat, we make merry.

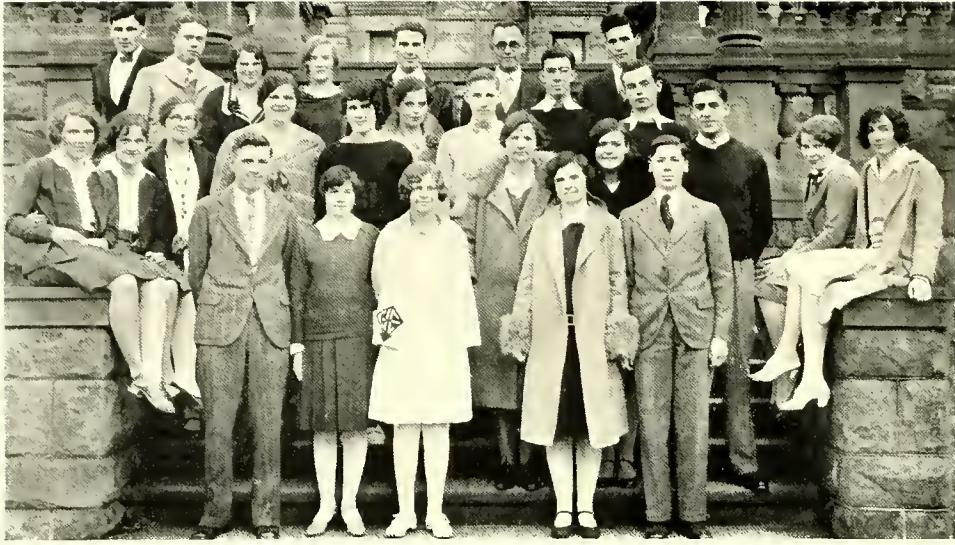

Meetings of the club are held once a month. These are of a social and instructive nature. Any college girl who is interested in this work and who is willing to cooperate is eligible to membership.

Inter-Scholastic Debating

LAST YEAR THE REVIVAL of debating was not only heartily welcomed but also effectively greeted with much literary enthusiasm. In our “matching of wits” we were almost astonished at the increase in our ability to think quickly and logically. This year we feel that our inter-scho’astic activities would not be complete without a debate. And we advanced a step—instead of a dual meet with Bloomsburg, we had a triangular debate with Clarion and Bloomsburg. Our representatives were Lucille Parson, Tena Marvin, Letha Singer, Wendell Davis, Leonard Bartoo, and Austin Snyder. The question agreed upon by the three schools was “Resolved that all Nations should adopt a policy of complete disarmament excepting such forces as are needed for police protection.”

With the Emersonian Literary Society’s sponsoring the debate, Dr. Marshall’s, Mr. Webster’s and Mr. Chatterton’s coaching, and the co-operation in securing much valuable material, our team accomplished very commendable results on that night of nights when they met their opponents on the bloodless, but never-the-less bitterly contested battle ground.

UNDER THE SPECIFIC PURPOSE of "A Square Deal for The Country Child" the Rurban Club has done much to justify its claim to being one of the most worth-while clubs in the school. In pursuance of this aim several notable projects have been completed. Among these are: the purchase of several traveling libraries for the use of rural schools, visits to various rural schools, the "adoption" of several such schools; and aid given to former members who are out in the teaching field.

Not all of the work is strictly of the serious nature previously referred to, as is evidenced by the very enjoyable social evenings of frequent occurrence. Occasionally entertainments of various kinds are presented for the benefit of the members of the club and at times for that of the school. Mention should also be made of the Pancake Breakfasts at the Park for the very direct benefit of the club members.

From talent present in the Club, a play is presented each year as the climax to Rurban Day which is held in the Spring of each year. This year's play, "Forest Acres" a three-act comedy, was presented as a fitting end to another very enjoyable Rurban Day, March 22.

TEACHER MUST DEVELOP many more sides to her nature than merely that of education. Since she is going out to guide the youth of the country to new and greater heights of development, she must acquaint herself with a knowledge of music, sports, recreations, and art. It is the last named requirement that the club of that name attempts to promote in the lives of its members. Through handicraft of various descriptions, through studies of pictures and sculpture, and of beauty in all forms, each girl gains an appreciation and love of the artistic that will prove valuable to herself and to those whom she teaches.

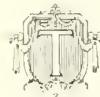

This year the club is considering several new sides of Art and the Art world. Along the line of handicrafts, each member is to be given a chance to show her individuality, by choosing a project on which she especially wishes to work. This will develop initiative. In the actual art study, sculpture, architecture, stage scenery, effect, and artistic dress will be discussed.

Even the most insignificant and common object may have beauty in it—and it is this hidden loveliness which the Art Club members are striving to find, and then having found it, pass it on to others.

THE GIRLS' ATHLETIC CLUB AIMS to promote athletics, to foster competition in individual and inter-class contests and to uphold a high standard of sportsmanship in the athletics of the school. This is the largest girls' club in the college and the club activities are interesting and varied. The meetings afford recreation and diversion from the monotony of school routine, thus a better sportsmanship is furthered among the girls off the court as well as at play. But the club activities are not all play. This year a very delightful and instructive week was carried out in full called "Good Sportsmanship Week." This proved to be of unusual interest to all the students for various forms of athletics were discussed.

This Club is open to any girl who cares to belong to it and it is through this club only that a girl can earn the letter "M",

LIKE FOR HEALTH is the slogan of the Hiking Club, but that is not all that this organization strives to do. Its other purposes are to provide outdoor exercise, social activities for the members, opportunity to earn the school emblem, and also to contribute annually toward benefitting outdoor athletics of the college. The first of these purposes has been carried out to the point where a majority of the members have hiked the necessary 250 miles for their numerals and are now rapidly nearing the 400-mile requirement for a Hiking Club pin. Just a walk around the campus or downtown does not count either—no walk of less than two miles is accepted.

As for the social activities, name the time when anyone didn't enjoy every little part that the entertainment committee prepared for each meeting.

THE "M" CLUB IS AN ORGANIZATION of thirty agile men. It was organized eight years ago by Coach Jones who made the ruling that as soon as a fellow earned his letter in a major sport at Mansfield, he automatically became a member of the Club. The major sports consist of football, basketball, baseball and tennis. This organization advocates clean sportsmanship, athletic and mental ability which are essential in everyone's life for grappling with the problems of the age. It is an organization of lively, energetic and conservative men who are the pillars of all sports. They are incomparable. Like the teeth in a machine gear, they grind until they have answered with the best that is in them. In order to defray the expenses of the Club, it sets aside a day each year for the selling of tags, and football programs are sold on "Parents' Day". This year the club enacted a play which was a considerable success. The chief expenses consist of the open and private "M" Club Dances and odd articles for their renowned initiation.

The "M" Club has the spirit of "One for all and all for one."

THE CERCLE FRANCAIS IS A NEW organization in the college this year. It aims to encourage students in the study of the literature, language, conversation and the customs of the French people. These objectives are carried out through the medium of the club programs which are held after the business of each meeting. The programs are widely varied. Dialogues are worked up, vocal and instrumental selections rendered, readings and talks on French habits and customs presented, games participated in, and folk songs learned. As far as possible every phase of the meetings is conducted in French.

Although "Le Cercle" is merely a beginner it possesses a promising future and great things are expected of it.

THE EMERSONIAN LITERARY Society is one of the top notch organizations this year having one of the largest active memberships in the school. Through the untiring efforts of our sponsor, Dr. Marshall, and a number of active members, the society has developed from a mediocre club to that of most active and valuable to the school and during the past two years has been doing wonderful work. We believe that we are succeeding in our promotion of the aims which have been set for us, namely: A program that will meet both the immediate and future needs of the members, and a program that will be of interest and value.

At the end of each year we award six honor pins to the six members who have the highest number of points, won by means of a credit system we have worked out, and based upon the work which the members do for society, scholarship, and distinguished literary attainment.

Our greatest achievement has been the promotion of inter-collegiate debating here in Mansfield. The debate held last year created such an interest that other colleges asked for debates this year. It is our hope that this interest will so develop that inter-collegiate debating among the teachers colleges in this state will be one of the big events of the year.

Flashlight

AFTER FIVE YEARS of a history punctuated all along the line with misgivings over finances and a supply of suitable material, the Flashlight has gradually edged its way into conscious recognition by the student body. One could hardly believe that so meager an attempt by a few ambitious persons could evoke into a weekly school paper that keeps the students in touch with the general happenings on the campus. From a club sponsored organization to separately controlled editorial, it has strived to gain a level that may satisfy the most critical group of observers. Eligibility to the board is not limited by any qualifications, all offices being filled by popular selection. The only attempt to choose those fitted for the task is the selection by the present board of nominees who may have had some experience or who have expressed some interest in the work. The approved list, composed of these names and any others submitted by the faculty or students is then subjected to the gauntlet of popularity. Obviously, the paper cannot be expected to be a specimen of journalistic perfection; on the contrary it is the serious endeavors of a designated few to simply relate the news from week to week.

The Carontawan

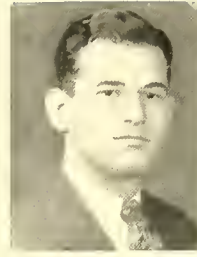

YOU HAVE IN YOUR HANDS the thirteenth Carontawan. It is the work of a group of students who have worked to give the student body, more especially the senior class, a record of activities and of their friends. Last year the Carontawan secured second class honors in a national contest for yearbooks and this year we have tried to correct the faults of last year's publication and to submit a book that will take the first class honors. We have followed the general arrangement of other books and never hesitated to copy from other Carontawans what we thought worthy of our book but also introduced new features wherever we thought advisable.

Publishing an annual is an all year job and many on the board have worked overtime to be able to turn out a creditable job. Of course everything in the book may not be to your taste but as our tastes differ do not hold that against the board. We have tried to give you a full five dollars worth and we think we have succeeded. Any appreciation you show for our work will be gratefully received because we are in for much adverse criticism.

It is the aim of every board to better the previous annual. We have done this, we hope, and feel that we have added our bit towards the making of the "perfect Carontawan". Some day that may be.

If you like this Carontawan tell us; if you don't, tell us you do, anyway.

The Cadence

(The Last Thing in Music.)

THE YOUNGEST PUBLICATION of our college, "The Cadence," was published for the first time October, 1929, by the Music Supervisor's Department. Although small in size, "The Cadence" has a large mission to perform. We hope, that by a series of articles, written by men and women of national importance in the field of music we can foster and promote interest and growth of good Public School Music. The public is not yet entirely aware of the great value of Public School Music, and we hope in a small measure to erase this blameless ignorance by our quarterly.

Our aims are:

1. To help our alumni in service.
2. To help our undergraduates.
3. To inform the public of the splendid work we are doing at our college, in the realm of musical education.

HARRY SUMMERS, Editor.

Teacher Training Magazine

THE TRAINING SCHOOL department of the college felt that there are problems that arise in teaching, which may or may not come up during practice work; there are theories of education that remain only theories; there are methods and projects with which student teachers never become acquainted. The Teacher Training Magazine endeavors to supply some of these needs: to place some of these problems and a few practical solutions, these theories and some explanations and instances of their uses and workings, to suggest projects and methods that improve teaching into our hands. Members of the faculty of the college and of the training school contribute a large share of the articles in fields of particular interest to them. Besides these articles, members of the student body, who are particularly interested in a phase of the work submit articles, and members of the alumni on the teaching field write of their actual problems and how they solved them. Occasionally, some outsider, such as Mr. Keith of the State department, discusses some pressing school problem, from the administrative point of view. The training school department makes a great effort to cover every phase of the profession and the different fields specialized in, in Mansfield.

Mansfield was a pioneer in this field, when it published the "Junior High School Quarterly." This became broader and became the "Teachers Training Magazine." The heads of the training schools are making an effort to make it more helpful, practical, and interesting each time. Just what it will grow to in the future is hard to say.

ONE OF THE MOST ENJOYABLE features of studying a foreign language is in making some practical use of it. Although Latin is always spoken of as dead yet we have found that it can be, indeed, very much alive. Because we believe there are so many things about it which are not only interesting and fascinating but also closely connected with our daily life, we have formed the Latin Club. The name which we have chosen for our club is S. P. Q. R. which might cause considerable guessing were we not to tell you that these magic initials stand for "Senatus populusque Romanus", or for the English words, "The Senate and the Roman people."

One of the things which we expect to do is to celebrate a few of the Roman festivals and to relive some of the old Roman customs. In December we celebrated Saturnalia, a very well known Roman festival which corresponds in spirit very closely to our Christmas.

The only qualification for membership in the club is that the student shall be taking Latin or shall have had three years of Latin.

Although our club is one of the newer organizations, we have already thirty-five members.

IN THE SHORT PERIOD of three years Das Vereinein has come to the top of club activities by leaps and bounds. Although small in membership the club has done some very fine work, both in and out of its immediate circle. The college in general owes Das Vereinein a debt of gratitude for originating the idea of bringing in from outside notable personages to speak to the student body. Das Vereinein started the ball rolling and other clubs have kept it in motion ever since.

The major objective of Das Vereinein is to give to its members a larger vision by showing them how a much older nation has lived, progressed, worshipped, and in general contributed to the civilization of the human race. Linguistic ability is, of course, strongly tied up with all activities in which the club members participate.

Under the wise sponsorship of Miss Gillette, who has given much of her time and energy to the club, Das Vereinein ranks well with any club in Mansfield.

Frosh Frolic

The Frosh have the honor of giving the first dance of the season on January 18. This dance was a success in every way and the committees in charge are to be congratulated.

The Gym was neatly decorated with crepe paper streamers and evergreens, while at each end of the floor large numerals announced that it was the Class of '33 holding forth.

The music, furnished by the Red and Black Serenaders was the kind that lightens the head, heart, and feet all at one and the same time. From the time the dance began until it had passed into history the music was all that could be asked for at any Prom.

The usual refreshments of punch and cakes completed the setting.

Soph Hop

The Soph Hop held on February 22 was a success in every way. The color scheme of red and white was carried out beautifully. Music furnished by Curreri's Orchestra was all that could be desired.

Punch was served to make the evening a perfect one and we must give the Sophomores a hand for putting over such a successful dance.

Junior Cotillion

In keeping with the time of year, the Juniors followed the dictations of St. Patrick on their annual cotillion on March 15.

The gym was nicely decorated in green and white and much of the credit for the success of the dance is due to the chairman of the committee and those who helped him in the task of dressing up the gym. A large crystal ball was set up in the center of the floor and lights flashing from this did much to make the decorative side as near to perfection as possible. The music, furnished by The Pedagogues, was all that could be desired.

Punch of a deep shade of green was served and thus the aesthetic as well as the physical appetite was satisfied.

Senior Ball

In all the college career no social function quite compared to the Senior Ball, the climax on the social calendar of every student.

This year the Senior Ball was a success in every way from beginning to end. Cares vanished at the entrance to the Gym, which, dressed in its new garb, resembled a fairy land. The decorations, consisting entirely of crepe paper made four walls and the ceiling of lovely pastel shades. Punch served throughout the dance was welcomed and refreshing.

Music furnished by "Curly" Johnson's Rhythm Kings was perfection from peppy fox trot to dreamy waltz.

Before intermission the dance was pleasantly interrupted when Russ Alden sang two lovely songs.

Intermission was spent in the College Dining Room where refreshments of fruit salad, nuts, and mints were served. A musical program was furnished with Harry Summers in charge.

Every minute of the evening was filled with pleasure and everyone hated to see it come to an end.

Other Dances

Y. W. C. A. honored St. Valentine by presenting an enjoyable dance in the Gym on February 15. The gym was neatly decorated with red cardboard hearts cut in various sizes and suspended from the girders with strips of crepe paper. Don Baldwin's Minute Men furnished the music.

Y. M. C. A. presented its annual program dance on March 29, with great success. Hackett's Aces furnished the music.

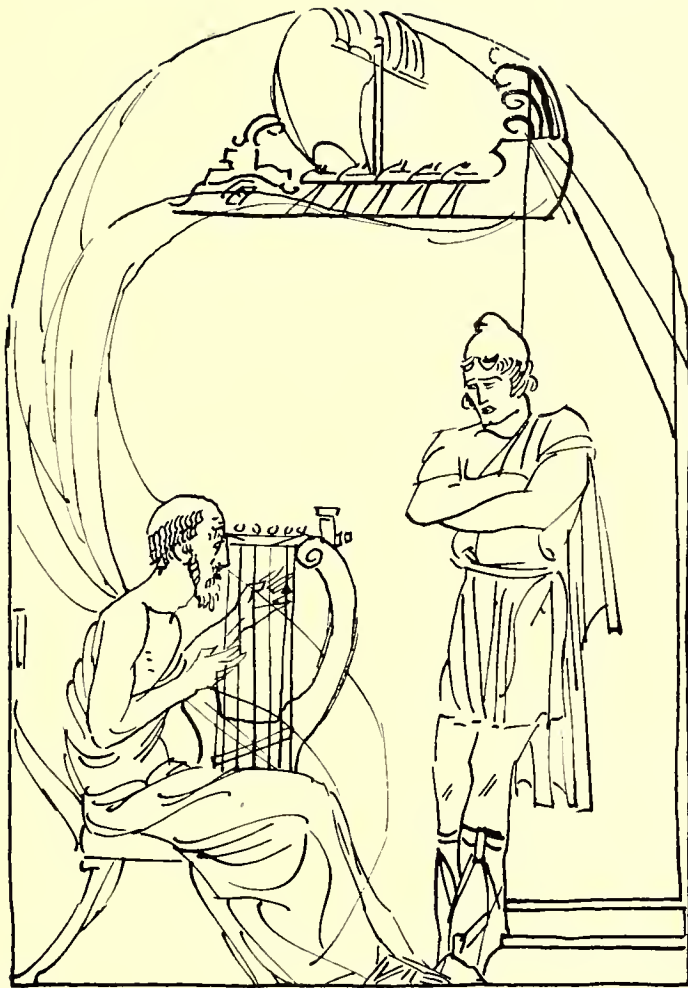

The annual private "M" Club dance, held in the Junior High School auditorium April 5 was one of the best dances of the year. Music was furnished by the Pedagogues. Punch was served throughout the dance. The girls each received a beautiful rose.

This year saw many bright and colorful dances staged by various clubs for the whole school and for the club or organization itself. The open dances were all marked successes and received the approval of all who attended. The private dances, though in most cases, smaller dances were just as successful. An interesting feature of most of the dances this year was the fact that they were all formal or semi-formal. There has been a feeling among the students for some time that the dances would be more successful if formal, and this year the fact has been proven. The success of most of the dances was due to the music largely. There are many musicians in the school who gave their time in working up excellent music for these affairs. Other of the dances used the music furnished by Frank Shepard and his machine. All the music was the kind that made dancing enjoyable.

The Music Supervisors staged several dances that were gala affairs. The German Club also gave us a night's entertainment. Dancing is so much a part of the social life we appreciate any organization that puts on a dance for us.

The Pedagogues must be thanked for all they have done in the way of providing enjoyable dances. When better dances are staged, the Pedagogues will play for them.
